Visualizing the Nation Joan B. Landes, 2018-08-06 Popular images of women were everywhere in revolutionary France Although women s political participation was curtailed female allegories of liberty justice and the republic played a crucial role in the passage from old regime to modern society In her lavishly illustrated and gracefully written book Joan B Landes explores this paradox within the workings of revolutionary visual culture and traces the interaction between pictorial and textual political arguments Landes highlights the widespread circulation of images of the female body notwithstanding the political leadership's suspicions of the dangers of feminine influence and the seductions of visual imagery The use of caricatures and allegories contributed to the destruction of the masculinized images of hierarchic absolutism and to forging new roles for men and women in both the intimate and public arenas Landes tells the fascinating story of how the depiction of the nation as a desirable female body worked to eroticize patriotism and to bind male subjects to the nation state Despite their political subordination women too were invited to identify with the project of nationalism Recent views of the French Revolution have emphasized linguistic concerns in contrast Landes stresses the role of visual cognition in fashioning ideas of nationalism and citizenship Her book demonstrates as well that the image is often a site of contestation as individual viewers may respond to it in unexpected even subversive ways

Milam, 2011-04-18 The Rococo emerged in France around 1700 as a playful revolt against the grandeur of the Baroque and the solemnity of Classicism It flourished during the reign of Louis XV and began to go out of fashion in the second half of the 18th century During this brief period of less than a century it spread throughout the courts and cities of Europe with significant regional variations on the style developing in Bavaria Potsdam Venice and Great Britain The period produced an extraordinary number of artistic innovators who challenged received conventions developed novel subject categories and eroded hierarchical distinctions between the arts The Historical Dictionary of Rococo Art covers all aspects of Rococo art history through a chronology an introductory essay a review of the literature an extensive bibliography and over 350 cross referenced dictionary entries on prominent Rococo painters sculptors decorative artists architects patrons theorists and critics as well as major centers of artistic production This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Rococo art

Ordering Colours in 18th and Early 19th Century Europe Tanja C. Kleinwächter, Sarah Lowengard, Friedrich Steinle, 2023-10-04 This book describes the international effort to give order to colours and thus facilitate communication about it two topics deemed essential to a modernising world that were also recognizably complex Expert essays will enhance readers understanding of the struggle to coordinate nature with art at a time when approaches to both were undergoing rapid change Ordering Colours shows how such seemingly trivial concerns as identifying the basic colours and disseminating appropriate colour diagrams had to meet philosophical scientific and professional needs across Europe Contributors detail the many schemes for colour systematization and their real world applications questions of concern to both academic and manufacturing focused investigators throughout the long 18th century They bring together original research and new thinking about landmark early modern studies to address important developments as well as neglected historical contributions of European arts sciences and economies This collection is an important addition to the libraries of all who are interested in public culture and manufacturing developments in the early modern period and is aimed at historians of art technology philosophy and physics

French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin s highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Versified Prints W. McAllister
