Selections From The Quran O.P. Ghai, 2003-12-01 Selections from the Quran Abul-Fazl (mirza), 1998 Prophets in the Quran Brannon Wheeler, 2002-06-18 What was the name of Noah's son who did not survive the Flood? Why do Pharaoh and Haman build the Tower of Babel? For what reasons does Moses travel to the ends of the Earth? Who is the Horned One who holds back Gog and Magog until the Day of Judgement? These are some of the questions answered in the oral sources and Quran commentaries on the stories of the prophets as they are understood by Muslims. Designed as an introduction to the Quran with particular emphasis on parallels with Biblical tradition, this book provides a concise but detailed overview of Muslim prophets from Adam to Muhammad. Each of the chapters is organized around a particular prophet, including an English translation of the relevant verses of the Quran and a wide selection of classical, medieval and modern Muslim commentaries on those verses. Quran commentaries include references to Sunni and Shi'i sources from Spain, Central Asia, the Middle East and Africa. An extensive glossary provides an annotated list of all scholarly transmitters and cited texts, with suggestions for further reading. This is an excellent book for undergraduate courses and students in divinity and seminary programmes. Comparisons between the Quran and Bible, and among Jewish, Christian and Islamic exegesis, are highlighted. Oral sources, references adapted from apocryphal and pseudepigraphical works, and inter-religious dialogue are all evident throughout these stories of the prophets. This material shows how the Quran and its interpretation are integral to a fuller and more discerning understanding of the Bible and its place in the history of Western religion. The Holy Koran Arthur John Arberry, 2008 In this volume A. J. Arberry explains the qualities of the Koran which have made it acceptable to so many people. The selections have been chosen and arranged to illustrate the religious and ethical message of the Koran. The volume was originally published in 1953. Easily Understand Islam F. Selections from the Koran George Sale, 2014-08-20 The Quran, literally meaning the recitation, also romanised Qur'an or Koran, is the central religious text of Islam, which Muslims believe to be a revelation from God (Allah). Its scriptural status among a world spanning religious community and its major place within world literature generally has led to a great deal of secondary literature on the Quran Quranic chapters are called suras and verses are called ayahs Muslims believe that the Quran was verbally revealed from God to Muhammad through the angel Gabriel Jibril gradually over a period of approximately 23 years beginning on 22 December 609 CE when Muhammad was 40 and concluding in 632 CE the year of his death Muslims regard the Quran as the most important miracle of Muhammad a proof of his prophethood and the culmination of a series of divine messages that started with the messages revealed to Adam and ended with Muhammad They consider the Quran to be the only revealed book that has been protected by God from distortion or corruption Catalogue of Arabic Printed Books in the British Museum British Museum.
