Mobility Of Labor And Capital A Study In International Investment And Labor Flow:

The Mobility of Labor and Capital Saskia Sassen, 1990-06-29 In this empirical study Saskia Sassen offers a fresh understanding of the processes of international migration Focusing on immigration into the US from 1960 to 1985 and the part played by American economic activities abroad as well as foreign investment in the US she examines the various ways in which the internationalization of production contributes to the formation and direction of labor migration Mobilities of Labour and Capital in Asia Preet S. Aulakh, Philip F. Kelly, 2020-02-20 Explores the mobilities of capital and labour in the contemporary global economy Using an analytical framework around three dimensions related to the forms institutions and spatialities of mobility it examines the interrelationships between mobilities of capital and labour at multiple levels of analyses The Making of Citizens Bryan Roberts, 2020-11-25 Originally published as Cities of Peasants this highly acclaimed account of the expansion of capitalism in the developing world has now been extensively rewritten and updated Focusing on Latin America Bryan Roberts traces the evolution of developing societies and their economies to the present Taking account of the move towards more open economies a shrinking of the state and various transitions towards democracies he shows how urban growth has produced new patterns of social stratification creating opportunities for social mobility but doing little to decrease income inequality or political and social pressures Underlying social changes have broadened the practice of citizenship in developing countries limiting authoritarian rule but within a context of entrenched social inequalities and persisting political instability This book conveys both the flavour of life in the cities of the third world and the immediacy of their problems How Global Migration Changes the Workforce Diversity Equation Anthony Forsyth, Hina Sheikh, Francesca Sperotti, 2015-06-18 This volume explores some of the ways that a dialogue between diversity researchers and migration researchers can deepen the understanding of both It moves across economics sociology political science labour relations and legal studies demonstrating that the value of this dialogue cuts across disciplines The book particularly underlines the challenges faced in host societies including exclusion to the point of hyper precarity anti migrant attitudes and the widespread organizationa The Politics of Migrant Labour Gabriella Alberti, Devi Sacchetto, 2025-07-15 At a time when worker shortages have emerged as a global challenge this highly original book bridges migration and labour studies to examine worker mobility and its management This will be a valuable resource for both scholars and practitioners Transnational Immigrants Uma Sarmistha, 2019-07-20 This book provides a detailed account of transnational practices undertaken by Indian high tech workers living in the United States It describes the complexities and challenges of adapting to a new culture while clinging to tradition Asian Indians represent a significant part of the professional and high tech workforce in the United States and the majority are temporary workers working on contractual jobs H1 B and L1 work visa category Further it is not unusual for Indian immigrant workers to marry and have children while working in the U S Gradually they learn to negotiate the U S cultural terrain in both their place of work and at home in the U S As such there is the potential that they will become transnational developing new identities and engaging in cultural and social practices from two different nations India and the U S Against this background the book describes the nature and extent of transnational practices adopted by high tech Indian workers employed in the United States on temporary work visas The study reveals that the temporary stay of these professionals and their families in the U S necessitates day to day balancing of two cultures in terms of food clothing recreation and daily activities creating a transnational lifestyle for these young professionals Transnational activities at the workplace which are forced by the work culture of the MNCs that employ them can be considered as transnationalism from above Simultaneously being bi lingual at home cooking and eating Indian and Western food socializing with Indian and American friends outside work and all the cultural activities they perform on a day to day basis indicates transnationalism from below The book is of interest to researchers and academics working on issues relating to culture social change migration and development     Handbook of Population Dudley L. Poston Jr.,2019-04-16 The 2nd edition of the Handbook of Population covers the major topics of the discipline of demography including current substantive methodological and theoretical issues of interest as well as new and emerging topics in the field In addition to revised updated and extended chapters that were included in the 1st edition this 2nd edition of the Handbook brings to the forefront entirely new chapters covering such major themes as children adoption sexuality inequality population psychology rural demography and obesity Chapters in this Handbook will expand our knowledge of the field and will raise awareness of the causes and the consequences of demographic behavior and events in societies throughout the world This 2nd edition will also serve as a reference in the field of population studies for years to come It will generate new questions and research ideas and will positively impact the growth development and expansion of demography     Cities in a World Economy Saskia Sassen,2018-05-30 Cities in a World Economy Fifth Edition examines the emergence of global cities as a new social formation As sites of rapid and widespread developments in the areas of finance information and people global cities lie at the core of the major processes of globalization The book reflects the most current data available and explores recent debates such as the role of cities in mitigating environmental problems the global refugee crisis Brexit and the rise of Donald Trump in the United States     Celebrating 40 Years of Ethnic and Racial Studies Martin Bulmer,John Solomos,2019-12-18 This volume celebrates the 40th Anniversary of Ethnic and Racial Studies It reproduces eleven classic papers published in the journal accompanied by discussions of each paper by invited specialists and responses from the original authors The various discussions in this volume provide an insight into the evolution of contemporary debates and controversies in the field of ethnic and racial studies By bringing together these papers in one volume for the first time this book explores a number of on going debates about race and ethnicity     Expatriate Sarah Kunz,2023-01-10 Who are expatriates How do they differ from other migrants And why should we care about such distinctions Expatriate interrogates the contested category of the expatriate to explore its history and politics its making and lived experience Drawing on ethnographic and archival research the book offers a critical reading of International Human Resource Management literature explores the work and history of the Expatriate Archive Centre in The Hague and studies the usage and significance of the category in Kenyan history and present day expat Nairobi Doing so the book traces the figure of the expatriate from the mid twentieth century era of decolonisation to today's heated debates about migration The expatriate emerges as a malleable and contested category of shifting meaning and changing membership and as passionately embraced by some as it is rejected by others The book situates the changing usage of the term in the context of social political and economic struggle and explores the material and discursive work the expatriate performs in negotiating social inequalities and power relations Migration the book argues is a key terrain on which colonial power relations have been reproduced and translated and migration categories are at the heart of the insidious ways that intersecting material and symbolic inequalities are enacted today Any project for social justice needs to dissect and interrogate categories like the expatriate and this book offers analytical and methodical strategies to advance this project

