Reflections Of A Palestinian:

Being Palestinian Yasir Suleiman, 2016-01-21 What does it mean to be Palestinian in the diaspora This collection of 100 personal reflections on being Palestinian is the first book of its kind Reflecting on Palestinian identity as it is experienced at the individual level issues of identity exile refugee status nostalgia belonging and alienation are at the heart of the book The contributors speak in many voices exploring the richness and diversity of identity construction among Palestinians in the diaspora Included are contributions from Palestinians living in the Anglo Saxon diaspora mainly the UK and North America They come from a variety of professional backgrounds business people lawyers judges fiction writers poets journalists press TV and radio film makers diplomats and academics Men and women young and old Christians and Muslims offer essays as do Palestinians from different generations first second and third generations This mix of professional gender faith and generational categories ensures that a variety of voices are heard The editor sets the scene with an Introduction and his Epilogue deals with issues of identity exile and diaspora as concepts that give sense to the personal reflections Key Features The first book to gather personal reflections on what it means to be Palestinian Contributes to the debate on what it means to be Palestinian Asks what the diaspora is for Palestinians Looks at how being Palestinian varies across gender generation religious affiliation and professional interest FROM APF Is being Palestinian a pain in the neck or a sentence to suffer gladly Does Palestinian identity reside in cross stitch embroidery sweet knafeh and the poetry of Mahmoud Darwish or defending the rights of oppressed communities around the world Does being Palestinian in diaspora mean anything at all In this ground breaking volume the first of its kind 102 contributors from North America and the United Kingdom reflect in their own words on what it means to be Palestinian in diaspora Exploring how Palestine is both lost and found bereaved and celebrated in diaspora and the tangled ties between home and homeland Being Palestinian takes the reader on an intimate journey into the diaspora to reveal a human story how does it feel when you cannot find Palestine under P in the encyclopaedia your father brings home Why grow fig and orange trees in the Arizona desert What does it mean to know every inch of a village that no longer exists Touching troubling but full of character and wit the reflections in Being Palestinian offer a radically fresh look at the modern Palestinian experience in the West

Women, Reconciliation and the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Giulia Daniele, 2014-04-16 Women Reconciliation and the Israeli Palestinian Conflict explores the most prominent instances of women's political activism in the occupied Palestinian territories and in Israel focussing primarily on the last decade By taking account of the heterogeneous narrative identities existing in such a context the author questions the effectiveness of the contributions of Palestinian and Israeli Jewish women activists towards a feasible renewal of the peace process founded on mutual recognition and reconciliation Based on feminist literature and field research this book re problematises the controversial liaison between ethno national narratives feminist backgrounds and women's activism in Palestine Israel In detail the most relevant salience of this study is the provision of an additional contribution to the recent debate on the process of making Palestinian and Israeli women activists more visible and the importance of this process as one of the most meaningful ways to open up areas of enquiry around major prospects for the end of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Tackling topical issues relating to alternative resolutions to the Israeli Palestinian conflict this book will be a valuable resource for both academics and activists with an interest in Middle East Politics Gender Studies and Conflict Resolution Marian Reflections on War and Peace Lenart Škof, Emily A. Holmes, Pavlo Smytsnyuk, 2025-03-31 This book presents an original Marian approach towards war and peace dedicated to the suffering of children women and men in Mariupol and elsewhere in Ukraine and in the world Offering new theological perspectives on the contemporary impact of war the contributions take inspiration from the figure and symbol of Mary as protector of children and guardian of peace intermediary of the incarnation as well as model for ecumenical interreligious and intercultural engagements The chapters explore the role of Mary as a symbol for feminist and activist reflections for the communication of suffering as the mater dolorosa for power when appropriated for political ends and for healing and reconciliation in peace building efforts The book provides readers with valuable theological reflections on conflict global theological ethics ecofeminist and peace building thinking in theology and contemporary political theology Solidarity and the Palestinian Cause Zahi Zalloua, 2023-01-12 Zahi Zalloua provides the first examination of Palestinian identity from the perspective of Indigeneity and Critical Black Studies Examining the Palestinian question through the lens of settler colonialism and Indigeneity this timely book warns against the liberal approach to Palestinian Indigeneity which reinforces cultural domination and urgently argues for the universal nature of the Palestinian struggle Foregrounding Palestinian Indigeneity reframes the Palestinian Israeli conflict as a problem of wrongful dispossession a historical harm that continues to be inflicted on the population under the brutal Occupation of the West Bank and Gaza At the same time in a global context marked by liberal democratic ideology such an approach leads either to liberal tolerance the minority is permitted to exist so long as their culture can be contained within the majority order or racial separatism that is appeals for national independence typically embodied in the two state solution Solidarity and the Palestinian Cause not only insists that any analysis of Indigeneity's purchase must keep this problem of translation in mind but also that we must recast the Palestinian struggle as a universal one As demonstrated by the Palestinian support for such movements as Black Lives Matter and the reciprocal support Palestinians receive from BLM activists the Palestinian cause fosters a solidarity of the excluded This solidarity underscores the interlocking global struggles for emancipation from racial domination and economic exploitation Drawing on key Palestinian voices including Edward Said and Larissa Sansour as well as a wide range of influential philosophers such as Slavoj i ek Frantz Fanon and Achille Mbembe Zalloua brings together the Palestinian question Indigeneity and Critical Black Studies to develop a transformative anti racist vision of the world Reflections on Exile and Other Essays Edward W. Said, 2000 With their powerful blend of political and aesthetic concerns Edward W Said's writings have transformed the field of literary studies This long awaited collection of literary and cultural essays offers evidence of how much the fully engaged critical mind can contribute to the reservoir of value thought and action essential to our lives and culture

