Thelon David F. Pelly, 1996-06-30 David Pelly tells the Thelon's story exploring the mystery of Man's relationship with this special place in the heart of Canada's vast Arctic barrenlands From Thanadelthur and Telaruk to J W Tyrrell John Hornby and Eric Morse the history is detailed complete and exciting The Thelon is the setting for a compelling Canadian adventure tale with all its drama intrigue joy and tragedy But the writer goes beyond that to contemplate the significance of the Thelon wilderness and to examine its uncertain future It is the richness of human experience layered on top of the natural splendour of the river valley and its wildlife that really sets the Thelon apart The place has a history both Native and non Native which gives it standing beyond the intrinsic value of wilderness itself David Pelly writes as one who has been there time and again He knows the Thelon from personal experience As a freelance writer for 20 years he has travelled many parts of the Arctic but claims that nowhere draws me back more powerfully than the Thelon

Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall, 2000 Inuit sometimes referred to as Eskimo art is the primary art form of Canada and has a large international following particularly in the United States Japan and Germany Despite its popularity the complete history of Inuit art has never been presented This is the first chronological synthesis of Inuit art following its development from prehistory through early American and European exploration to the recognition of Inuit art as a commercial possibility and up to the present There is a particular emphasis on contemporary art and artists and the years 1950 through 1997 are each given separate detailed treatment in regard to important shows and events This history is appropriate both for the beginning admirer of Inuit art and for those already well immersed in it

Arctic Landscapes and Traditions 3-Book Bundle David F. Pelly, 2017-02-06 From an explorer of the North's cultural landscape comes the stories and history of remote corners of our North David F Pelly gives a rare in depth account of Inuit history based on oral testimony and historical records Includes Ukkusiksalik The People's Story Ukkusiksalik now a national park was in earlier times the principal hunting ground for several Inuit families and was criss crossed by missionaries Mounties and traders David F Pelly presents the stories of Inuit elders and historical records to provide a complete history of this extraordinary corner of our northern landscape Uvajuq The Origin of Death The Inuit story of Uvajuq oo va yook is rooted in a time when people and animals lived in such harmony and unity that they could speak to each other The legend of Uvajuq as told here was collected from a group of Inuit elders in the Nunavut community of Cambridge Bay 300 kilometres north of the Arctic Circle Thelon A River Sanctuary David Pelly tells the story of the Thelon exploring the mystery of humankind's relationship with this special place in the heart of Canada's vast Arctic Barren Lands The Making of a Museum Judith Nasby, 2021-10-13 Judith Nasby founding director and curator of the Macdonald Stewart Art Centre animates the story of the gallery from its humble beginnings in the hallways of a university campus in 1916 to its latest incarnation as the internationally recognized Art Gallery of Guelph. The book is beautifully illustrated with eighty images of artworks in the permanent collection beginning with the gallery's first acquisition Tom Thomson's 1917 masterpiece The Drive the last large canvas he painted before his tragic death. As curator Nasby oversaw the creation of one of the most comprehensive sculpture parks in Canada and the amassing of a permanent collection of some nine thousand artworks. In The Making of a Museum Nasby reveals how the museum developed its internationally recognized collection of contemporary Inuit drawings and wall hangings that toured four continents. She discusses the development of the collection's specializations in contemporary works by Canadian silversmiths historical European etchings Woodland and Northeastern Indigenous beadwork and others that arose from curatorial collaborations such as molas by Kuna women artists from Panama and contemporary paintings and indigenous woodcuts from Chongqing China. Nasby recounts her long career as founding director and curator peppering the hundred year history of cultural development on the University of Guelph campus and in the city with humorous anecdotes and personal insights to reveal how arts institutions can be created through dedication serendipity and perseverance An Annotated Bibliography of Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall, Susan M. Crandall, 2015-07-25 Archaeological digs have turned up sculptures in Inuit lands that are thousands of years old but Inuit art as it is known today only dates back to the beginning of the 1900s. Early art was traditionally produced from soft materials such as whalebone and tools and objects were also fashioned out of stone bone and ivory because these materials were readily available. The Inuit people are known not just for their sculpture but for their graphic art as well the most prominent forms being lithographs and stonecuts. This work affords easy access to information to those interested in any type of Inuit art. There are annotated entries on over 3 761 articles books catalogues government documents and other publications Irene Avaalaqiaq Judith Nasby, 2002-09-18 Irene Avaalaqiaq has received commissions for public buildings from Churchill Manitoba to Minneapolis to Ottawa. She has had solo exhibitions at the Isaacs Inuit Gallery in Toronto and her work was included in a touring exhibition organized by the Baltimore Museum of Art. In 1999 she had a solo exhibition at the Macdonald Stewart Art Centre at the University of Guelph and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws from that institute Qamanittuaq Macdonald Stewart Art Centre, Marion Elizabeth Jackson, Judith Nasby, William Noah, 1995 On Aboriginal Representation in the Gallery Canadian Ethnology Service, Canadian Museum of Civilization, 2002 This book provides a glimpse of thirteenth century life and death in a southern Ontario Iroquoian community. The renovation of a Toronto soccer field in 1997 resulted in the accidental discovery of an Iroquoian ossuary a large pit containing the remains of at least 87 people. The pit was excavated and recorded and the remains reburied in accordance with the wishes of the Six Nations Council of Oshweken. Scientific analyses of the bones resulted in a remarkably detailed demographic profile of the Moatfield people along with indicators of their health and diet. The book reports these findings and includes a complete database of maps and profiles on an accompanying CD ROM. Ronald F. Williamson is president of Archaeological Services Inc. Toronto. Susan Pfeiffer is professor of anthropology at the University of Toronto.
