Selected Longer Poems And Prose:

The Rape of the Lock Alexander Pope, 2003-09-02 First published in 1711 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Doctor Faustus Christopher Marlowe, 2005-08-08 In this classic and much loved edition of Marlowe's best known play John D. Jump provides the reader with a wealth of introductory and explanatory material As well as a fascinating chronology of Marlowe's life and works and extensive notes on the text this edition includes a substantial and authoritative historical introduction to the play An essential text whether studying the play in detail or coming to it for the first time Oliver Cromwell's Letters and Speeches Thomas Carlyle, 1926 The Tragical History of Dr. Faustus Christopher Marlowe, 1995 Selected Poems Hilda Doolittle, 2014-02-10 Like every major artist she challenges the reader's intellect and imagination Boston Herald Selected Poems the first selection to encompass the rich diversity of Hilda Doolittle's poetry is both confirmation and celebration of her long overdue inclusion in the modernist canon With both the general reader and the student in mind editor Louis L. Martz of Yale University who also edited H. D.'s Collected Poems 1912-1944 has provided generous examples of H. D.'s work From her early Imagist period through the lost poems of the thirties where H. D. discovered her unique creative voice to the great prophetic poems of the war years combined in Trilogy the selection triumphantly concludes with portions of the late sequences Helen in Egypt and Hermetic Definition which focus on rebirth reconciliation and the reunion of the divided self John Milton John Milton, 2013-11-19 An edition of Milton's later work rk includes the text of six books of Paradise Lost The History of Britain and the whole of Samson Agonistes Through his introduction commentary and full annotations Tony Davies sets the works in their political and cultural contexts and discusses such themes as the heroic sexuality and gender and Milton's interrogation of the meaning of history The Dean of Lismore's Book: a Selection of Ancient Gaelic Poetry from a Manuscript Collection Made by Sir J. M'Gregor [and His Brother, Duncan M'Gregor] ... in the Beginning of the Sixteenth Century. Edited with a Translation and Notes by ... T. M'Lauchlan, and an Introduction and Additional Notes by W. F. Skene Sir James MACGREGOR, 1862 World Beat Eliot Weinberger, 2006 The poets are presented in ample selections so that each may be heard clearly and biographical and bibliographical notes invite further investigation From cover to cover themes ebb and flow and boundaries blur as verses converse in a harmony unusual for the twenty-first century BOOK JACKET Sharing the Past J.A. Weingarten, 2019-09-05 Sharing the Past is an unprecedentedly detailed account of the intertwining discourses of Canadian history and creative literature When social history emerged as its own field of study in the 1960s it promised new stories that would bring readers away from the elite writing of academics and closer to the everyday experiences of people Yet the academy's continued emphasis on professional distance and objectivity made it difficult for historians to connect with the experiences of those about whom they wrote and those same emphases made it all but impossible for non-academic experts to be institutionally recognized as historians Drawing on interviews and new archival materials to construct a history of Canadian poetry written since 1960 Sharing the Past argues that the project of social history has achieved its fullest expression in lyric poetry a genre in which personal experiences anchor history Developing this genre since 1960 Canadian poets have provided an inclusive model for a truly social history that indiscriminately shares the right to speak authoritatively of the past The Dean of Lismore's Book: A Selection of Ancient Gaelic Poetry Anonymous,2019-12-09 The Dean of Lismore's Book offers a selection of Ancient Gaelic Poetry from a manuscript collection made by Sir James M Gregor Dean of Lismore in the beginning of the sixteenth century edited with a translation and notes by the Rev Thomas McLauclan The Dean's manuscript has a double value philological and literary and is calculated to throw light both on the language and the literature of the Highlands of Scotland It has a literary value because it contains poems attributed to Ossian and to other poets prior to the sixteenth century which are not to be found elsewhere and thus presents to us specimens of the traditional poetry current in the Highlands prior to that period which are above suspicion having been collected upwards of three hundred years ago and before any controversy on the subject had arisen Wild Dreams of a New Beginning Lawrence Ferlinghetti,1988 Two acclaimed poetry volumes Who Are We Now 1976 and Landscapes of Living and Dying 1979 are brought together The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound,1971 Originally published in 1950 under title The letters of Ezra Pound 1907-1941 The Great War, The Waste Land and the Modernist Long Poem Oliver Tearle,2019-03-07 The Great War The Waste Land and the Modernist Long Poem explores how cultural responses to the trauma of the First World War found expression in the form of the modernist long poem Beginning with T S Eliot's The Waste Land Oliver Tearle reads that most famous example of the genre in comparison with lesser known long poems such as Hope Mirrlees's Paris A Poem Richard Aldington's A Fool in the Forest and Nancy Cunard's Parallax As well as presenting a new history of this neglected genre the book examines the ways in which the modernist long poem represented the seminal literary form for grappling with the crises of European modernity in the wake of World War I A certain order Worth Travis Harder,2019-01-29 No detailed description available for A certain order The Bright Nails Scattered on the Ground Allen R. Grossman,1986 A series of poems traces the course of a love affair from both the man's and the woman's point of view Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape John Allman,1986 Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape John Allman's third collection of poems is a book as remarkable for its lyricism as it is for its capaciousness for there seems to be no area of thought no branch of learning no dark region of the mind into which the poet is unwilling to delve His recent Clio's Children Dostoevsky at Semyonov Square and Other Poems is a reminder as the title implies that history is a narrative art In his newest book Allman reflects on art and nature love and death the dualities that animate our common humanity The poems in Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape look back at one level to the mutable mythic cosmos of Ovid as well as Lucretius universe of benign random change But to these ancient considerations Allman brings the insights indeed the language of modern science and evolution creating a speculative aesthetic appropriate to the awesome possibilities of the atomic age I would say Allman observes that Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape is about nature that the poems speak in the complementary idioms of art and science in an attempt to comprehend nature that love recapitulates all life forms and that love finally is the only ground we stand on the only steadiness beneath us earned by us yet strangely given as we sing of glory and grief John Allman's previous books of poems are Walking Four Ways in the Wind Princeton University Press 1979 and Clio's Children New Directions 1985 He is a professor of English at Rockland Community College State University of New York

