Counterrealism and Indo-Anglian Fiction Chelva Kanaganayakam, 2006-01-01 What do R K Narayan G V Desani Anita Desai Zulfikar Ghose Suniti Namjoshi and Salman Rushdie have in common They represent Indian writing in English over five decades Vilified by many cultural nationalists for not writing in native languages they nonetheless present a critique of the historical and cultural conditions that promoted and sustained writing in English They also have in common a counterrealist aesthetic that asks its own social political and textual questions This book is about the need to look at the tradition of Indian writing in English from the perspective of counterrealism The departure from the conventions of mimetic writing not only challenges the limits of realism but also enables Indo Anglian authors to access formative areas of colonial experience Kanaganayakam analyzes the fiction of writers who work in this vibrant Indo Anglian tradition and demonstrates patterns of continuity and change during the last five decades Each chapter draws attention to what is distinctive about the artifice in each author while pointing to the features that connect them The book concludes with a study of contemporary writing and its commitment to non mimetic forms

The Aesthetics of Authenticity Wolfgang Funk, Florian Groß, Irmtraud Huber, 2014-03-15 As a concept that increasingly gains importance in contemporary cultural discourse authenticity emerges as a site of tearing tensions between the fictional and the real original and fake margin and centre the same and the other The essays collected in this volume explore this paradoxical nature of authenticity in the context of various media They give ample proof of the fact that authenticity which depends on giving the impression of being inherent or natural found not created frequently turns out to be the result of a careful aesthetic construction that depends on the use of identifiable techniques with the aim of achieving certain effects for certain reasons

True Lies Samuel Amago, 2006 Rosa Montero metafiction literary cannibalism and the construction of personal identity Mapping the storied self consciousness and cartography in the fiction of Juan Jose Millas Narrative schizophrenia and the anxiety of influence in the novels of Nuria Amat Indeterminacy for indeterminacy s sake textual narcissism and the fiction of Javier Mar as Narrative truth and historical truth in Javier Cercas s Soldados de Salamina Carlos Canaque turns metafiction against Itself

The Literature of Reconstruction Wolfgang Funk, 2017-03-23 Winner of the 2016 ESSE Junior Scholar Book Award in Literatures in the English Language The Literature of Reconstruction argues for the term and concept of postmillennial reconstruction to fill the gap left by the decline of postmodernism and deconstruction as useful cultural and literary categories Wolfgang Funk shows how this notion emerges from the theoretical and philosophical development that led to the demise of postmodernism by relating it to the idea of authenticity immediate experience that eludes direct representation In addition he provides a clear formal framework with which to identify and classify the features of reconstructive literature by updating the narratological category of metafiction originally established in the 1980s Based on Werner Wolf s observation of a metareferential turn in contemporary arts and media he illustrates how the specific use of metareference results in a renegotiation of the specific patterns of literary communication and claims that this renegotiation can be profitably described with the concept of reconstruction To substantiate this claim in the second half of the book Funk discusses narrative texts that illustrate this transition from postmodern deconstruction to postmillennial reconstruction The analyses take in distinguished and prize winning writers such as Dave Eggers Julian Barnes Jennifer Egan and Jasper Fforde The broad scope of authors featuring writers from the US as well as the UK underlines the fact that the reconstructive tendencies and strategies Funk diagnoses are of universal significance for the intellectual and cultural self image of the global North

Ethical Diversions Katalin Orban, 2013-09-13 First Published in 2005 This study focuses on a group of related texts which have struggled to rescue rather than eliminate the paradox of answering the original question Why ethics rather than nothing

Metareference across Media: Theory and Case Studies, 2009-01-01 Strange as it may seem Cervantes s novel Don Quixote Marc Forster s film Stranger than Fiction Shakespeare s play A Midsummer Night s Dream Pere Borrell del Caso s painting Escaping Criticism reproduced on the cover of the present volume and Mozart s sextet A Musical Joke all share one common feature they include a meta dimension Metaization the movement from a first cognitive referential or communicative level to a higher one on which first level phenomena self reflexively become objects of reflection reference and communication in their own right is in fact a common feature not only of human thought and language but also of the arts and media in general However research into this issue has so far predominantly focussed on literature where a highly differentiated albeit strictly monomedial critical toolbox exists Metareference across Media remedies this onesidedness and closes the gap between literature and other media by providing a transmedial framework for analysing metaphenomena The essays transcend the current notion of metafiction pinpoint examples of metareference in hitherto neglected areas discuss the capacity for metaization of individual media or genres from a media comparative perspective and explore major historical forms and functions as well aspects of the development of metaization in cultural history Stemming from diverse disciplinary and methodological backgrounds the contributors propose new and refined concepts and models and cover a broad range of media including fiction drama poetry comics photography film computer games classical as well as popular music painting and architecture This collection of essays which also contains a detailed theoretical introduction will be relevant to students and scholars from a wide variety of fields intermediality studies semiotics literary theory and criticism musicology art history and film studies Pynchon Notes, 1994 Musing the Mosaic Matthew Roberson, 2012-02-01 In Musing the Mosaic prominent critics of postmodern and contemporary fiction and culture discuss the fictional and theoretical works of Ronald Sukenick one of the most important American writers to emerge from the late 1960s Sukenick has been a prolific participant in reshaping the American literary tradition for two generations and played a pivotal role in the creation and growth of the Fiction Collective and FC2 publishing houses as well as the journals American Book Review and Black Ice Magazine In his work he argues that contemporary fiction can neither perform traditional functions nor rely on any conventions in an ever more dynamic world Staying true to Sukenick's own creative style one that takes the seams out of writing before re stitching it in ways that are truly novel the contributors examine how and why his writing comes closer to the dissolving fragmentary nature of reality and its lack of closure than perhaps anything written before it

