Reflexive Modernization Politics Tradition And Aesthetics In The Mod:

Reflexive Modernization Ulrich Beck, Anthony Giddens, Scott Lash, 1994 Three prominent social thinkers discuss how modern society is undercutting its formations of class stratum occupations sex roles the nuclear family and more Reflexive modernization or the way one kind of modernization undercuts and changes another has wide ranging implications for contemporary social and cultural theory as this provocative book demonstrates

Reflexive Modernization Ulrich Beck, Anthony Giddens, Scott Lash, 1994-01 In this book three social thinkers discuss the implications of reflexive modernization for social and cultural theory today Ulrich Beck's vision of the risk society has already become influential Beck offers a new elaboration of his basic ideas connecting reflexive modernization with new issues to do with the state and political organization Giddens offers an in depth examination of the connections between institutional reflexivity and the de traditionalizing of the modern world We are entering he argues a phase of the development of a global society A global society is not a world society but one with universalizing tendencies Lash develops the theme of reflexive modernization in relation to aesthetics and the interpretation of culture In this domain he suggests we need to look again at the conventional theories of postmodernism aesthetic modernization has distinctive qualities that need to be uncovered and analyzed

The Politics of Inclusion and Empowerment J. Andersen, B. Siim, 2004-04-20 Globalization poses new challenges for the modern welfare state and democracies One controversial issue is how struggles for economic equality are linked with struggles for recognition of difference according to gender ethnicity and sexuality The Politics of Inclusion and Empowerment examines the political and academic debates about the inclusion or exclusion of women and marginalized social groups from different policy contexts The focus is on the different class and gender regimes influencing the interplay of political civil and social citizenship at different levels of politics