Palestine and Israel David McDowall,1991-07-01 In this thoroughly researched and highly topical book David McDowall considers the Palestinian uprising from a historical social and political perspective and carefully reassesses the prospects for a settlement of the Arab Israeli conflict

In the Eye of the Storm Mitri Raheb,2023-06-23 The situation of Christians in the Middle East has become an important topic of international discussion as well as an important theme covered in the media as several CBS Sixty Minutes programs have highlighted the plight of Christians in Palestine Syria Jordan Lebanon and Egypt In the Eye of the Storm tells the story of the plight of twenty first century Middle Eastern Christians in five countries Palestine Israel Jordan Lebanon and Egypt in the context of the so called Arab Spring and within a destabilized region that is a geopolitical triangle shaped by Israeli hegemony and Arab Iranian tensions The book places the situation of the Christians within the wider sociopolitical context of the Middle East in the twenty first century A unique feature of this book is that it is written mainly by native Christians who have spent their entire lives in the region and continue to live there In the Eye of the Storm therefore provides an insider perspective rather than a hegemonic and colonial outsider perspective This book hopes to offer a sociopolitical framework for the Christians of the Middle East thus allowing them to tell their own story as they see it and not one that has been projected onto them by outside forces

The Sociology of the Palestinians Khalil Nakhleh,Elia Zureik,2024-05-01 First published in 1980 The Sociology of the Palestinians is a comprehensive collection of sociological and demographic studies of the Palestinian people One paper deals with the Palestinian Arabs in pre 1967 Israel and the various methods of social control adopted by the Zionist regime to co opt and control the Arab population A second paper focuses on the Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza An analysis of current Palestinian demography with projections for the future is made and the minority position of the Palestinians in the Arab World is critically assessed An examination of the role of Palestinian intellectuals is followed by a theoretical discussion on the development of Palestinian class structure Finally the role of Palestinian women is examined in the context of traditional social structure and the specific political and economic situation which confront Palestinian society This book will be of interest to students of history sociology and political science

Palestinians Born in Exile Juliane Hammer,2009-08-17 In the decade following the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords some 100 000 diasporic Palestinians returned to the West Bank and Gaza Among them were children and young adults who were born in exile and whose sense of Palestinian identity was shaped not by lived experience but rather through the transmission and re creation of memories images and history As a result returning to the homeland that had never actually been their home presented challenges and disappointments for these young Palestinians who found their lifeways and values sometimes at odds with those of their new neighbors in the West Bank and Gaza This original ethnography records the experiences of Palestinians born in exile who have emigrated to the Palestinian homeland Juliane Hammer interviews young adults between the ages of 16 and 35 to learn how their Palestinian identity has been affected by living in various Arab countries or the United States and then moving to the West Bank and Gaza Their responses underscore how much the experience of living outside of Palestine has become integral to the Palestinian national character even as Palestinians maintain an overwhelming sense of belonging to one another as a people

