Model for Christian Wholeness Dan Ivins,1985 Christian Wholism John B. Wong,2002 In this stimulating work Dr Wong propounds Christian Wholism as a path to peace and joy as well as healing for our brokenness and lostness in the postmodern world Wong discusses what it means to be whole in our spiritual intellectual physical ethical psychological and other domains of our multidimensional personhood Some practical suggestions are offered He voices a hope in God s promise of a resurrected body as the gift of ultimate wholeness Christian Mind in the Emerging World Peter Tze Ming Ng,Wing Tai Leung,Vaughan King Tong Mak,2018-10-31 In response to challenges from the emerging world this book brings together essays that discuss and exemplify various related approaches to academic faith integration and explore how Christian faith should underpin scaffold and frame our understanding of academic disciplines leading to practical implications for work or action in modern society and culture Written by Christian scholars and practitioners from diverse backgrounds including the USA the UK Australia China Hong Kong South Korea and the Philippines the contributions here all contribute a global perspective while addressing some specific issue or case in the context of Asia They represent ingenious endeavors that illustrate the workings of a faith integrated approach in domains as wide as higher education business science psychology and counseling politics environment media social services leadership research and technology This volume will inform and inspire the reader into cross cultural and inter disciplinary studies particularly of religion education culture society and worldview Christian Couples Coping with Childlessness Auli Vahakangas,2009-06-01 Children are the focus of marriage in African cultures Marriage is considered full and functional only if the couple has children in many cultures preferably a boy Becoming a parent also contributes to one s full adulthood in the sense that childlessness blocks ascent towards full personal dignity as an adult person in the community As a result childlessness is often a major disaster for both of the spouses It has social economical and personal consequences quite often including divorce This book explores in depth how childlessness is perceived dealt with and coped with in two Christian communities in Machame on the slopes of Mt Kilimanjaro Childlessness is approached through narratives of the spouses concerned and the members of their communities Their stories reveal pain and courage brokenness and strength faithfulness and betrayal Christianity presents itself in an ambiguous light on one hand pressuring spouses to keep up facades supporting oppressive structures On the other hand Christian faith provides childless couples with personal hope in the afterlife that the African traditional culture offers only to those with children This study proves that childlessness is not only a personal but also a communal problem Childlessness and the fear of having no children contribute to family structures and sexual behavior In this way they have a considerable impact on the spread of HIV AIDS in Africa However this study reveals that the attitudes and practices towards marriage and children need not be petrified but rather that traditions can and do change Liberating Faith Roger S. Gottlieb,2003 Table of contents Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care Emmanuel Y. Lartey,Hellena Moon,2020-09-23 This anthology is about caring for all persons as a part of the revolutionary struggle against colonialism in its many forms In recognition of the varied ways in which different forms of oppression injustice and violence in the world today are traceable to the legacy and continuing effects of colonialism various authors have contributed to the volume from diverse backgrounds including differing ethnic identities religious and cultural traditions gender and sexual orientations as well as communal and personal realities As a postcolonial critique of spiritual care it highlights the plurality of voices and concerns that have been overlooked or obscured because of the politics of race religion sexuality nationalism and other structures of power that have shaped what discursive spiritual care entails today Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care presents voices of practical and pastoral theologians academics spiritual care providers religious leaders students and activists working to provide greater intercultural spiritual care and awareness in the areas of healthcare community work and education The volume as such expands the discourse of spiritual care and participates in the ongoing paradigm shifts in the field of pastoral and practical theology

Theorising Normalcy and the Mundane Rebecca Mallett, Cassandra A. Ogden, Jenny Slater, 2016-07-22 Emerging from the internationally recognised Theorising Normalcy and the Mundane conference series the chapters in this book offer wide ranging critiques of that most pervasive of ideas normal In particular they explore the precarious positions we are presented with and more often than not forced into by normal and its operating system normalcy Davis 2010 They are written by activists students practitioners and academics and offer related but diverse approaches Importantly however the chapters also ask what if increasingly precarious encounters with and positions of marginality and non normativity offers us a chance perhaps the chance to critically explore the possibilities of imagining otherwise The book questions the privileged position of non normativity in youth and unpacks the expectation of the normal student in both higher and primary education It uses the position of transable people to push the boundaries of disability interrogates the psycho emotional disablism of box ticking bureaucracy and spotlights the urge to know impairment It draws on cross movement and cross disciplinary work around disability to explore topics as diverse as drug use The Bible and relational autonomy Finally and perhaps most controversially it explores the benefits of re instating normal By paying attention to the opportunities presented amongst the fissures of critique and defiance this book offers new applications and perspectives for thinking through the most ordinary of ideas normal

