Selected Writing Sir Ecoke:

Henry Chadwick, Selected Writings Chadwick, 2017 Rare scholarly insight into the early church still relevant for the church today This anthology offers a choice selection of writings by one of the twentieth century s premier church historians Sir Henry Chadwick Many of Chadwick s considerable contributions to a fuller understanding of the early church were unpublished or not circulated widely during his lifetime but here they are compiled in a convenient accessible form Reflecting Chadwick s wide ranging expertise this volume contains his essays on a variety of themes pertaining to the early church including the emerging faith s relationship to classical culture the interaction between piety politics and theology councils in the early church the power of music in the church and more As relevant for the study of early Christianity today as when they were first written Chadwick s essays remain a valuable resource for better understanding the church both past and present shedding light on ecumenical problems that still keep Christians visibly divided Paris School Semiotics:

Theory Paul Perron, Frank Collins, 1989-01-01 It has often been claimed that the aim of semiotics is to establish a general theory of systems of signification However as Jean Claude Coquet notes in a recent collection of essays what distinguishes one school of semiotics from another is the initial definition given of sign If for certain semioticians the sign is first of all an observable phenomenon for the Paris School it is first of all a construct and this point of departure has crucial theoretical and practical consequences The essays appearing in these two volumes are representative of recent work carried out by members of this semiotic school Essays in Volume I study problems more closely related to theoretical issues while Volume II focuses more specifically on various fields of application The Educational Times, and Journal of the College of Preceptors , 1908

Educational Times and Journal of the College of Preceptors , 1908 Selected Writings Roman Jakobson, 1966 Paris School Semiotics Paul Perron, Frank Collins, 1989-01-01 It has often been claimed that the aim of semiotics is to establish a general theory of systems of signification However as Jean Claude Coquet notes in a recent collection of essays what distinguishes one school of semiotics from another is the initial definition given of sign If for certain semioticians the sign is first of all an observable phenomenon for the Paris School it is first of all a construct and this point of departure has crucial theoretical and practical consequences The essays appearing in these two volumes are representative of recent work carried out by members of this semiotic school Essays in Volume I study problems more closely related to theoretical issues while Volume II focuses more specifically on various fields of application Education Outlook , 1894 Select Specimens of the Great French Writers in the 17th, 18th, & 19th Centuries ... George Eugène-Fasnacht, 1894 Educational Times , 1891 Selected Writings: Slavic epic studies Roman Jakobson, 1966 Security John T. Hamilton, 2013-06-21 From national security and social security to homeland and cyber security security has become one of the most overused words in culture and politics today Yet it also remains one of the most undefined What exactly are we talking about when we talk about security In this original and timely book John Hamilton examines the discursive versatility and semantic vagueness of security both in current and historical usage Adopting a philological approach he explores the fundamental ambiguity of this word which denotes the removal of concern or care and therefore implies a condition that is either carefree or careless Spanning texts from ancient Greek poetry to Roman Stoicism from Augustine and Luther to Machiavelli and Hobbes from Kant and Nietzsche to Heidegger and Carl Schmitt Hamilton analyzes formulations of security that involve both safety and negligence confidence and complacency certitude and ignorance Does security instill more fear than it assuages Is a security purchased with freedom or human rights morally viable How do security projects inform our expectations desires and anxieties And how does the will to security relate to human finitude Although the book makes clear that security has always been a major preoccupation of humanity it also suggests that contemporary panics about security and the related desire to achieve perfect safety carry their own very significant risks

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies

Manual of Standardization in the Romance Languages Franz Lebsanft, Felix Tacke, 2020-01-20 Language standardization is an ongoing process based on the notions of linguistic correctness and models This manual contains thirty six chapters that deal with the theories of linguistic norms and give a comprehensive up to date description and analysis of the standardization processes in the Romance languages The first section presents the essential approaches to the concept of linguistic norm ranging from antiquity to the present and includes individual chapters on the notion of linguistic norms and correctness in classical grammar and rhetoric in the Prague School in the linguistic theory of Eugenio Coseriu in sociolinguistics as well as in pragmatics cognitive and discourse linguistics The second section focuses on the application of these notions with respect to the Romance languages It examines in detail the normative grammar and the normative dictionary as the reference tools for language codification and modernization of those languages that have a long and well established written tradition i e Romanian Italian French Catalan Spanish and Portuguese Furthermore the volume offers a discussion of the key issues regarding the standardization of the minor Romance languages as well as Creoles

Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review, 1878

A Historian Looks Back Judith V. Grabiner, 2010-10-14 Judith Grabiner has written extensively on the history of mathematics principally for mathematicians rather than historians This collection of her work highlights the benefits of studying the development of mathematical ideas and the relationship between culture and mathematics She also considers the struggles and successes of famous mathematicians with the aim of inspiring students and teachers alike A large part of this book is the author's The Calculus as Algebra J L Lagrange 1736-1813 which focuses on Lagrange's pioneering attempt to reduce the calculus to algebra The nine other articles are on a broad range of other topics such as some widely held myths about the history of mathematics and the work of heavyweight mathematicians such as Descartes Newton Maclaurin and Lagrange Six of these articles have won awards from the MAA for expository excellence This collection is an inspiring resource for history of mathematics courses The Who's Who of Nobel Prize Winners, 1901-2000 Louise S. Sherby, 2001-12-30 The Who's Who of Nobel Prize Winners is a one-stop source of detailed information on the men and women who earned the Nobel Prize during the 20th century Organized chronologically by prize each extensive article contains in-depth information on the laureate's life and career as well as a selected list of his or her publications and biographical resources on the individual A concise commentary explains why the laureate received the award and summarizes the individual's other important achievements This completely updated edition also contains a history of the prize Four indexes distinguish this title from similar biographical references and enable researchers to search by name education nationality or citizenship and religion Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important autobiographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non-verbal art forms Between Educationalization and Appropriation Marc Depaepe, 2012 Developments in educational systems worldwide have largely contributed to the modernization and globalization of present-day society However in order to fully understand their impact educational systems must be interpreted against a background of particular situations and contexts This textbook brings together more than twenty collaborative contributions focusing on the two key themes in the work of Marc Depaepe educationalization and appropriation Compiled for his international master classes these selected writings provide not only a thorough introduction to the history of modern educational systems but also a twenty-five year overview of the work of a well-known pioneer in the field of history of education Covering the modernization of schooling in Western history the characteristics and origins of educationalization the colonial experience in education and the process of appropriation Between Educationalization and Appropriation will be of great interest to a larger audience of scholars in the social sciences Select List of Recent Purchases in Certain Departments of Literature, 1901-1903 Library of Congress, 1904
