Giacometti: Critical Essays Peter Read,2017-07-05 Giacometti

Critical Essays brings together new studies by an international team of scholars who together explore the whole span of Alberto Giacometti's work and career from the 1920s to the 1960s. During this complex period in France's intellectual history, Giacometti's work underwent a series of remarkable stylistic shifts while he forged close affiliations with an equally remarkable set of contemporary writers and thinkers. This book throws new light on under-researched aspects of his output and approach, including his relationship to his own studio, his work in the decorative arts, his tomb sculptures, and his use of the pedestal. It also focuses on crucial ways his work was received and articulated by contemporary and later writers, including Michel Leiris, Francis Ponge, Isaku Yanaihara, and Tahar Ben Jelloun. This book thus engages with energising tensions and debates that informed Giacometti's work, including his association with both surrealism and existentialism, his production of both high art and decorative objects, and his concern with both formal issues such as scale and material, and with the expression of philosophical and poetic ideas. This multifaceted collection of essays confirms Giacometti's status as one of the most fascinating artists of the twentieth century. The Postmodern Saints of France Colby Dickinson, 2013-07-18

From the mid to the late 20th century, various French thinkers have at times toyed with the label of the saint, applying it to friends, colleagues, the revered, and even the worshipped, such as Genet, Sartre, Camus, or Foucault. Despite this profaning of the term, however, here are many subtle truths which emerge from its usage among such writers. This volume is devoted to exploring certain varied notions of the saint in recent French philosophical and literary thought from within a theological context, offering insights and valuable contributions toward how we understand sainthood in cultural, philosophical, and religious terms. Each essay focuses on the convergence of a particular author's work and their various reformulations of saintliness in their writings, whether this concept is directly expressed in their writings or not. In general, the aim of the volume is to develop a critical engagement between each author's philosophical worldview and historical notions of sainthood, such that we are capable of providing new understandings of what a saint could be said to be in our world today. A Companion to Rainer Werner Fassbinder Brigitte Peucker, 2012-02-20

A Companion to Rainer Werner Fassbinder is the first of its kind to engage with this important figure. Twenty-eight essays by an international group of scholars consider this controversial director's contribution to German cinema, German history, gender studies, and auteurship. A fresh collection of original research providing diverse perspectives on Fassbinder's work in films, television, poetry, and underground theatre, Rainer Werner Fassbinder remains the preeminent filmmaker of the New German Cinema, whose brief but prolific body of work spans from the latter half of the 1960s to the artist's death in 1982. Interrogates Fassbinder's influence on the seminal ideas of his time, auteurship, identity, race, queer studies, and the cataclysmic events of German twentieth-century history. Contributions from internationally diverse scholars specializing in film culture and German studies. Includes coverage of his key films, including Gods of the Plague (1970), Beware of a Holy Whore (1971), The Bitter Tears of Petra von Kant (1972), Martha (1973), TV World on a Wire (1973), Effi Briest (1974), Ali: Fear Eats the Soul (1974), Fox and His Friends (1975), Fear of Fear (1975).

Terror and Performance Rustom Bharucha, 2014-04-16 This work goes where other books fear to tread It reaches the parts other scholars might imagine in their dreams but would neither have the international reach nor the critical acumen and forensic flourish to deliver Alan Read King s College London This book is not only timely It is overdue and it is a masterpiece unrivalled by any book I know of Erika Fischer Lichte Freie Universit t Berlin The first and only book that focuses on the intersections of performance terror and terrorism as played out beyond a Euro American context post 9 11 It is an important work both substantively and methodologically Jenny Hughes University of Manchester A profound and tightly bound sequence of reflections a rigorously provocative book Stephen Barber Kingston University London In this exceptional investigation Rustom Bharucha considers the realities of Islamophobia the legacies of Truth and Reconciliation the deadly certitudes of State controlled security systems and the legitimacy of counter terror terrorism drawing on a vast spectrum of human cruelties across the global South The outcome is a brilliantly argued case for seeing terror as a volatile and mutant phenomenon that is deeply lived experienced and performed within the cultures of everyday life

Proust among the Nations Jacqueline Rose, 2024-05-31 Known for her far reaching examinations of psychoanalysis literature and politics Jacqueline Rose has in recent years turned her attention to the Israel Palestine conflict one of the most enduring and apparently intractable conflicts of our time In Proust among the Nations she takes the development of her thought on this crisis a stage further revealing it as a distinctly Western problem In a radical rereading of the Dreyfus affair through the lens of Marcel Proust in dialogue with Freud Rose offers a fresh and nuanced account of the rise of Jewish nationalism and the subsequent creation of Israel Following Proust s heirs Beckett and Genet and a host of Middle Eastern writers artists and filmmakers Rose traces the shifting dynamic of memory and identity across the crucial and ongoing cultural links between Europe and Palestine A powerful and elegant analysis of the responsibility of writing Proust among the Nations makes the case for literature as a unique resource for understanding political struggle and gives us new ways to think creatively about the violence in the Middle East