Jungian Archetypes Robin Robertson, 2016-06-28 Twenty five hundred years ago Pythagoras taught that the simple counting numbers are the basic building blocks of reality A century and a half later Plato argued that the world we live in is but a poor copy of the world of ideas Neither realized that their numbers and ideas might also be the most basic components of the human psych archetypes This book traces the modern evolution of this idea from the Renaissance to the 20th century leading up to the archetypal hypothesis of psychologist C G Jung and the mirroring of mathematical ideas of Kurt G del

Preaching Justice Christine Marie Smith, 2008-11-01 Preaching Justice brings together eight very diverse voices from eight distinct cultural ethnic communities challenging them to articulate the specific justice concerns issues and passions that give rise to a preaching ministry within their own community and beyond Theological analyses are offered by these persons representing their particular communities Kathy Black persons with disabilities Martin Brokeniege Native Americans Teresa Fry Brown African Americans Eleazar Fernandez Filipino Americans Justo Gonzalez Hispanics Eunjoo Mary Kim Korean Americans Stacy Offner Jews Christine Marie Smith lesbians and gays This volume offers a rare vision of what transforms preaching might sound and look like and urges that all preaching whatever community it comes from whatever community it hopes to reach be grounded in the sacred acts of listening and knowing Basics of Teaching for

Christians Robert W. Pazmiño, 2002-07-17 Clinical Handbook of Pastoral Counseling Robert J. Wicks, Richard D. Parsons, Donald Capps, 2003 Building on the groundbreaking original work with the same title these articles focus on current issues such as certain life stages special populations the devalued and abused the addicted and special issues of the 1990s

The Christian Union Quarterly, 1920 Strategies for Brief Pastoral Counseling Howard W. Stone, Written by a new generation of recognized experts in pastoral care these brief foundational books offer practical advice to pastors on the most frequent dilemmas of pastoral care and counseling Relational Christianity Wesley M. Pinkham, 2022-06-21 This work begins with a transformative idea human existence is fundamentally relational Relational Christianity explores how the nature of the Trinity must define the Church and the Christian spiritual life Utilizing Scripture Christian spiritual tradition and philosophy Pinkham and Gruenberg paint the picture of a Trinitarian Jesus centered Christianity led by the Father and explored in interpersonal oneness In this view God's intimate unifying love is the theological river that runs through the landscape of biblical revelation and through God's movement in history This work of Trinitarian practical theology suggests that the relation between Father Son and Spirit should shape and guide all Christian interactions with God with others and with self In the paradigm of relational Christianity the formation of genuine personhood and identity are based upon relational connections first with the Trinity and second with God's family The shape of the new covenant community must reflect the Father's nature Church culture must prioritize relationship in the same way the Trinity does Disability in American Life Tamar Heller, Sarah Parker Harris, Carol J. Gill, Robert Gould, 2018-12-07 Disability as with other marginalized topics in social policy is at risk for exclusion from social debate This multivolume reference work provides an overview of challenges and opportunities for people with disabilities and their families at all stages of life Once primarily thought of as a medical issue disability is now more widely recognized as a critical issue of identity personhood and social justice By discussing challenges confronting people with disabilities and their families and by collecting numerous accounts of disability experiences this volume firmly situates disability within broader social movements policy and areas of marginalization providing a critical examination into the lived experiences of people with disabilities and how disability can affect identity A foundational introduction to disability for a wide audience from those intimately connected with a person with a disability to those interested in the science behind disability this collection covers all aspects of disability critical to understanding disability in the United States Topics covered include characteristics of disability disability concepts models and theories important historical developments and milestones for people with disabilities prominent individuals organizations and agencies notable policies and services and intersections of disability policy with other policy Time, Space and Ethics in the Philosophy of Watsuji Tetsurō, Kuki Shūzō, and Martin Heidegger Graham Mayeda, 2006 First Published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Cognitive Models and Spiritual Maps Jensine Andresen, Robert K. C. Forman, 2000 This book throws down a challenge to religious studies offering a multidisciplinary approach including developmental psychology neuropsychology philosophy of mind and anthropology The Christian's Pathway of Power, 1876 Text Messages John Tucker, 2017-12-06 Facebook Twitter Snapchat We live in a rapidly changing world a world that seems to be increasingly inhospitable toward preaching In the face of digital technology social media cultural pluralism and pastoral burnout how can Christian preachers proclaim the gospel faithfully and effectively This book answers that question by bringing together a selection of important voices from across North America Asia and the Pacific It argues that Spirit empowered preaching is characterized by five attributes it opens the Scriptures engages the culture addresses the listener dissects the preacher and elevates the Savior With contributions from authors like William Willimon Darrell Johnson Lynne Baab Robert Smith Jr and Paul Windsor this is an excellent resource for ordained ministers lay preachers theological students and anyone wrestling with the challenge of preaching God's word in a smartphone world
