(Konstantin Ustinovich) Chernenko, 1982 Peace Now, Peace for the Future Andrei Andreevitch Gromyko, 1979 Selected Speeches and Writings Abraham Lincoln, 1992 Ranging from finely honed legal argument to dry and sometimes savage humor to private correspondence and political rhetoric of unsurpassed grandeur the writings collected in this volume are at once the literary testament of the greatest writer ever to occupy the White House and a documentary history of America in Abraham Lincoln s time They record Lincoln s campaigns for public office the evolution of his stand against slavery his pyrotechnic debates with Stephen Douglas his conduct of the Civil War and the great public utterances of his presidency including the Emancipation Proclamation and the Gettysburg Address For the first time the authoritative editions of works by major American novelists poets scholars and essayists collected in the hardcover volumes of The Library of America are being published singly in a series of handsome paperback books A distinguished writer has contributed an introduction for each volume which also includes a chronology of the author's life and career an essay on the text and notes Speech is of Time Robert Gordon Menzies, Sir Robert Gordon Menzies, 1958 The Keys of Power Nathan Crick, 2017-08-31 Examines Transcendentalism as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Nathan Crick has crafted a new critical rhetorical history of American Transcendentalists that interprets a selection of their major works between the years 1821 and 1852 as political and ethical responses to the growing crises of their times In The Keys of Power Crick argues that one of the most enduring legacies of the Transcendentalist movement is the multifaceted understanding of transcendental eloquence as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Crick examines the Transcendentalist understanding of how power is constituted in both the self and in society conceptualizing the relationships among technology nature language and identity critiquing the ethical responsibilities to oneself the other and the state and defining and ultimately praising the unique role that art action persuasion and ideas have in the transformation of the structure of political culture over historical time What is offered here is not a comprehensive genealogy of ideas a series of individual biographies or an effort at conceptual generalization but instead an exercise in narrative rhetorical theory and criticism that interprets some of the major specific writings and speeches by men and women associated with the Transcendentalist movement Sampson Reed Amos Bronson Alcott Orestes Brownson Ralph Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Henry David Thoreau and Frederick Douglass by placing them within a specific political and social history Rather than attempting to provide comprehensive overviews of the life and work of each of these individuals this volume presents close readings of individual texts that bring to life their rhetorical character in reaction to particular exigencies while addressing audiences of a unique moment This rhetoric of Transcendentalism provides insights into the keys of power that is the means of persuasion for our modern era that remain vital tools for individuals seeking to reconcile power and virtue in their struggle to make manifest a higher ideal in the world In the Service of My Beliefs Fafa E.
