

The background of the entire page is an abstract, textured composition. It features a mix of light blue, dark blue, and white, creating a sense of depth and movement. The texture appears to be composed of many small, overlapping dots or fibers, giving it a tactile quality. The colors are most concentrated in the lower half, where they form a darker, more complex pattern, while the upper half is lighter and more airy.

Social Institutions and the Politics of Recognition Tony Burns,2020-08-19 The first of three volumes this definitive study explores the politics of social institutions from the time of the ancient Greeks to the Reformation in the sixteenth century Tony Burns focuses on those civil society institutions occupying the intermediate social space which exists between the family or household on the one hand and what Hegel refers to as the strictly political state on the other Arguing that the internal affairs of social institutions are a legitimate concern for students of politics he focuses on the notion of authority together with that of an individual s station and its duties Burns discusses the work of such key thinkers as Plato Aristotle Cicero Seneca Epictetus Marcus Aurelius St

Paul St Augustine St Thomas Aquinas Marsilius of Padua Nicholas of Cusa Jean Bodin Charles Loyseau John Calvin Martin Luther and Gerrard Winstanley He considers what they have said about the relationship that exists between superiors in positions of authority and their subordinates within hierarchical social institutions Between Babasaheb and Mahatma Hulas Singh, 2024-10-16 This book is a critical comparative study of Jotirao Phule and Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar modern India's two most prominent dalit leaders Although they were not close contemporaries they came to construct a firm structure of not only dalit ideology but also dalit methodology to emancipate the oppressed and depressed sections of society The book deals with their ideas in a new light highlighting aspects of convergence and contrast in their respective approach to philosophy religion society and culture It argues that deep down in his philosophic orientation Phule was quintessentially closer to Gandhi than to Ambedkar The author also contends that the usage of the term dalit exclusively in the caste communitarian sense is essentially a product of post independence political appropriation rather than social evolution The book specifically brings to light the dynamics of humanism and nationalism on the one hand and that of communitarianism on the other in the context of twentieth century colonial India Notably Gandhi is brought in the narrative to complete the triumvirate Comprehensive and deeply grounded in primary research this thought provoking book will be indispensable for students and researchers of modern Indian history sociology political science political thought exclusion studies dalit and subaltern studies and South Asian studies It will also appeal to those interested in the writings of Ambedkar and Phule
