

The background of the book cover is a surrealist painting. It features a grid of thin, golden-yellow lines that resemble a map's latitude and longitude. The background is a mix of light blue and yellowish-tan. In the lower-left quadrant, a face with voluminous, curly, golden-yellow hair emerges from the blue areas. The face is partially obscured by the grid lines. In the upper-right, there's a small, irregularly shaped landmass or island in yellowish-tan. The overall style is painterly and dreamlike.

Jacqueline Millner, Catriona Moore

Putting A Face On Things Studies In Imaginary Materials:

The Emergence of the Interior Charles Rice, 2006-11-22 Taking a radical position counter to many previous histories and theories of the interior domesticity and the home The Emergence of the Interior considers how the concept and experience of the domestic interior have been formed from the beginning of the nineteenth century It considers the interior's emergence in relation to the thinking of Walter Benjamin and Sigmund Freud and through case studies in architecture's trajectories toward modernism The book argues that the interior emerged with a sense of doubleness being understood and experienced as both a spatial and an image based condition Incorporating perspectives from architecture critical history and theory and psychoanalysis The Emergence of the Interior will be of interest to academics and students of the history and theory of architecture and design social history and cultural studies

Inventive Methods Celia Lury, Nina Wakeford, 2012-06-25 Social and cultural research has changed dramatically in the last few years in response to changing conceptions of the empirical an intensification of interest in interdisciplinary work and the growing need to communicate with diverse users and audiences Methods texts however have not kept pace with these changes This volume provides a set of new approaches for the investigation of the contemporary world Building on the increasing importance of methodologies that cut across disciplines more than twenty expert authors explain the utility of devices for social and cultural research their essays cover such diverse devices as the list the pattern the event the photograph the tape recorder and the anecdote This fascinating collection stresses the open endedness of the social world and explores the ways in which each device requires the user to reflect critically on the value and status of contemporary ways of making knowledge With a range of genres and styles of writing each chapter presents the device as a hinge between theory and practice ontology and epistemology and explores whether and how methods can be inventive The book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of sociology and cultural studies

Body Utopianism Franziska Bork Petersen, 2022-07-04 This book investigates how desires to transform our bodies can bring utopia to the present and how utopian practices often lead to distinctly dystopian or anti utopian outcomes It is the first comprehensive study to address the paradoxical relationship between bodies and utopianism Franziska Bork Petersen discusses doping bodybuilding and cosmetic surgery alongside practices such as retouching the body as image on social media and looks at how fashion modelling and performance estrange the body Techniques and technologies to transform our bodies are increasingly accessible and suggest an excessive identification of the body as lacking To be a body in a culturally meaningful way we incessantly improve our bodily appearance and capacity The book therefore addresses the utopianism inherent in a cultural understanding of bodies as increasingly controllable

Etta Lemon Tessa Boase, 2021-07-06 Etta Lemon The Woman Who Saved the Birds is the story of a pioneering conservationist who led the campaign against the slaughter of wild birds for extravagantly feathered hats and coaxed the world to care for birds Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2007 The Men's Fashion Reader Peter McNeil,Vicki Karaminas,2009 The Men s Fashion Reader brings together key writings in the history culture and identity of men s fashion The readings provide a balanced range of important methodological approaches primary research and significant case studies The book is organized into thematic sections covering topics such as history theory subculture iconic items of clothing consumption and the media Each section is introduced and concludes with an annotated guide to further reading With exciting illustrations of men s dress from a range of historical periods and including readings from key scholars and new writers across a wide range of fields The Men s Fashion Reader is the essential introduction to the subject Introduction The Field of Men s Fashion Part 1 A History of Men s Fashion Part 2 Masculinity and Sexuality Part 3 Icons The Evolution of Men s Wear Part 4 Subculture Part 5 Consuming and Creating Style Conclusion

Art & Text ,1998 Literature and Aesthetics ,1998 Contemporary Art and Feminism Jacqueline Millner,Catriona Moore,2021-07-05 This important new book examines contemporary art while foregrounding the key role feminism has played in enabling current modes of artmaking spectatorship and theoretical discourse Contemporary Art and Feminism carefully outlines the links between feminist theory and practice of the past four decades of contemporary art and offers a radical re reading of the contemporary movement Rather than focus on filling in the gaps of accepted histories by adding the missing female queer First Nations and women artists of colour the authors seek to revise broader understandings of contemporary practice by providing case studies contextualised in a robust art historical and theoretical basis Readers are encouraged to see where art ideas come from and evaluate past and present art strategies What strategies materials or tropes are less relevant in today s networked event driven art economies What strategies and themes should we keep hold of or develop in new ways This is a significant and innovative intervention that is ideal for students in courses on contemporary art within fine arts visual studies history of art gender studies and queer studies