Globalization and Transnational Migrations Oluyato Adesina, 2009-03-26 The past three decades have proved extremely challenging for Africa and its peoples both at home and in the Diaspora Coincidentally these were also the decades that globalization reached maturity and that the world became more interconnected and interdependent The paradox of globalization for Africa has included increase in marginalization poverty inequality migration and instability This book highlights global asymmetries by interfacing the notion of one world or flat world with the challenges thrown up by transnational migration brain drain citizenship identity multiculturalism religion and ethnicity It presents researches and discourses on globalization across disciplines and across regions and fosters ongoing inquiry into important assumptions beliefs and perspectives about the implications of globalization for Africa and Africans It covers major areas of concern movement of refugees xenophobia transition from economic migration to citizenship challenges of integration and conflict of identity The authors investigate the experiences of Africans in various economic sectors and geographical locations and the trends in hegemony inequality cultural changes and the dynamics of social movements and struggles Through illuminating narratives and copious explanations this book assists readers to make sense of globalization and the position of Africa and Africans in it

Migration: Policies, Practices, Activism Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2014-01-02 Migration Policies Practices Activism brings together a range of scholarly research papers to examine the place of international migration in the modern world starting with the overview of migration and development by Alejandro Portes There are many aspects to migration today which are treated in this collection including new patterns of migration flows asylum and the handling of refugees multiculturalism religious and cultural diversity identity formation among immigrant communities and the impact of migration upon social and economic development Chapters in this book look at a variety of migration case studies including aspects of international migration in Europe movement from sub Saharan Africa northwards movement from Albania to Italy a comparison of the USA and Germany the entry of international brides to South Korea and the concept of diversity and its use in the study of the outcomes of migration This is a stimulating collection which looks at many facets of the phenomenon This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Handbook of Population Dudley L. Poston, Michael Micklin, 2006-08-10 This comprehensive handbook provides an overview and update of the issues theories processes and applications of the social science of population studies The volume s 30 chapters cover the full range of conceptual empirical disciplinary and applied approaches to the study of demographic phenomena This book is the first effort to assess the entire field since Hauser and Duncan s 1959 classic The Study of Population The chapter authors are among the leading contributors to demographic scholarship over the past four decades They represent a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives as well as interests in both basic and applied research Production Politics and Migrant Labour Regimes Charanpal Singh Bal, 2016-09-23 This book emphasizes the importance of production politics or struggles in the workplace between workers and their employers for understanding migrant labour regimes in Asia and the Gulf Drawing from a study of Bangladeshi construction workers in Singapore as well as on comparative material in the region Bal shows that migrant labour politics are significantly influenced by the specific form of production politics as well as their variable outcomes In contrast to contentious politics approaches this book sheds light on the extent to which migrant labour regimes can be contested by workers and civil society groups and explains the recent rise in migrant labour unrest in the region

