

Active Listening

Ensure that all parties involved in the conflict feel heard. Encourage everyone to listen without interrupting, understanding the speaker's perspective before responding. Active listening is the foundation of effective conflict resolution.

Provide Training

Solutions Focus

Shift the focus from past grievances to future solutions. Encourage staff to brainstorm together on ways to address the conflict and prevent similar issues in the future.

Set a Process

Provide staff with a clear, step-by-step process for addressing conflicts. This could include initial private discussions, mediation with a third party if needed, and follow-up to ensure resolution.

Use 'I' Statements

Teach staff to express their feelings and thoughts using 'I' statements. This technique helps avoid blame and keeps the focus on the speaker's feelings and experiences, reducing defensiveness in others.

What's The Issue?

Often, conflicts arise from underlying issues that haven't been addressed. Encourage staff to look beyond the immediate conflict to understand the root cause. This can lead to more comprehensive and lasting solutions.

Reframe

Help individuals involved in the conflict to see the situation from the other's perspective. Reframing can promote empathy and understanding, paving the way for mutual respect and resolution.

Common Ground

Encourage staff to identify areas of agreement, even in the midst of disagreement. Finding common ground can serve as a foundation for building a collaborative solution.

Neutral Language

Train staff to communicate their concerns and suggestions without using charged or accusatory language. Neutral language facilitates a more objective and less emotional discussion.

Clear Guidelines

Develop and disseminate clear guidelines for respectful communication. Knowing the expectations for conflict resolution can help staff approach disagreements constructively.
