Selected Poems and Related Prose, 2002 The Reading Mina Loy's Autobiographies Sandeep

Parmar, 2013-08-08 Mina Loy is recognised today as one of the most innovative modernist poets numbering Gertrude Stein Marcel Duchamp Djuna Barnes and T S Eliot amongst her admirers Drawing on substantial new archival research this book challenges the existing critical myth of Loy as a modern woman through an analysis of her unpublished autobiographical prose Mina Loy's Autobiographies explores this major twentieth century writer's ideas about the modern and how they apply to the modernist writer based on her engagement with twentieth century avant garde aesthetics and charts how Loy herself uniquely defined modernity in her essays on literature and art Sandeep Parmar here shows how ultimately Loy's autobiographies extend the modernist project by rejecting earlier impressions of avant garde futurity and newness in favour of a late modernist aesthetic one that is more pessimistic inward and interested in the fragmentary interplay between the past and present

A Cultural History of the Senses in the Modern Age David Howes, 2014-10-23 In the 20th century many aspects of life became a matter of perception in the wake of the multiplication of media stylistic experimentation and the rise of multiculturalism Life sped up as a result of new modes of transportation automobiles and airplanes and communication telephones and personal computers which emphasized the rapid movement of people and ideas The proliferation of synthetic products and simulated experiences from artificial flavors to video games in turn created heady virtual worlds of sensation This progressive mediation and acceleration of sensation along with the sensory and environmental pollution it often spawned also sparked various countertrends such as the back to nature movement the craft movement slow food and alternative medicine This volume shows how attending to the sensory dynamics of the modern age yields many fresh insights into the intertwined processes which gave the 20th century its particular feel of technological prowess and gaudy artificiality A Cultural History of the Senses in the Modern Age presents essays on the following topics the social life of the senses urban sensations the senses in the marketplace the senses in religion the senses in philosophy and science medicine and the senses the senses in literature art and the senses and sensory media

Space as Storyteller Laura Chiesa, 2016-07-15 Walter Benjamin's Arcades Project suggests that space can become a storyteller if so plenty of fleeting stories can be read in the space of modernity where repetition and the unexpected cross pollinate In Space as Storyteller Laura Chiesa explores several stories across a wide range of time that narrate spatial jumps from Benjamin's tangential take on the cityscape the experimentalism of Futurist theatricality the multiple and potential atlases narrated by Italo Calvino and Georges Perec and the posturban thought and practice of Bernard Tschumi and Rem Koolhaas OMA Space as Storyteller diverts attention from isolated disciplines and historical or geographical contexts toward transdisciplinary encounters that mobilize the potential to invent new spaces of comparison a potential the author describes as architecturability

Deleuze and Futurism Helen Palmer, 2014-10-23 This book is an original exploration of Deleuze's dynamic philosophies of space time and language bringing Deleuze and futurism together for the first time Helen Palmer investigates both the potential for creative novelty and the pitfalls of formalism within both futurist and Deleuzian linguistic practices Through creative and rigorous analyses of Russian and Italian futurist manifestos the futurist aspects of Deleuze's language and thought are drawn out The genre of the futurist manifesto is a literary and linguistic model which can be applied to Deleuze's work not only at times when he writes explicitly in the style of a manifesto but also in his earlier writings such as Difference and Repetition 1968 and The Logic of Sense 1969 The way in which avant garde manifestos often attempt to perform and demand their aims simultaneously and the problems which arise due to this is an operation which can be perceived in Deleuze's writing With a particular focus on Russian zaum the book negotiates the philosophy behind futurist nonsense language and how Deleuze propounds analogous goals in The Logic of Sense This book critically engages with Deleuze's poetics ultimately suggesting that multiple linguistic models operate synecdochically within his philosophy

The Modernist Corpse Erin E. Edwards, 2018-01-16 An unconventional take on the corpse challenges traditional conceptions of who and what counts as human while offering bold insights into the modernist project Too often regarded as the macabre endpoint of life the corpse is rarely discussed and largely kept out of the public eye In The Modernist Corpse Erin E. Edwards unearths the critically important but previously buried life of the corpse which occupies a unique place between biology and technology the living and the dead Exploring the posthumous as the posthuman Edwards argues that the corpse is central to understanding relations between the human and its others including the animal the machine and the thing From photographs of lynchings to documentation of World War I casualties the corpse is also central to the modernist project Edwards turns critical attention to the corpse through innovative posthumanist readings of canonical thinkers such as William Faulkner Jean Toomer W. E. B. Du Bois Mina Loy Djuna Barnes and Gertrude Stein offering new insights into the intersections among race gender technical media and matter presumed to be dead Edwards's expansive approach to modernism includes diverse materials such as Hollywood film experimental photography autopsy discourses and the comic strip Krazy Kat producing a provocatively broad understanding of the modernist corpse and its various lives The Modernist Corpse both establishes important new directions for modernist inquiry and overturns common thought about the relationship between living and dead matter humanity of the stranger Authors who write xenoglossic verse occupy languages without a perceived birthright or sanctioned education they compose in ecstatic orphan tongues that rebuff nationalist ideologies on the one hand and globalization on the other uprooting notions of belonging ensconced in nativist metaphors of milk blood and soil while rendering the reactionary category of the barbarian obsolete Raised within or in the wake of fascism these poets practice strategic forms of literary and linguistic barbarism proposing modes of collectivity that exceed geopolitical definitions Studying experiments between languages by immigrant refugee and otherwise stateless authors from Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven to Emilio Villa Amelia Rosselli Etel Adnan LaTasha N Nevada Diggs Chika Sagawa and Sawako Nakayasu this book explores how poetry can both represent and jumpstart metamorphosis of the shape and sound of citizenship modeling paths toward alternative republics in which poetry might assume a central agency

Perspectives on Mobility Ingo Berensmeyer, Christoph Ehland, 2013-08-01 Literature as cultural discourse has always courted mobility From the nomadic wanderings of the heroes of Homer and Virgil through the adventures of the medieval knight errants to the travellers of modern times movement and mobility have been constitutive elements of story telling Since writers have begun to explore the experiential dimension of movement their texts have embraced the essential changeability and instability of mobile worlds In this sense literature reflects and processes the transformative force of movement on the perception of the world and is part of the broader cultural discourses of mobility From the 1936 film Night Mail to the rapid movements of the dime novel detective and the metaphorical coding of automobility in Futurist poetry the essays in this volume offer new perspectives on the phenomenon of mobility at the intersection between the literary imagination and cultural experience They explore movement as a decisive force of change in the story of modernity and show how literature in its representation of mobility simultaneously aims both to mirror and to grasp the phenomenon