Philosophical Perspectives on the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Tomis Kapitan, 2015-06-11 This volume addresses a number of philosophical problems that arise in consideration of the century old conflict between Israeli Jews and Palestinian Arabs Consisting of essays by fifteen contributors including both Israeli and Palestinian philosophers and a lengthy introduction by the editor it deals with rights to land sovereignty self determination the existence and legitimacy of states cultural prejudice national identity intercommunal violence and religious intransigence

Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball, 2012-11-27 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine s struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine

Arab Feminisms: Gender and Equality in the Middle East Jean Makdisi, Noha Bayoumi, Rafif Rida Sidawi, 2014-01-29 Is there a truly Arab feminist movement Is there such a thing as Islamic feminism What does it mean to be a feminist in the Arab World today Does it mean grappling with the main theoretical elements of the movement Or does it mean involvement at the grassroots level with everyday activism This book examines the issues and controversies that are hotly debated and contested when it comes to the concept of feminism and gender in Arab society today It offers explorations of the theoretical issues at play the latest developments of feminist discourse literary studies and sociology as well as empirical data concerning the situation of women in Arab countries such as Iraq and Palestine It is certainly not surprising that when looking at the situation on the ground in many countries of the Arab World particularly Palestine Iraq and Lebanon as well as Sudan issues of war civil conflict military occupation and imperialism often override those of gender The place of feminism in this context is extremely problematic as nationalist sectarian religious and class interests not to mention the interests of occupation authorities and the resistance movements that oppose them supersede feminism as a public concern even among many women Arab feminists are thus either co-opted by these interests or find themselves in the frustrating position of negotiating their way through a minefield of contradictory imperatives and loyalties Arab Feminisms examines these contexts and sheds light upon the difficult position in which feminists often find themselves It looks at different social and political situations such as the development of Palestinian feminist discourse in a post Oslo world the impact of the civil war in Lebanon on women and Kuwaiti women s struggles for equality This book therefore offers valuable theoretical analysis as well as indispensable first hand accounts of feminism in the Arab World for those researching gender relations in the Middle East and beyond

Canada as a Settler Colony on the Question of Palestine Jeremy Wildeman, M. Muhannad Ayyash, 2024-02-14 Canada as a Settler Colony on the Question of Palestine explores Canada Palestine relations through a settler colonial lens The authors argue that there are direct parallels between Canada s settler colonial project and its support for the Israeli settler colonial dispossession of Palestinians Chapters reflect on community politics and activism migration orientalism and critical race theory Among its unique contributions the volume provides a fresh look at Canada s foreign policy as informed and shaped by its own history of settler colonialism The collection also illuminates the breadth and depth of Palestinian life in Canada Throughout the chapters are connected by common themes of settler colonial destruction dispossession segregation and otherness as well as accounts of people challenging those processes in search of a better and fairer world The book will be of interest to scholars in Indigenous Studies International Relations Peace and Conflict Studies Canadian Studies Palestine Studies and beyond Contributors Samer Abdelnour Nadia Abu Zahra Rachad Antonius Lina Assi M Muhannad Ayyash Peige Desjarlais Randa Farah Azeezah Kanji Maurice Jr Labelle Nadia Naser Najjab Emily Regan Wills Mira Sucharov Jeremy Wildeman Foreword by Veldon Coburn

Behind the Intifada Joost R. Hiltermann, 2021-04-13 Before the intifada began Joost Hiltermann had already looked at local organizations in the Israeli occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip and seen there the main elements that would eventually be used to mobilize the Palestinian masses In the first comprehensive study of these organizations Hiltermann shows how local organizers provided basic services unavailable under military rule while recruiting for the cause of Palestinian nationalism

