Contract Peter Norman,1989 Emerging Self-Directed Learning Strategies in the Digital Age Giuseffi, Frank G.,2017-12-15 Currently society is becoming increasingly involved in self directed learning for both intellectual and professional development As such it is imperative that both researchers and educational professionals update themselves on the current research on self directed learning and how it has created a new culture of independence Emerging Self Directed Learning Strategies in the Digital Age is a key resource for the latest research on the role of self directed learning and how it is impacting society educational professionals and researchers in their day to day work Featuring broad coverage among a variety of relevant views and themes such as project based learning PBL student goal setting and self efficacy theory this book is ideally designed for educational professionals working in the fields of teacher pedagogy theory instructional technology and adult education as well as academics and upper level students looking for innovative research on one to one programs and learning analytics The Playbook for Self-Directed Learning Tyler S. Thigpen,Caleb Collier,Amber Bryant,Brittney Toles,2024-12-18 The Playbook for Self Directed Learning offers school leaders a student centered relationship driven approach to fostering learner led success and autonomy at school In self directed learning learners set their own goals manage their own progress and assess their own outcomes all under the guidance of teachers and administrators This accessible book offers evidence based insights real world examples and practical techniques for leaders seeking to transform their schools and empower students to become responsible for their own learning within an interdependent network of relationships with educators peers and involved adults Each chapter includes a variety of strategies for supporting the conditions in which students can enthusiastically develop self regulation time management adaptability problem solving and other important skills Principals superintendents teacher leaders and curriculum assessment designers will come away with bold yet intuitive methods for transforming schools into self directed learning environments International Handbook on Geographical Education Rod Gerber,2013-03-09 I am very pleased to have been asked by Rod Gerber to provide a preface to such a book Not least because of the twenty four chapters eight are written by former students or colleagues with whom I have worked in the past and whom I still meet at conferences on geographical education It is with a certain pride and joy that I note the progress which has been made in geographical education both in its day to day teaching and in research in the twenty years following the end of my term of office as Chair of the Commission on Geographical Education of the International Geographical Union CGEIUG My successors Joe Stoltman Hartwig Haubrich

Rod Gerber and now Lea Houtsonen have done much and are continuing to work hard to foster the development of geographical education. This book is proof if proof were needed that the international collaboration in this field is alive and well with contributions coming from all the continents except Antarctica. It would be a moribund subject that remained unaffected in one way or another by developments on the great world stage as Fairgrieve 1926 would have put it. And as Rod Gerber shows the issues of globalisation of cultural encounters of differing value systems of new technologies of variable economic development and of environmental quality all feature as topics which influence and are influenced by geographical education.

Lifelong Education for Adults C.J. Titmus, 2014-06-28. Lifelong Education for Adults: An International Handbook is the first work intended to offer international encyclopedic coverage of research and studies in the whole field of adult education. With 127 articles written by international specialists, this work will be an invaluable reference source for all those who are engaged in educational activities for adults, either as full time planners, administrators of educational programmes or part time adult educators. There are, for example, articles on education for work and for living, on population education, peace and environmental education and on learning for personal development and role fulfilment. Conceptual frameworks, practical issues relating to instructional methods, counselling, curriculum and evaluation and developments in distance learning, group learning and adult learning are some of the topics discussed. Systems of adult education worldwide as well as adult education processes and practices are covered region by region. The problems and initiatives of the developing countries are given attention alongside those of advanced countries. The collection of articles assembled in this Handbook is unique in the range and depth of treatment given to the field of adult education. This volume will thus be of great interest to all engaged in educational activities for adults in adult schools, community centres, institutions of higher education as well as educationalists, planners and decision makers throughout the world who are involved in adult education at all levels.