The Philippines James A. Tyner, 2010-12-22 Nearly five million migrant workers from the Philippines are employed in over 190 countries and territories They work as doctors and domestic helpers engineers and entertainers seamstresses and surveyors It is through their collective labor that the Philippines has assumed a global presence For over five centuries the Philippines has been integrated into the world economy Only recently however has the Philippines been a pro active agent in the production of a global economy Since the 1970s the Philippine state in connection with myriad private institutions has recruited trained marketed and deployed a mobile work force Annually approximately one million migrant workers travel to all corners of the world The Philippines seeks to understand how the Philippines has become the world s largest exporter of government sponsored temporary contract labor and in the process has dramatically reshaped both the processes of globalization and also our understanding of globalization as concept The Future of Global Conflict Volker Bornschier, Christopher Chase-Dunn, 1999-07-06 This critical analysis of long term trends and recent developments in world systems examines such questions as Will the cycles of boom and bust peace and war of the past 500 years continue Or have either long term trends or recent changes so profoundly altered the structure of world systems that these cycles will end or take on a less destructive form The noted international contributors to this volume examine the question of future dominance of the core global systems and include comprehensive discussions of the economic political and military role of the Pacific Rim Japan and the former Soviet Union Fragmented Ties Cecilia Menjívar, 2000-07-21 This text gives a detailed account of the inner workings of the networks by which immigrants leave their homes in Central America to start new lives in the Mission District of San Francisco      Migrant Text Subha Xavier, 2016-06-01 The expression littérature migrante coined by Québecois critics in the mid 1980s reflected the emerging body of literary works written by recent immigrants to the province. Redefining the concept of migrancy Subha Xavier's The Migrant Text argues that global movements of people have fundamentally changed literary production over the past thirty years. Bringing together a corpus of recent novels by immigrants to France and Quebec Xavier suggests that these diverse works extend beyond labels such as francophone or postcolonial literature to forge a new mode of writing that deserves recognition on its own terms. Weaving together literary theory and salient examples taken from numerous French language novels The Migrant Text shows how both external and internal factors shape migrant writing in contemporary French literature. The opening chapters trace the elusive concept of the migrant as it appears in extant theories of nationalism postcolonialism world literature and francophonie. What follows are incisive analyses of fiction written for French audiences by authors from Algeria Cameroon China Haiti Iraq and Poland whose works reveal that the processes of troubling national categories and evading colonial power dynamics can be wellsprings for creativity. One of the most pressing social and political topics of our day immigration challenges our ideas about homeland and citizenship. Celebrating the courage and tenacity of immigrants from around the world The Migrant Text carves a new space for discussing the dynamics of global literature.      New Directions in the Sociology of Human Rights Patricia Hynes, Michele Lamb, Damien Short, Matthew Waites, 2016-03-23 New Directions in the Sociology of Human Rights is a contribution to both sociology and to human rights research particularly where these are directed towards challenging power relations and inequalities in contemporary societies. It expands and develops the sociology of human rights as a sub field of sociology and interdisciplinary human rights scholarship. The volume suggests new directions for the use of social and sociological theories in the analysis of issues such as torture and genocide and addresses a number of themes which have not previously been a sustained focus in the sociology of human rights literature. These range from climate change and the human rights of soldiers to corporate social responsibility and children's rights in relation to residential care. The collection is thus multi dimensional examining a range of specific empirical contexts and also considering relationships between sociological analysis and human rights scholarship and activism. Hence in a variety of ways it points the way for future analyses and also for human rights activism and practices. It is intended to widen our field of vision in the sociology of human rights and to spark both new ideas and new forms of political engagement. This book was published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights.      Power, Production and Social Reproduction S. Gill, I.

Bakker, 2003-09-30 Written by leading authorities from Europe the Americas and Asia this path breaking work develops an innovative and original theorization of global political economy. Whilst most approaches theorize global political economy from the perspectives of power and production or states and markets this work argues that what feminists call social reproduction is a more basic framework upon which most forms of power and production and states and markets must necessarily rest By combining Feminist and Radical Political Economy with Critical International Studies the volume explores how global transformations of states growth in the power of capital and extension of market values and market forces in everyday life all affect the security of the majority of the population and the reproduction of communities and societies The book shows how public and private forms of power regulate three main aspects of social reproduction biological reproduction reproduction of labour power and social practices connected to caring and provisioning of human needs