Postcolonial Traumas Abigail Ward, 2015-10-12 This collection of essays explores some new possibilities for understanding postcolonial traumas It examines representations of both personal and collective traumas around the globe from Palestinian Caribbean African American South African Maltese Algerian Indian Australian and British writers directors and artists

Edward Said on the Prospects of Peace in Palestine and Israel J. LeBlanc, 2013-11-12 John Randolph LeBlanc examines the political oeuvre of critic and activist Edward Said and finds that Said preferred reconciliation to segregation in Palestine Israel LeBlanc argues that Said s criticism speaks to the importance of negotiating the troubling proximate and unsettling presence of our most perplexing others

Mental Health and Palestinian Citizens in Israel Itzhak Levav, Muhammad M. Haj-Yahia, Ora Nakash, 2019-10-01 Minorities face particular social strains and these are often manifested in their overall mental health In Israel just under a quarter of the citizens are Arab Palestinians yet very little has been published exploring the spectrum of mental health issues prevalent in this population The work collected here draws on the first hand experience of experts working with Israeli Palestinians to highlight the problems faced by service users their families and their communities Palestinians in Israel face unique social gender and family related conditions that also need reliable research and assessment Mental Health and Palestinian Citizens in Israel offers research and observation on three central topics socio cultural determinants of mental health mental health needs and mental health service utilization From suicidal behaviors and addiction to generational trauma and the particular concerns of children and the elderly this broad and careful collection of research opens new dialogues on treatment prevention and methods for providing the best possible care to those in need

Witness in Palestine Anna Baltzer, 2019-01-22 Anna Baltzer a young Jewish American went to the West Bank to discover the realities of daily life for Palestinians under the occupation What she found would change her outlook on the conflict forever She wrote this book to give voice to the stories of the people who welcomed her with open arms as their lives crumbled around them For five months Baltzer lived and worked with farmers Palestinian and Israeli activists and the families of political prisoners traveling with them across endless checkpoints and roadblocks to reach hospitals universities and olive groves Baltzer witnessed firsthand the environmental devastation brought on by expanding settlements and outposts and the destruction wrought by Israel's Security Fence which separates many families from each other their communities their land and basic human services What emerges from Baltzer's journal is not a sensationalist tale of suicide bombers and conspiracies but a compelling and inspiring description of the trials of daily life under the occupation

Becoming Pro-Palestinian Rosemary Sayigh, 2024-02-22 This book brings together testimonials from people of different nationalities and professions who are pro Palestinian whether as scholars film makers artists musicians activists or NGO workers Using what oral historians call the focused life history renowned scholar Rosemary Sayigh invites her contributors to describe the experiences events motives and feelings that led them to support the Palestinian cause The book is the first of its kind in Palestiniography and includes voices from countries across the world A chapter is dedicated to each country and contributors are asked to reveal how they discovered Palestine given that Palestine is rarely mentioned in school textbooks or university courses whether by travel friendship study membership in a political party or book group They are also asked to detail what specific forms their engagement has taken ranging scholarly creative militant or charitable and what their hopes are for the international solidarity movement Finally each contributor reflects on if they feel a just and equitable solution can ever be achieved for Palestinians and if they accept the label pro Palestinian or would rather define their relationship to the Palestinians in some other way With testimonies from both high profile and grassroots activists the book is a rich and personal selection that reflects the diversity dynamism and global nature of the movement for Palestine

An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba Doctor Nahla Abdo, Nur Masalha, 2018-05-15 In 2018 Palestinians mark the 70th anniversary of the Nakba when over 750 000 people were uprooted and forced to flee their homes in the early days of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Even today the bitterness and trauma of the Nakba remains raw and it has become the pivotal event both in the shaping of Palestinian identity and in galvanising the resistance to occupation Unearthing an unparalleled body of rich oral testimony An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba tells the story of this epochal event through the voices of the Palestinians who lived it uncovering remarkable new insights both into Palestinian experiences of the Nakba and into the wider dynamics of the ongoing conflict Drawing together Palestinian accounts from 1948 with those of the present day the book confronts the idea of the Nakba as an event consigned to the past instead revealing it to be an ongoing process aimed at the erasure of Palestinian memory and history In the process each unique and wide ranging contribution leads the way for new directions in Palestinian scholarship