A Poetics of Church Jennifer Reek, 2017-09-25 This innovative book aims to create a poetics of Church and a religious imaginary as alternatives to more institutional and conventional ways of thinking and of being Church Structured as a spiritual and literary journey the work moves from models of the institutional Catholic Church into more radical and ambiguous textual spaces which the author creates by bringing together an unorthodox group of thinkers referred to as poet companions the 16th century founder of the Society of Jesus Ignatius of Loyola the French thinkers Gaston Bachelard and H l ne Cixous the French poet Yves Bonnefoy and the English playwright Dennis Potter Inspired especially by the reading and writing practices of Cixous the author attempts to exemplify Cixous notion of critique f minine feminine writing that suggests new ways of seeing and relating The project s uniting of Ignatian spirituality with postmodern thinking and its concern with creating new theological literary and spiritual spaces for women both coincide and contrast with Pope Francis s pastoral and reformist tendencies which have neglected to adequately address the marginalisation of women in the Church As Francis has called for a theology of women of which there are of course many to draw from this volume will be a timely contribution with a unique interdisciplinary approach The Theatre of Sa'dallah Wannous Sonja Mejcher-Atassi, Robert Myers, 2021-05-27 The Theatre of Sa dallah Wannous is the first book in English to provide a clear sense of the significance and complexity of Wannous life and work It is unique in bringing cross disciplinary scholarship on Wannous together and aligning it with cultural practice and memory by including contributions from leading academics as well as renowned cultural figures from the Arab world This volume should be of interest to literary and theatre studies scholars cultural historians theatre practitioners and anyone who cares about contemporary theatre Syria and the Arab world Collectively the contributions demonstrate the role of cultural production especially dramatic literature in providing a portrait of and shaping a culture in the throes of profound transformation Derek Jarman and Lyric Film

Steven Dillon, 2004-04-01 Derek Jarman was the most important independent filmmaker in England during the 1980s Using emblems and symbols in associative contexts rather than conventional cause and effect narrative he created films noteworthy for their lyricism and poetic feeling and for their exploration of the gay experience His style of filmmaking also links Jarman with other prominent directors of lyric film including Pier Paolo Pasolini Andrei Tarkovsky Jean Cocteau and Jean Genet This pathfinding book places Derek Jarman in the tradition of lyric film and offers incisive readings of all eleven of his feature length films from Sebastiane to Blue Steven Dillon looks at Jarman and other directors working in a similar vein to establish how lyric films are composed through the use of visual imagery and actual poetry He then traces Jarman s use of imagery notably mirrors and the sea in his films and discusses in detail the relationship between cinematic representations and sexual identity This insightful reading of Jarman s work helps us better understand how films such as The Last of England and The Garden can be said to cohere and mean without being reduced to clear messages Above all Dillon s book reveals how truly beautiful and brilliant Jarman s movies are Cormac McCarthy's House Peter Josyph, 2013-03-01 Josyph takes an aggressively unconventional approach to McCarthy s work combining elements of travelogue interview and memoir The Washington Post In Cormac McCarthy s House author painter photographer and actor director Peter Josyph draws on a wide range of experience to pose provocative unexpected questions about McCarthy s work As a visual artist Josyph wrestles with the challenge of rendering McCarthy s former home in El Paso as a symbol of a great writer s workshop As an actor and filmmaker he analyzes the high art of Tommy Lee Jones in The Sunset Limited and No Country for Old Men Invoking the recent suicide of a troubled friend he grapples with the issue of our brother s keeper in The Crossing and The Sunset Limited But for Josyph reading the finest prose poet of our day is a project into which he invites many voices and his investigations include a talk with Mark Morrow about photographing McCarthy while he was writing Blood Meridian an in depth conversation with director Tom Cornford on the challenges of staging The Sunset Limited and The Stonemason a walk through the streets waterfronts and hidden haunts of Suttree with McCarthy scholar and Knoxville resident Wesley Morgan insights from the cast of The Gardener's Son about a controversial scene in that film actress Miriam Colon's perspective on portraying the Due a Alfonsa opposite Matt Damon in All the Pretty Horses and a harsh critique of Josyph's views on The Crossing by McCarthy scholar Marty Priola which leads to a sometimes heated debate Illustrated with thirty one photographs Josyph's unconventional journeys into the genius of Cormac McCarthy form a new highly personal way of appreciating literary greatness

The Restless Dead Cristina Rivera Garza, 2020-10-15 Based on comparative readings of contemporary books from Latin America Spain and the United States the essays in this book present a radical critique against strategies of literary appropriation that were once thought of as neutral and even concomitant components of the writing process Debunking the position of the author as the center of analysis Cristina Rivera Garza argues for the communality a term used by anthropologist Floriberto D az to describe modes of life of Indigenous peoples of Oaxaca based on notions of collaborative labor permeating all writing processes Disappropriating is a political operation at the core of projects acknowledging both at ethical and aesthetic levels that writers always work with materials that are not their own Writers borrow from the practitioners of a language entering in a debt relationship that can only be covered by ushering the text back to the communities from which it grew In a world rife with violence where the experiences of many are erased by pillage and extraction writing among and for the dead is a form of necrowriting that may well become a life affirming act of decolonization and resistance
