Reencounters In China:

Re-encounters in China Harold R. Isaacs, 2016-07-01 First Published in 1985 This book provides an observation of the Chinese Revolution by a journalist who returned to China in 1980 and can give a unique perspective and insight into that traumatic experience Harold Isaacs who in the 1930s knew Soong Ching ling Mme Sun Tay sen one of the great women of modern history sensitivity brings to the reader the revolutionary ideals and dreams of the people of Shanghai White World Order, Black Power Politics Robert Vitalis, 2015-12-09 Racism and imperialism are the twin forces that propelled the course of the United States in the world in the early twentieth century and in turn affected the way that diplomatic history and international relations were taught and understood in the American academy Evolutionary theory social Darwinism and racial anthropology had been dominant doctrines in international relations from its beginnings racist attitudes informed research priorities and were embedded in newly formed professional organizations In White World Order Black Power Politics Robert Vitalis recovers the arguments texts and institution building of an extraordinary group of professors at Howard University including Alain Locke Ralph Bunche Rayford Logan Eric Williams and Merze Tate who was the first black female professor of political science in the country Within the rigidly segregated profession the Howard School of International Relations represented the most important center of opposition to racism and the focal point for theorizing feasible alternatives to dependency and domination for Africans and African Americans through the early 1960s Vitalis pairs the contributions of white and black scholars to reconstitute forgotten historical dialogues and show the critical role played by race in the formation of international relations Jews in China Irene Eber, 2019-10-21 Irene Eber was one of the foremost authorities on Jews in China during the twentieth and twenty first centuries a field that in contrast to the study of the Jewish diaspora in Europe and the Americas has been critically neglected This volume gathers fourteen of Eber's most salient articles and essays on the exchanges between Jewish and Chinese cultures making available to students scholars and general readers a representative sample of the range and depth of her important work in the field of Jews in China Jews in China delineates the centuries long reciprocal dialogue between Jews Jewish culture and China all under the overarching theme of cultural translation The first section of the book sets forth a sweeping overview of the history of Jews in China beginning in the twelfth century and concluding with a detailed assessment of the two crucial years leading up to the Second World War The second section examines the translation of Chinese classics into Hebrew and the translation of the Hebrew Bible into Chinese The third and final section turns to modern literature bringing together eight essays that underscore the cultural reciprocity that takes place through acts of translation The centuries long relationship between Judaism and China is often overlooked in the light of the extensive discourse surrounding European and American Judaism With this volume Eber reminds us that we have much to learn from the intersections between Jewish identity and Chinese culture

Re-encounters in China Harold R. Isaacs, 2016-07-01 First Published in 1985 This book provides an observation of the Chinese Revolution by a journalist who returned to China in 1980 and can give a unique perspective and insight into that traumatic experience Harold Isaacs who in the 1930s knew Soong Ching ling Mme Sun Tey sen one of the great women of modern history sensitivity brings to the reader the revolutionary ideals and dreams of the people of Shanghai Red Friends John Sexton,2023-02-21 The story of the friends and allies of the Chinese Revolution China s resistance to Imperial Japan was the other great internationalist cause of the red 1930s along with the Spanish Civil War These desperate and bloody struggles were personified in the lives of Norman Bethune and others who volunteered in both conflicts The story of Red Friends starts in the 1920s when encouraged by the newly formed Communist International Chinese nationalists and leftists united to fight warlords and foreign domination John Sexton has unearthed the histories of foreigners who joined the Chinese revolution He follows Comintern militants journalists spies adventurers Trotskyists and mission kids whose involvement helped and sometimes hindered China s revolutionaries Most were internationalists who while strongly identifying with China s struggle saw it as just one theatre in a world revolution The present rulers in Beijing however buoyed by China s powerhouse economy commemorate them as foreign friends who aided China s peaceful rise to great power status Founded on original research it is a stirring story of idealists struggling against the odds to found a better future The author s interviews with survivors and descendants add colour and humanity to lives both heroic and tragic

The Chinese Communist Party During the Cultural Revolution P. Lubell,2001-12-17 In 1936 a group of Chinese communists were released from jail after a humiliating renunciation of communism The Chinese Communist Party then secretly employed them to galvanise support in nationalist areas of the country It later condemned the members of this group as renegades before finally rehabilitating them in 1978 Pamela Lubell uncovers the fascinating history of these communists known as the Sixty one and in doing so produces a revealing account of the tensions within the Chinese Communist Party

Wuhan, 1938 Stephen R. MacKinnon,2008-05-21 During the spring of 1938 a flood of Chinese refugees displaced by the Anti Japanese War 1937 1945 converged on the central Yangzi valley tricity complex of Wuhan For ten remarkable months in a highly charged atmosphere of carnage heroism and desperation Wuhan held out against the Japanese in what would become a turning point in the war and one that attracted international attention Stephen MacKinnon for the first time tells the full story of Wuhan s defense and fall and how the siege s aftermath led to new directions in the history of modern Chinese culture society and politics

