Modern Women Writers Volume 3:

The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern Women's Writing in English, 1540-1700 Elizabeth

Scott-Baumann, Danielle Clarke, Sarah C. E. Ross, 2022 A Handbook on early modern women's writing that combines new developments in historical and critical research with theoretical and conceptual approaches A History of Early Modern Women's Writing Patricia Phillippy, 2018-01-18 A History of Early Modern Women's Writing is essential reading for students and scholars working in the field of early modern British literature and history This collaborative book of twenty two chapters offers an expansive multifaceted narrative of British women's literary and textual production in the period stretching from the English Reformation to the Restoration Chapters work together to trace the contours of a diverse body of early modern women's writing aligning women's texts with the major literary political and cultural currents with which they engage Contributors examine and take account of developments in critical theory feminism and gender studies that have influenced the reception reading and interpretation of early modern women's writing This book explicates and interrogates significant methodological and critical developments in the past four decades guiding and testing scholarship in this period of intense activity in the recovery dissemination and interpretation of women's writing Teaching Anglophone South Asian Women Writers Deepika Bahri, Filippo Menozzi, 2021-06-15 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching South Asian women's writing in English including consideration of colonization and imperialism Partition war migration and diaspora tradition and modernity global capitalism climate change gender and sexuality and intersectionality Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in postcolonial literature world literature and women's studies Chinese Women Writers and the Feminist Imagination, 1905-1948 Haiping Yan, 2006-11-22 This book works equally well in the following multiple fields Gender Studies Literary Cultural Studies Performance Studies Asian and Pacific Studies Chinese Studies Critical Theory and Literary Historiography Sex Daniel Orrells, 2015-04-30 Sex is fundamental to society We cannot think about politics power identity or culture without also thinking about sexuality Despite this the scientific study of sexual behaviour is a relatively recent phenomenon Doctors legal experts and other intellectuals have all pondered challenging questions in an attempt to stay abreast of the latest sexual research How might we separate talking about sex scientifically from discussing and consuming pornography How do we speak objectively about desire and pleasure And how do the words that we use to talk about sex affect what we are able to say about it Such questions increasingly inform public discourse across a variety of media Showing how ancient words and ideas have left a significant imprint on present day ideas about sex Daniel Orrells offers a bold new narrative of how the scientific study of sexuality came into being Uncovering the intriguing story of how the obscene and erotic verse of Roman epigram and love poetry became the sanitised language of nineteenth century sexual science this divertingly readable book demonstrates how the reception of both Latin and Greek texts was central to the development of modern sexology and psychoanalysis Ranging from Sappho Catullus and Martial to Michel Foucault Richard von Krafft Ebing and Sigmund Freud the author reveals just how profoundly classics has shaped the landscape of sexual identity that we inhabit today The History of British Women's Writing, 1610-1690 M.

Suzuki,2011-01-19 During the seventeenth century in response to political and social upheavals such as the English Civil Wars women produced writings in both manuscript and print This volume represents recent scholarship that has uncovered new texts as well as introduced new paradigms to further our understanding of women s literary history during this period

James Joyce's Legacies in Contemporary Irish Women's Writing Annalisa Mastronardi,2025-09-10 James Joyce s Legacies in Contemporary Irish Women s Writing is a ground breaking study that for the first time explores in depth the influence of James Joyce on Irish women writers from his contemporaries to more recent voices With a particular focus on Anne Enright s The Gathering Eimear McBride s A Girl Is a Half formed Thing and Emilie Pine s Ruth Pen this book examines how Irish women writers have engaged with Joyce s legacy Unlike their male counterparts who have often felt overshadowed by Joyce s influence Irish women writers have embraced and expanded upon his work viewing it not as a constraint but as an opening to new creative possibilities This book will be of particular value to Joyce scholars working in feminism and reception studies as well as students of Irish literature and women s writing It offers fresh insights into the evolving landscape of Irish literature and complicates Harold Bloom s theory of the Anxiety of Influence demonstrating how women writers perceive canonical figures like Joyce not as rivals but as trailblazers Ein Platz für sich selbst Anne Bollmann,Anne M.

Bollmann,2011 Im Mittelpunkt dieses Bandes stehen die Zusammenhänge zwischen dem Selbstverständnis schreibender Frauen und den religiösen und kulturellen Veränderungsprozessen vom 15 bis ins 17 Jahrhundert Das Augenmerk liegt insbesondere auf den unterschiedlichen Wegen die Frauen in dieser Zeit beschritten haben um sich schriftlich zu äußern ihre Texte zu verbreiten und am Austausch intellektueller Zirkel teilzunehmen Einerseits geht es also um die Kommunikationsräume in denen Verfasserinnen sich in Spätmittelalter und Früher Neuzeit bewegt haben und andererseits um die Kommunikationsformen die sie hierfür gewählt haben Zusammen genommen sind die Kommunikationsräume und formen der dokumentierbare Ausdruck für diese Wechselbeziehung zwischen den gesamtgesellschaftlichen Wandlungsprozessen und weiblicher Autorschaft The present volume focuses on the rules and customs which determined the activity of female writers in the transition from the late Middle Ages to the early modern period The topics include the connections between specific religious and cultural processes of change the praxis of women writers and women s understanding of their own role as authors In this context particular attention is given to the various routes taken by female authors of this period in order to express themselves in print to disseminate their texts and to engage in intellectual networking On the one hand therefore the focus lies on the communicative space within which female authors in the late Middle Ages and early modern times operated and on the other on the forms of communication which they chose for their literary creativity Taken together the areas and forms of communication constitute the basis of what can be documented concerning the interaction between the larger processes of change within society and the women's authorial activity

