Push Push And Other Stories:

Push-push! and Other Stories Sindiwe Magona, 1996 A collection of short stories in the detail of their varied backgrounds range in location from rural Transkei and township life in the Cape to central New York They have in common also as before the authors perceptive and vivid creation of memorable characters whether hilarious or tragic Kite of Stars and Other Stories Dean Francis Alfar, 2012-12-14 The Kite of Stars and Other Stories is the first collection of speculative fiction by Dean Francis Alfar including includes fantasy science fiction horror and other strange short stories youngsters go on a quest that take all their lives a man trades time in a shop mermaids are sold in a wet market and an android questions the meaning of love Sindiwe Magona and the Power of Paradox Renée Schattelman, 2024-04-23 This book examines the work of Sindiwe Magona one of South Africa's most prolific and groundbreaking writers widely recognized for highlighting the everyday experiences of women and the domestic side of apartheid A pioneer among black African women writers she is equally respected as storyteller advocate for children's education activist for HIV AIDS awareness and champion of indigenous languages In this book Renée Schattelman contends that Magona's most important contribution comes through her refusal to choose sides in the contentious debates that have polarized public discourse following apartheid By straddling two or more sides of a controversy and challenging any who do harm to others and to the nation regardless of their position she blurs distinctions that are assumed to be absolute opens new avenues of understanding and inspires alternative visions for the future By occupying the space of paradox she undermines the closed epistemological structures inherited from apartheid and champions the need for interdependence truth telling and dialogue Covering her creative production over three decades which includes novels autobiographies and biographies short story collections children's books and literature about HIV AIDS this book is an essential read for Magona enthusiasts as well as for researchers of African literature and postcolonial South Africa Waiting for Mr. Kim and Other Stories Carol Roh Spaulding, 2023-09-15 This collection of linked stories follows four generations of the Songs a Korean American family beginning in 1924 just prior to the Immigration Act and extending to near the end of the century Linked stories or stories that form a story cycle are a common book length form seen in Asian American literature that accommodates multiple perspectives across generations and locations Through this story cycle patterns emerge as cultural identity and individuality often in tension with one another shape choices and outcomes With these stories Carol Roh Spaulding charts shifting definitions of Americanness across time through the arc of a family narrative She also explores desire and belonging as articulated in turns by the mother father granddaughter great grandson and even a ghost child who died after a tragic accident But these linked stories center on the life experiences of Gracie Song They follow her from girlhood to young motherhood through her children's teenage years and finally to her elderly solitude when to her great astonishment she finds romance with a younger man and reconciliation with an estranged daughter both unexpected gifts of later life Animal

Truth and Other Stories Sharona Muir, 2022-11-22 In Sharona Muir's unique eco fabulist tales fantastic animals and real science lead people through adventure and crisis to metamorphoses of the heart and surprising truths about being human in the living system In Menu Extinction an artist obsessed with the mass extinction of species creates a banquet installation in which a mermaid is served as a dish while the banquet's imaginary satanic chef stalks his wife In Animal Truth a fiercely independent woman researching the genome of a mysterious fish discovers that her lover collaborator is her own son given away at birth and wrestles with the meanings of truth and motherhood A time travelling billionaire escaping the complexities of contemporary life in The Bath of Venus has his heart broken by a beautiful creature in Earth's remote past Each of these stories spins into gold the prickling straw of contemporary anxieties about our continued life on the planet By turns playful terrifying haunting and sensuous the stories in this collection inspire wonder at the interwoven lives of human and nonhuman beings They are both madly inventive and scientifically literate and to cite Anthony Doerr's praise for her work absolutely original

The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach, 2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought

Push, 1904 A Hunger Artist and Other Stories Franz Kafka, 2012-04-12 In recent decades interest in hunger artists has greatly diminished Kafka published two collections of short stories in his lifetime A Country Doctor Little Tales 1919 and A Hunger Artist Four Stories 1924 Both collections are included in their entirety in this edition which also contains other uncollected stories and a selection of posthumously published works that have become part of the Kafka canon Enigmatic satirical often bleakly humorous these stories approach human experience at a tangent a singing mouse an ape an inquisitive dog and a paranoid burrowing creature are among the protagonists as well as the professional starvation artist A patient seems to be dying from a metaphysical wound the war horse of Alexander the Great steps aside from history and adopts a quiet profession as a lawyer Fictional meditations on art and artists and a series of aphorisms that come close to expressing Kafka's philosophy of life further explore themes that recur in his major novels Newly translated and with an invaluable introduction and notes Kafka's short stories are haunting and unforgettable ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more