Facing Japan Parks M. Coble,2020-03-17 In Facing Japan Parks M Coble focuses on how events that took place during the Japanese occupation of Manchuria from 1931 until war erupted in 1937 affected the Chinese government and public opinion Both in the places where incidents occurred and in other centres of power Japanese threats attacks and economic demands pressed Nationalist China relentlessly and aroused popular indignation Throughout most of the period Chiang kai Shek was trying to wrest control of China from all domestic rivals Aware that his army was inferior to Japan s his Nationalist government repeatedly made concessions in response to Japanese provocations Chiang busied himself with anti Communist campaigns leaving others to take public responsibility for his unpopular appeasement policies For such crises as the Mukden Incident and the Japanese attack on Shanghai Coble examines the tension that Chiang's policy caused within the Kuomintang and the alternatives put forward by other major leaders both inside and outside the government To further explore the political complexities of the day Coble traces the actions of regional leaders and their constantly changing relations to the central government in Nanking reviews editorials of various newspapers and chronicles the actions of student organizations and patriotic associations

Cosmopolitan Publics Shuang Shen,2009-04-08 Early twentieth century China paired the local community to the world a place and time when English dominated urban centered higher and secondary education and Chinese edited English language magazines surfaced as a new form of translingual practice Cosmopolitan Publics focuses on China s cosmopolitans Western educated intellectuals who returned to Shanghai in the late 1920s to publish in English and who ultimately became both cultural translators and citizens of the wider world Shuang Shen highlights their work in publications such as The China Critic and T ien Hsia providing readers with a broader understanding of the role and function of cultural mixing translation and multilingualism in China s cultural modernity Decades later as nationalist biases and political restrictions emerged within China the influence of the cosmopolitans was neglected and the significance of cosmopolitan practice was underplayed Shen s encompassing study revisits and presents the experience of Chinese modernity as far more heterogeneous emergent and transnational than it has been characterized until now Jewish Identities in East and Southeast Asia Jonathan Goldstein,2015-11-13 The Jewish communities of East and Southeast Asia display an impressive diversity Jonathan Goldstein s book covers the period from 1750 and focuses on seven of the area s largest cities and trading emporia Singapore Manila Taipei Harbin Shanghai Rangoon and Surabaya The book isolates five factors which contributed to the formation of transnational multiethnic and multicultural identity memory colonialism regional nationalism socialism and Zionism It emphasizes those factors which preserved specifically Judaic aspects of identity Drawing extensively on interviews conducted in all seven cities as well as governmental institutional commercial and personal archives censuses and cemetery data the book provides overviews of communal life and intimate portraits of leading individuals and families Jews were engaged in everything from business and finance to revolutionary activity Some collaborated with the Japanese while others confronted them on the battlefield The book attempts to treat fully and fairly the wide spectrum of Jewish experience ranging from that of the ultra Orthodox to the completely secular Breaking the Iron Rice Bowl Pat Howard,2020-02-13 First published in 1988 this book explores the socio economic and political impacts of Chinese socialist movements peasant initiatives rural industrialization and economic reforms in China in the mid twentieth century Embracing the Lie Charles J. Alber,2004-10-30 This volume is the first serious attempt to reconstruct Ding Ling s biography during the last few decades of her life Most Westerners know her as a progressive woman writer who became famous during the May 4 Movement championed its values in Yan an and was criticized in the rectification campaigns that followed Few know about her life afterward and the arduous process of rehabilitation Here for the first time readers will learn about her life in the Great Northern Wasteland solitary confinement in Qincheng prison her visit to the United States participation in the spiritual pollution campaign and finally the attempt to launch the journal China All of this puts a new perspective on the life of one of China s most preeminent woman writers Alber includes considerable new information about the rectification campaigns of the late fifties supplemented by a series of interviews with the author and her contemporaries in the years 1980 and 1981 the very point when she began to turn left and to compromise her progressive beliefs Ding Ling is generally acknowledged as a major figure of the May 4 Movement and an ardent admirer of Lu Xun As such the study sheds light on the legacy of China s greatest writer and the influence of Western ideals on contemporary Chinese literature The primary audience is the educated reader who has an interest in contemporary Chinese literature and politics It should be especially interesting to women but the coverage is broad enough to include anyone interested in the intellectual history of China Architecture and the Landscape of Modernity in China before 1949 Edward Denison,2017-02-17 This book explores China s encounter with architecture and modernity in the tumultuous epoch before Communism an encounter that was mediated not by a singular notion of modernism emanating from the west but that was uniquely multifarious deriving from a variety of sources both from the west and importantly from the east The heterogeneous origins of modernity in China are what make its experience distinctive and its architectural encounters exceptional These experiences are investigated through a re evaluation of established knowledge of the subject within the wider landscape of modern art practices in China The study draws on original archival and photographic material from different artistic genres and architecturally concentrates on China s engagement with the west through the treaty ports and leased territories the emergence of architecture as a profession in China and Japan s omnipresence not least in Manchuria which reached its apogee in the puppet state of Manchukuo The study s geographically temporally and architecturally inclusive approach framed by the concept of multiple modernities questions the application of conventional theories of modernity or post colonialism to the Chinese situation By challenging conventional modernist historiography that has marginalised the experiences of the west s other for much of the last century this book proposes different ways of grappling with and comprehending the distinction and complexity of China s experiences and its encounter with architectural modernity Wartime Shanghai and the Jewish Refugees from Central Europe Irene Eber,2012-04-02 The study discusses the history of the Jewish refugees within the Shanghai setting and its relationship to the two established Jewish communities the Sephardi and Russian Jews Attention is also focused on the cultural life of the refugees who used both German and Yiddish and on their attempts to cope under Japanese occupation after the outbreak of the Pacific War Differences of identity existed between Sephardi and Ashkenazi Jews religious and secular aside from linguistic and cultural differences The study aims to understand the exile condition of the refugees and their amazing efforts to create a semblance of cultural life in a strange new world
