trenchant troubles for the social sciences relating to language culture meaning knowledge action and social organisation In this original collection scholars working in a range of different fields including sociology human geography communication and media studies social psychology and linguistics outline the ways in which their work has been inspired influenced and shaped by Sacks's approach as well as how their current research is taking Sacks's legacy forward in new directions As such the collection is intended to provide both an introduction to and critical exploration of the work of Harvey Sacks and its continued relevance for the analysis of contemporary society Selected Book Reviews Eric Voegelin, 2001 This volume of The Collected Works contains essays published by Eric Voegelin between 1929 and 1933 the period between the publication of his first book On the Form of the American Mind and Hitler's rise to power as well as Voegelin's two books analyzing the explosive race issues posed by National Socialism The essays herein reflect the intellectual and political tumult of the period and their author's maturing grasp of political reality as he moved away from positivism and Kelsen's Pure Theory of Law toward a more refined and open philosophical stance The heart of this shift is signaled by his emphasis on philosophical anthropology and on the decisive importance of the moral substance basic to political communities. The topics of the essays are grouped around major themes in sociological theory political science and the theory of law They illuminate the theoretical and practical impact of Voegelin's experiences in America as he increasingly engages European theories of state especially the social theories of leading French and German scholars In content these essays include such pragmatic concerns as American theories of property economic transactions due process of law and Austrian constitutional reforms The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1917 Book Jacket Religion in Today's World Melissa Wilcox, 2013-12-19 Religion is a major force in contemporary society It is also one of the least understood social and political influences on individuals and communities In this innovative collection of original essays and classic readings experts explore the significance of contemporary religiosity as a source of meaning and motivation how it unites and divides us and how it is used politically and culturally Readers will be introduced to the broad debates in ways that will equip them to analyze discuss and make their own judgments about religion and society This book should be read by anyone interested in understanding religion as a central source of meaning and politics and is ideally suited for undergraduate teaching on religion and social issues and from a global perspective America in Civilization Ralph Turner, 1925 Library Catalogue: Author catalogue University of London. School of Oriental and African Studies. Library, 1963 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968 Liberal Bourgeois Protestantism Paul C. Mocombe, 2012-06-07 Sociological theory regarding the contemporary 1970s to the present phenomenon of globalization focuses either on convergence or hybridization The former convergence highlights the ever increasing homogenization of cultures and societies around the globe via socioeconomic rational forces From this perspective globalization is tantamount to Westernization or Americanization of other cultures and societies via neoliberal economic market subjugation The latter hybridization emphasizes heterogeneity the mixture of cultural forms out of the integration of society via globalizing processes stemming from improvements in information technology communications mass media etc In this latter form cultures and societies are not homogenized but are cultural forms that are syncretized with liberal democratic Western capitalist rational organization In this work Mocombe synthesizes the two positions by suggesting that globalization under American hegemony are the same process convergence and that the only alternative to this thesis of convergence is Samuel P Huntington s 1996 differential hypothesis in which a clash of civilization are the result of eight intransigent cultural frameworks Sinic Japan Hindu Islamic Orthodox Western Europe North America and Africa that dominate the globe Refutating Huntington s thesis Mocombe suggests there are really only two opposing counter hegemonic forces to the convergence towards Westernization or Americanization the earth itself and Islamic Fundamentalist movements
