Pynchons Poetics Interfacing Theory And Text:

Pynchon's Poetics Hanjo Berressem, 1993-01-01 An analysis of Pynchon's major works such as V The Crying of Lot 49 Gravity's Rainbow and Vineland This title examines these works in the light of poststructuralist thought and literary theory investigating the notion of subjectivity and the relations between the subject culture and language The Multiple Worlds of Pynchon's Mason & Dixon Elizabeth Jane Wall Hinds, 2009 New essays examining the interface between 18th and 20th century culture both in Pynchon's novel and in the historical past Thomas Pynchon's 1997 novel Mason Dixon went further using the same style wit and erudition to re create an 18th century when America was being formed as both place and idea Pynchon's focus on the creation of the Mason Dixon Line and the governmental and scientific entities responsible for it makes a clearer statement than any of his previous novels about the slavery and imperialism at the heart of the Enlightenment as he levels a dark and hilarious critique at this America This volume of new essays studies the interface between 18th and 20th century culture both in Pynchon's novel and in the historical past It offers fresh thinking about Pynchon's work as the contributors take up the linkages between the 18th and 20th centuries in studies that are as concerned with culture as with the literary text itself Contributors Mitchum Huehls Brian Thill Colin Clarke Pedro Garcia Caro Dennis Lensing Justin M Scott Coe Ian Copestake Frank Palmeri Elizabeth Jane Wall Hinds is Professor and Chair of the English Department at SUNY Brockport Pynchon and Philosophy Martin Paul Eve, 2015-12-11 Pynchon and Philosophy radically reworks our readings of Thomas Pynchon alongside the theoretical perspectives of Wittgenstein Foucault and Adorno Rigorous yet readable Pynchon and Philosophy seeks to recover philosophical readings of Pynchon that work harmoniously rather than antagonistically resulting in a wholly fresh approach Dr Martin Paul Eve is a lecturer in literature at the University of Lincoln UK In addition to editing the open access journal of Pynchon Studies Orbit he has work published or forthcoming in Textual Practise Neo Victorian Studies C21 Pynchon Notes and several edited collections div This book was originally published with exclusive rights reserved by the Publisher in 2014 and was licensed as an open access publication in SEPTEMBER 2021 under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/> which permits use sharing adaptation distribution and reproduction in any medium or format as long as you give appropriate credit to the original author(s) and the source provide a link to the Creative Commons license if changes were made This is an open access book The New Pynchon Studies Joanna Freer, 2019-05-09 The essays in this collection are at the forefront of Pynchon studies representing distinctively twenty first century approaches to his work

Gravity's Rainbow, Domination, and Freedom Luc Herman, Steven Weisenburger, 2013-12-15 When published in 1973 Gravity's Rainbow expanded our sense of what the novel could be Pynchon's extensive references to modern science history and culture challenged any reader while his prose bent the rules for narrative art and his satirical practices taunted U S obscenity and pornography statutes His writing thus enacts freedom even as the book's great theme is domination humanity

s diminished chances for freedom in a global military industrial system birthed and set on its feet in World War II Its symbol the V 2 rocket Gravity s Rainbow Domination and Freedom broadly situates Pynchon s novel in long sixties history revealing a fiction deeply of and about its time Herman and Weisenburger put the novel s abiding questions about freedom in context with sixties struggles against war restricted speech rights ethno racial oppression environmental degradation and subtle new means of social and psychological control They show the text s close indebtedness to critiques of domination by key postwar thinkers such as Erich Fromm Herbert Marcuse and Hannah Arendt They detail equally powerful ways that sixties countercultural practices free speech resistance played out in courts campuses city streets and raucously satirical underground presswork provide a clearer bearing on Pynchon s own satirical practices and their implicit criticisms If the System has jacketed humanity in a total domination may not a solitary individual still assert freedom Or has the System captured all even supposedly immune elites in an irremediable dominion Reading Pynchon s main characters and storylines this study realizes a darker Gravity s Rainbow than critics have been willing to see Ethical Diversions Katalin Orban,2013-09-13 First Published in 2005 This study focuses on a group of related texts which have struggled to rescue rather than eliminate the paradox of answering the original question Why ethics rather than nothing The Cambridge Companion to Thomas Pynchon Inger H. Dalsgaard,Luc Herman,Brian McHale,2012 This essential Companion to Thomas Pynchon provides all the necessary tools to unlock the challenging fiction of this postmodern master Postmodern American Literature and Its Other W. Lawrence Hogue,2009 Redefining postmodern American literature to include the voices of women and nonwhite writers Fiction and the Sixth Mass Extinction Jonathan Elmore,2020-04-01 Fiction and the Sixth Mass Extinction is one of the first works to focus specifically on fiction s engagements with human driven extinction Drawing together a diverse group of scholars and approaches this volume pairs established voices in the field with emerging scholars and traditionally recognized climate fiction cli fi with texts and media typically not associated with Anthropocene fictions The result is a volume that both engages with and furthers existing work on Anthropocene fiction as well as laying groundwork for the budding subfield of extinction fiction This volume takes up the collective insistence on the centrality of story to extinction studies In various and disparate ways each chapter engages with the stories we tell about extinction about the extinction of animal and plant life and about the extinction of human life itself Answering the call to action of extinction studies these chapters explore what kinds of humanity caused this event and what kinds may live through it what cultural assumptions and values led to this event and which ones could lead out of it what relationships between human life and this planet allowed the sixth mass extinction and what alternative relationships could be possible Time and History in Deleuze and Serres Bernd Herzogenrath,2012-02-16 The first critical appraisal of Deleuze and Serre s joint conception of time and history
