

5. How different was the presidency of Eisenhower from that of Roosevelt or Truman's?

Important info/ key terms:

Foreign policy: a government's strategy in dealing with other nations.

*22nd Amendment passed in 1951 — this meant that presidents could only run for 2 terms, but did not apply to Truman.

Truman was so unpopular that in 1952 he announced he would not run for a 3rd time.

Why?

- Difficult following FDR
- 'Aggressive and interventionist' compared with FDR
- Unsuccessful in his interactions with union leaders during widespread rail strikes (1946)
- Supreme Court ruled Truman had exceeded his executive authority with Executive Order 10340 which seized control of the steel mills
- He went through a period of legislative conflict
- Congress rejected most of Truman's proposals
- Truman vetoed 250 bills passed by Congress
- 1951 22nd Amendment* passed limiting presidential terms to a maximum of 2.

EISENHOWER

- Eisenhower didn't try to undo Roosevelt's New Deal policies because he believed it would be political suicide to try and dismantle it.
- Dynamic conservatism is when you are conservative in your outlook on how money should be dealt with and a more liberal outlook on the people.
- Eisenhower did not put as much money as Truman did into defense, he spent over what he thought was necessary and less than what many people wanted.
- The interstate highway system that he constructed led to millions getting employed for the construction of this nationwide network of roads
- Eisenhower took some measure that extended welfare, this includes:
- Increased social security and extended coverage to 10 million more Americans in 1954
- The minimum wage was raised for 75 cents to $1 per hour in 1955
- Federal aid to education was introduced — especially in subjects like science, math and foreign languages
