Mobile Talk About A Town:

Informal STEM Learning at Home and in Community Spaces Bradley Morris, Brenna Hassinger-Das, Rachael Todaro, Jennifer DeWitt, 2024-03-22 Children in Western countries spend only about 20% of their waking time in school Meltzoff et al 2009 Leveraging the 80% of time that they spend outside of school can provide children with opportunities to engage in meaningful authentic STEM learning experiences with family members other caregivers and children STEM learning and readiness go beyond acquiring content knowledge to include interest engagement and motivation for STEM learning as well as the formation of a STEM identity To date there has been a dearth of research focusing on children's informal STEM experiences when compared to formal school based STEM learning experiences This Research Topic focuses attention on the authentic everyday experiences of children and how these experiences provide opportunities for STEM learning engagement and identity In addition these papers will explore how these everyday experiences can be leveraged and augmented to promote STEM learning and engagement through culturally relevant design and implementation

Mobile Phones: The New Talking Drums of Everyday Africa Mirjam de Bruijn, Francis Nyamnjoh, 2009-03-15 We cannot imagine life now without a mobile phone is a frequent comment when Africans are asked about mobile phones They have become part and parcel of the communication landscape in many urban and rural areas of Africa and the growth of mobile telephony is amazing from 1 in 50 people being users in 2000 to 1 in 3 in 2008 Such growth is impressive but it does not even begin to tell us about the many ways in which mobile phones are being appropriated by Africans and how they are transforming or are being transformed by society in Africa This volume ventures into such appropriation and mutual shaping Rich in theoretical innovation and empirical substantiation it brings together reflections on developments around the mobile phone by scholars of six African countries Burkina Faso Cameroon Ghana Mali Sudan and Tanzania who explore the economic social and cultural contexts in which the mobile phone is being adopted adapted and harnessed by mobile Africa