Humor in Contemporary Junior

Literature Julie Cross, 2010-12-14 In this new book Julie Cross examines the intricacies of textual humor in contemporary junior literature using the tools of literary criticism and humor theory Cross investigates the dialectical paradoxes of humor and debunks the common belief in oppositional binaries of simple versus complex humor The varied combinations of so called high and low forms of humor within junior texts for young readers who are at such a crucial stage of their reading and social development provide a valuable commentary upon the culture and values of contemporary western society making the book of considerable interest to scholars of both children's literature and childhood studies Cross explores the ways in which the changing content forms and functions of the many varied combinations of humor in junior texts including the Lemony Snickett series reveal societal attitudes towards young children and childhood The new compounds of seemingly paradoxical high and low forms of humor in texts for developing readers from the 1960s onwards reflect and contribute to contemporary society's hesitant and uneven acceptance of the emergent paradigm of children's rights abilities participation and empowerment Cross identifies four types of potentially subversive transgressive humor which have emerged since the 1960s which coupled with the three main theories of humor relief superiority and incongruity theories enables a long overdue charting of developments in humor within junior texts Cross also argues that the gradual increase in the compounding of the simple and the complex provide opportunities for young readers to play with ambiguous complicated ideas helping them embrace the complexities and contradictions of contemporary life

Modern Children's Literature Catherine

Butler, Kimberly Reynolds, 2014-12-12 An established introductory textbook that provides students with a guide to developments in children's literature over time and across genres This stimulating collection of critical essays written by a team of subject experts explores key British American and Australian works from picture books and texts for younger children through to graphic novels and young adult fiction It combines accessible close readings of children's texts with informed examinations of genres issues and critical contexts making it an essential practical book for students This is an ideal core text for dedicated modules on Children's literature which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate literature or education degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying children's literature for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in literature or education New to this Edition Revised and updated throughout in light of recent children's books and the latest research Includes new coverage of key topics such as canon formation fantasy and technology Features an essay on children's poetry by the former Children's Laureate Michael Rosen

Forms of Dictatorship Jennifer Harford Vargas, 2018 An intra ethnic study of Latina o fiction written in the United States from the early 1990s to the present Forms of Dictatorship examines novels that depict the historical reality of dictatorship and exploit dictatorship as a literary trope This literature constitutes a new sub genre of Latina o fiction which the author calls the Latina o dictatorship novel The book illuminates Latina os central contributions to the literary history of the dictatorship novel by analyzing how Latina o writers with national origin roots in the Caribbean Mexico and Central and South America imaginatively represent authoritarianism The novels collectively generate what Harford Vargas terms a Latina o counter dictatorial imaginary that positions authoritarianism on a continuum of domination alongside imperialism white supremacy heteropatriarchy neoliberalism and border militarization Focusing on novels by writers such as Junot Diaz Hector Tobar Cristina Garcia Salvador Plascencia and Francisco Goldman the book reveals how Latina o dictatorship novels foreground more ubiquitous modes of oppression to indict Latin American dictatorships U S imperialism and structural discrimination in the U S as well as repressive hierarchies of power in general Harford Vargas simultaneously utilizes formalist analysis to investigate how Latina o writers mobilize the genre of the novel and formal techniques such as footnotes focalization emplotment and metafiction to depict dictatorial structures and relations In building on narrative theories of character plot temporality and perspective Harford Vargas explores how the Latina o dictatorship novel stages power dynamics Forms of Dictatorship thus queries the relationship between different forms of power and the power of narrative form that is between various instantiations of repressive power structures and the ways in which different narrative structures can reproduce and resist repressive power

Recent Trends in Translation Studies Sara Laviosa, Giovanni Iamartino, Eileen Mulligan, 2021-09-10 This volume offers a snapshot of current perspectives on translation studies within the specific historical and socio cultural framework of Anglo Italian relations It addresses research questions relevant to English historical literary cultural and language studies as well as empirical translation studies The book is divided into four chapters each covering a specific research area in the scholarly field of translation studies namely historiography literary translation specialized translation and multimodality Each case study selected for this volume has been conducted with critical insight and methodological rigour and makes a valuable contribution to scientific knowledge in the descriptive and applied branches of a discipline that since its foundation nearly 50 years ago has concerned itself with the description theory and practice of translating and interpreting

Authorizing Fictions Marie Murphy, 1992 A critique of the Chilean novelist s A House in the Country studying particularly its representation of the many faceted concept of authority Casa de campo combines the techniques of traditional novels with the 20th century intermingling of reality and fiction The novel s central theme of authority as figured in the discourse its play between reality and illusion and its dialogue with literature and society as a whole form the subject of this study Murphy explores the illusory authority of the narrator in controlling characters voices and establishes a parallel with the characters contradictory power over each other the ploys of the narrator recall and parody the authoritarian regime which is reflected in the novel The narrator s authority is further defined in a reading of the novel in which author narrator reader and character become linguistic constructs in a textual play and meanings emerge at variance with the authorized commentary MARIE MURPHY is an Assistant Professor of Spanish at Loyola College in Maryland