Tian Wen Yuan Qu, 1986 Describes the historical background of the poem and poses questions about Chinese mythology and the nature of the universe

That's Life William Herrick, 1985 In That's Life William Herrick's view of humanity is unsparing yet compassionate He sees life as commitment to ideals friends family but no one least of all Herrick said it was going to be easy His portraits of the members of a distinctly American family a novella five short stories and a group of five letters comprise not quite a novel but more than a collection of stories I think of it as a co-operative structure the author says in which each character owns and occupies his or her own place yet it is the entire family which operates the building To simplify matters I call the book a fiction And so we learn the past and present of each of the Millers Max and Rebecca Rebecca's mother Ruth in an old folks home and the three Miller children Eli an obsessive artist Peter an amateur student of life as he bums rides across the country and teen ager Nina a not so innocent working class child away at prep school on a scholarship But we learn about them in counterpoint and mosaic as Herrick turns our attention and our allegiance first to one member of the family and then another There are few books where human weaknesses are so fully displayed and yet where human endurance and capacity for joy are so palpably present

Reading the Modernist Long Poem Brendan C. Gillott, 2020-12-10 How do readers approach the enigmatic and unnavigable modernist long poem Taking as the form's exemplars the highly influential but critically contentious poetries of John Cage and Charles Olson this book considers indeterminacy the fundamental feature of the long poem by way of its analogues in musicology mycology cybernetics and philosophy It addresses features of these works that figure broadly in the long poem tradition such as listing typography archives mediation and mereology while articulating how both poets broke with the longform poetic traditions of the early 1900s Brendan C Gillott argues for Cage's and Olson's centrality to these traditions in developing critiquing and innovating on the longform poetics of the past their work revolutionized the longform poetry of the 20th and 21st centuries

Sigismund Lars Gustafsson, 1985 King Sigismund the seventeenth century Polish monarch learns how to live simultaneously in the past present and the future
