The Pushcart Prize XIV Bill Henderson,1989

Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1993 #14

Pushcart Prize Bill Henderson,1989-10-03 Acclaimed as the largest and broadest literary anthology The Pushcart Prize once again offers an extraordinary collection of short stories essays and poetry first published by small presses and magazines from around the world

Private Fame Richard Burgin,1991

A Little Salvation Judson Mitcham,2007 This new collection from acclaimed novelist and poet Judson Mitcham features poems from the last twenty five years including forty new works and poems from his previously published collections Somewhere in Ecclesiastes 1991 and This April Day 2003 Wise witty and deceptively plainspoken Mitcham s poems show how the moments that truly save us that make us human are necessarily the most fleeting It is up to us he reminds us to create meaning from those moments and in doing so to create our own salvation The transitory nature of human experience is both the boon and the bane of the existence of the speakers in these poems and every poem seems to recognize its own temporality trying to find meaning rather than a definitive answer to the questions it raises The tone of these poems combines a strong sense of humor with a pervasive feeling of loss both celebrating and mourning that a true note is still so hard to hit These voices revel in the human condition even as they are often saddened by it While Mitcham s background and settings are distinctly southern his interests extend far beyond the regional He intimately understands the problems and the people of the South but recognizes that these are above all human problems and human beings His poems evoke Flannery O Connor Otis Redding the Bible and the Baptist Church but they also respond to Walt Whitman Wallace Stevens and the death of Jacques Derrida

Typical Padgett Powell,1992-12 A collection of stories in which Powell sheds a dark yet revealing light on the landscapes and characters that have made his reputation

Reading with a Difference Arthur F. Marotti,1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak

American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman,2021-03-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion's sun-baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are

The Boat Nam Le, 2008-10-30 In this dazzling collection Nam Le takes us across the globe as he enters the hearts and minds of characters from all over the world Whether it's the story of fourteen year old Juan a hit man in Colombia an ageing painter in New York mourning the death of his much younger lover or a young refugee fleeing Vietnam crammed in the ship's hold with two hundred others the result is unexpectedly moving and powerful This is an extraordinary work of fiction that takes us to the heart of what it means to be human

I Can't Talk About the Trees Without the Blood Tiana Clark, 2018-11-06 For poet Tiana Clark trees will never be just trees They will also and always be a row of gallows from which Black bodies once swung This is an image that she cannot escape but one that she has learned to lean into as she delves into personal and public histories explicating memories and muses around race elegy family and faith by making and breaking forms as well as probing mythology literary history her own ancestry and yes even Rihanna I Can't Talk About the Trees without the Blood because Tiana cannot engage with the physical and psychic landscape of the South without seeing the braided trauma of the broken past she will always see blood on the leaves