Female Cultural Production in Modern Italy Sharon Hecker, Catherine Ramsey-Portolano, 2023-04-13 This book is the first critical interdisciplinary examination in English of Italian women's contributions to intellectual artistic and cultural production in modern Italy Examining commonalities and diversities from the country's Unification to today the volume provides insight into the challenges that Italian women engaged in cultural production have faced and the strategies they have deployed in order to achieve their objectives The essays address a range of issues from women's self identification and public ownership of their professional roles as laborers in the intellectual and cultural realm to questions about motherhood and financial remuneration to the role of creative foreign women in Italy Through critical analysis and direct testimony from new and typically marginalized voices including an Arab Italian writer an Italian Dominican filmmaker and a transgender activist new forms of ongoing struggle emerge that redefine the culturally diverse landscape of female intellectual and creative production in Italy today The volume rethinks a solely national Made in Italy reading of the subject of female intellectual labor demonstrating instead the wide network of influences and relationships that have existed for Italian women in their professional aspirations

Writing Beloveds Aileen A. Feng, 2017-01-01 This study considers the way in which a poetic convention the beloved to whom Renaissance amatory poetry was addressed becomes influential political rhetoric an instrument that both men and women used to shape and justify their claims to power The author argues that Petrarchan poetic conventions were part of a social discourse that signaled anxiety concerning the rising place of women as intellectual interlocutors public figures and patrons of the arts

Spanish Women's Writing 1849-1996 Catherine Davies, 2000-12-01 Traces the tradition of Spanish women's writing from the end of the Romantic period until the present day Professor Davies places the major authors within the changing political cultural and economic context of women's lives over the past century and a half with particular attention to women's accounts of female subjectivity in relation to the Spanish nation state government politics and the women's liberation movement

Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back Anke Gilleir, Alicia A. Montoya, Suzanna van Dijk, 2010 Privileging both a transnational and a sociological approach this volume explores the position of women in the early modern literary field emphasising the international scope of their literature and examining their historical position influence network and dialogues

Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back, 2010-05-25 Interest in early modern women writers is on the rise However familiarity with their works varies greatly from one country to another and resources to assess their historical significance remain insufficient Yet empirical evidence suggests that women writers who are no longer well known today played surprisingly varied roles in the literary field of early modern Europe The papers collected in this volume address early modern female authorship from the late Middle Ages to the end of the eighteenth century ranging geographically from Portugal to Russia and from Italy to Denmark In particular they focus on three themes the creation of female spaces or communities women s appropriation of existing or developing literary genres and transnational perspectives on early modern women s writings Contributors include Vanda Anast cio Bernadette Andrea M nica Bolufer Philiep Bossier Hans Bots Kathleen Garay Nina Geerdink Perry Gethner Elena Gretchanaia Ineke Janse Madeleine Jeay Anne Marie Mai Christine Mongenot Meredith Ray Ina Schabert and Lynn Lara Westwater

The Oxford History of Poetry in English Laura L. The Oxford History of Poetry in English , 2024-08-08 The Oxford History of Poetry in English OHOPE is designed to offer a fresh multi voiced and comprehensive analysis of poetry from Anglo Saxon culture through contemporary British Irish American and Global culture including English Scottish and Welsh poetry Anglo American colonial and post colonial poetry and poetry in Canada Australia New Zealand the Caribbean India Africa Asia and other international locales OHOPE both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge research employing a global team of expert contributors for each of the fourteen volumes By taking as its purview the full seventeenth century 1603 1700 this volume re draws the existing literary historical map and expands upon recent rethinking of the canon Placing the revolutionary years at the centre of a century of poetic transformation and putting the Restoration back into the seventeenth century the volume registers the transformative effects on poetic forms of a century of social political and religious upheaval It considers the achievements of a number of women poets not yet fully integrated into traditional literary histories It assimilates the vibrant literature of the English Revolution to what came before and after registering its long term impact It traces the development of print culture and of the literary marketplace alongside the continued circulation of poetry in manuscript It places John Milton Andrew Marvell Margaret Cavendish and Katherine Philips and other mid century poets into the full century of specifically literary development It traces continuity and change imitation and innovation in the full century trajectory of such poetic genres as sonnet elegy satire georgic epigram ode devotional lyric and epic The volume s attention to poetic form builds on the current upswing in historicist formalism allowing a close focus on poetry as an intensely aesthetic and social literary mode Designed for maximum classroom utility the organization is both thematic and in the authors section chronological After a comprehensive Introduction organizational sections focus on Transitions Materiality Production and Circulation Poetics and Form Genres and Poets

Revisiting Gender in European History, 1400-1800 Elise M. Dermineur, Åsa Karlsson

Sjögren, Virginia Langum, 2018-04-17 Do women have a history Did women have a renaissance These were provocative questions when they were raised in the heyday of women s studies in the 1970s But how relevant does gender remain to premodern history in the twenty first century This book considers this question in eight new case studies that span the European continent from 1400 to 1800 An introductory essay examines the category of gender in historiography and specifically within premodern historiography as well as the issue of source material for historians of the period The eight individual essays seek to examine gender in relation to emerging fields and theoretical considerations as well as how premodern history contributes to traditional concepts and theories within women s and gender studies such as patriarchy
