Selections From Longman World History Volume II Primary Sources And Case Studies:

Selections from Longman World History, Volume II Professor George F. Jewsbury, 2002-11 Selections from Longman World History George F. Jewsbury, Longman, 2001-08 Selections from Longman World History, Volume I George F. Jewsbury, 2003 Selections from Longman World History George F. Jewsbury, 2003 This volume offers a range of primary documents to illustrate characteristic features of key civilizations during major stages of world history from around 1450 to modern times including contrasts and comparisons among major societies. Historians analyze documents with the same objective attitude employed by scientists examining natural phenomena. By reading primary documents, students gain direct access to the identities of the world's peoples expressed through their religious practices, oral traditions, literatures, and governmental archives. These documents are the touchstones of who our global neighbors are, where they come from, and where they and we are going. Selections from Longman World History George F. Jewsbury, 2002-09-01 Selections from Longman World History Primary Sources and Case Studies presents the best of the thought-provoking primary sources and case studies found in the new Longmanworldhistory.com website. This collection encourages students to analyze the themes, issues, and complexities of world history in a meaningful, exciting, and informative way. Program of the ... Annual Meeting American Historical Association. Meeting, 2002 American Book Publishing Record, 2005 The Modern Centuries Peter N. Stearns, 2003 World History in Brief: To 1450 Peter N. Stearns, 2002 With its brief, global rather than West-centered approach, World History in Brief Fourth Edition seeks to show how different civilizations developed in a global context and then encountered the various forces of contemporary life. The brevity of this text allows instructors to take advantage of additional readings. Rather than overwhelm students, the chief goal of World History in Brief is to present the big picture to facilitate comparison and assessment of change and to highlight the major developments in the world's history. Finally, this text also presents the global interactions of major civilizations so that students can compare and assess changes.

A Brief History of Western Civilization Mark A. Kishlansky, Patrick J. Geary, Patricia O'Brien, 2005 Brings the study of Western Civilization with balanced coverage of an array of historical figures and events. Including integrated coverage of social as well as economic, religious, and cultural history within a traditional political framework, it explores everyday events and ordinary people as well as momentous affairs and powerful elites. The West Brian P. Levack, Michael Maas, Edward Muir, Meredith Veldman, 2004 The West: Encounters and Transformations takes a new approach to telling the story of Western Civilization. Rather than looking at Western Civilization only as the history of Europe from ancient times to the present, this groundbreaking book examines the changing nature of the West—how the definition of the West has evolved and transformed throughout history. It explores the ways Western civilization has changed as a result of cultural encounters with different beliefs, ideas, technologies, and peoples both outside the West and within it. Presenting a balanced treatment of political, social, religious, and cultural history, this new text emphasizes the ever-shifting boundaries of the geographic and cultural realm of the West with special attention given to Eastern Europe and the Muslim world Africa Asia and the Americas

Modern World Development Michael Chisholm, 2020-05-06 Since the time of Adam Smith there has been a voluminous literature concerned with the differing wealth of nations and the variation in the nature of economic growth and several schools of thought have held precedence at different times The fundamental mechanisms have been regarded by some as capital accumulation and investment and by others as entrepreneurial ability Modern World Development first published in 1982 shows that the length of time under consideration materially affects the relative significance assigned to the factors involved similarly the size of an area cannot be ignored Through an examination of the major theories of economic growth the role of natural resources the core periphery model of world development environmental change and the concept of human capital Professor Chisholm has written a stimulating and important book which will appeal to students of economics history and geography

Handbook for History Teachers W. Burston dec'd, Cyril Green, E Nicholas, A Dickinson, D Thompson, 2021-12-24 First published in 1972 Handbook for History Teachers is intended to be a general and comprehensive work of reference for teachers of history in primary and secondary schools of all kinds The book covers all aspects of teaching history among them are the use of sources world history art and history principles of constructing a syllabus and the psychological aspects of history teaching The bibliographical sections are arranged on three parts school textbooks a section on audio visual aids and finally books for the teacher and possibly for the sixth form It thoroughly investigates and critiques the various methods employed in teaching history within classrooms and suggests alternatives wherever applicable Diligently curated by the Standing Sub Committee in History University of London Institute of Education the book still holds immense value in the understanding of pedagogy

Re-Imagining Citizenship Education Pablo C. Ramirez, 2023-06-01 In this special edition we call attention to the role of Critical Multicultural Citizenship Education CMCE in schools societies and global contexts The fundamental goal of CMCE is to increase not only the students awareness of and participation in the political aspects of democracy but also students abilities to create and live in an ethnically diverse and just community Global migration and increasing diversity within nations are challenging conceptions of citizenship all over the world The percentage of ethnic minorities in nation states throughout the world has increased significantly within the past 30 years The United States Census for example projects that 50% of the population will consist of culturally linguistically racially ethnic and religiously diverse groups by 2050 With an increase growth of diversity within national borders issues concerning educational equity equality and civic engagement have not always been well attended to in educational and societal contexts Growing ethnic diversity in schools society has not automatically led to a dismantling of persistent educational barriers or structural inequalities In the past decade culturally ethnically and linguistically diverse populations have faced barriers impacting their rights as citizens in the United States and international contexts Citizenship and the rights that are associated with being a citizen are re framed when culturally ethnically and linguistically students seek equality In 2020 many urban cities in the United States witnessed Latino Black youth demonstrate peacefully guided by social justice and their civic responsibilities Similarly in international contexts students have demonstrated civil disobedience by expressing concerns about their rights as citizens and the disempowerment of communities We emphatically believe that students in K 12 settings must begin to understand their rights as citizens and also advocate for the rights of others in order for communities in the U S and international contexts to achieve democracy Research in Education ,1973 The Palgrave Handbook of Africa's Economic Sectors Evelyn F. Wamboye,Bichaka Fayissa,2022-05-27 This handbook provides a reference resource to showcase insightful and nuanced perspectives on Africa s agriculture industry services and manufacturing sectors factors affecting the sectors competitiveness and the sectors contribution to employment economic growth and sustainable development It also addresses the potential benefits that the sectors could harness from the planned Continental Free Trade Area CFTA and in particular how CFTA could increase the efficiency and competitiveness of these sectors This book provides evidence based holistic analyses of the past and current state of Africa s economic sectors with a strong emphasis on tangible and specific policy recommendations for the purpose of enhancing future economic growth employment and sustainable development of the continent It also assesses the impact of the first ever Continental Free Trade Area in Africa and its potential implications for Africa s integration into regional and global economy and competitiveness relative to other fast developing economies such as those in Asia This handbook gives an in depth analysis of fundamental domestic factors that have relevance on the sectors expansion and growth and their contributions to employment economic growth and sustainable development in Africa with differential effects across the continent
