Ethics and Consultancy:

European Perspectives Heidi von Weltzien Hoivik, Andreas Føllesdal, 2012-12-06 The present volume in a series of books produced from European Business Ethics Network EBEN conferences in Europe is a compilation of plenary speeches and papers presented at the 1993 EBEN conference in Oslo Norway The theme of this year's conference was The Use of Consultancy Ethical Demands and Requirements and there was a special focus on Eastern Europe Of over 40 papers presented at the conference from 165 participants representing 23 countries we present here 20 selected by the editors as providing an overview of the latest thinking from both academicians and practitioners on the subject of ethics in consulting Due to strict constraints on space in this volume several valuable papers presented at the conference must be published elsewhere We have also tried to maintain the unique flavor of the papers by authors whose mother tongue is not English The consulting profession is booming in Europe both in the West and in the former Communist Bloc countries However it has not previously been subjected to rigorous scrutiny from the ethical point of view The conference planning committee thus sought to put the spotlight on the spreading phenomenon of buying and selling consultancy services within the European Union within Europe and with the new Eastern Europe The conference addressed several ethical challenges facing either the buyers or providers of consultancy services in both the private and public sectors
