New Religious Movements In Western Europe:

New Religious Movements in Western Europe Elisabeth Arweck, Peter Clarke, 1997-04-16 The first compilation that brings together publications on New Religious Movements NRMs from across Western Europe this useful work includes titles written in most European languages The Introduction provides an overview of NRMs since 1960 and places them in a global perspective The literature from the late 1970s to the present covers areas of study such as sociology psychology history theology and more and will be of interest to scholars and students in many disciplines The work is a companion piece to Diane Choquette's New Religious Movements in the United States and Canada A Critical Assessment Greenwood 1985 The authors experts in NRMs throughout the world discuss various explanatory models that account for the emergence of NRMs and look at the way they have spread throughout the countries of Western Europe Membership and impact are discussed as well as the response of the wider society The label new is addressed and some attempts at classification are presented

Researching New Religious Movements Elisabeth Arweck, 2006 This cutting edge analysis of American and European new religious movements explores the controversies between religious groups and the majority interests which oppose them It asks how modern societies can best respond to new religious movements

Encyclopedia of New Religious Movements Peter Clarke, 2004-03-01 New Religious Movements NRMs can involve vast numbers of followers and in many cases are radically changing the way people understand and practice religion and spirituality Moreover many are having a profound impact on the form and content of mainstream religion The Encyclopedia of New Religious Movements provides uniquely global coverage of the phenomenon with entries on over three hundred movement from almost every country in the world Coverage includes movements that derive from the major religions of the world and to neo traditional movements movements often overlooked in the study of NRMs In addition to the coverage of particular movements there are also entries on topics themes key thinkers and key ideas for example the New Age Movement Neo Paganism New Religion and gender NRMs and cyberspace NRMs and the law the Anti Cult Movement Swedenborg Jung Teilhard de Chardin Lovelock Gurdjieff al Banna Qutb The marked global approach and comprehensiveness of the encyclopedia enable an appreciation of the innovative energy of NRMs of their extraordinary diversity and the often surprising ways in which they can propagate geographically The most ambitious publication of its sort the Encyclopedia of New Religious Movements is a major addition to the reference literature for students and researchers of the field in religious studies and the social sciences Entries are cross referenced with short bibliographies for further reading There is a full index

The Oxford Handbook of New Religious Movements James R Lewis, 2008-07-17 The Oxford Handbook of New Religious Movements both covers the current state of the field and breaks new ground Its contributors drawn from both sociology and religious studies are leading figures in the study of NRMs

New Religious Movements in the Twenty-First Century Phillip Charles Lucas, Thomas Robbins, 2004-06-01 New Religious Movements in the 21st Century is the first volume to examine the urgent and important issues facing new religions in their political legal and religious contexts in global perspective With essays from prominent NRM scholars and usefully organized into four regional areas covering Western Europe Asia Africa and Australia Russia and Eastern Europe and North and South America as well as a concluding section on the major themes of globalization and terrorist violence this book provides invaluable insight into the challenges facing religion in the twenty first century An introduction by Tom Robbins provides an overview of the major issues and themes discussed in the book

New Religious Movements and Rapid Social Change James A. Beckford,1986-11-01 The book shows how rapid social change gives rise to novel religious interpretations and how new religious movements in turn try to influence the process of change This analysis is illustrated by studies of the advanced societies of North America and Europe of Japan during the first phase of industrialization and of countries and regions in the developing world New religious movements are revealed as a normal aspect of social life and as critical indicators of social change This is reflected in each movement s social composition teachings values religious practices and organizational structures as well as their engagement in politics business and their structuring of social relationships

Publisher s description

New Religious Movements in Modern Asian History David W. Kim,2020-09-30 This book provides evidence that the emergence of Asian new religious movements NRMs was predominantly the result of anti colonial ideology from local religious groups or individuals The contributors argue that when traditional religions were powerless to maintain their cultural heritage the leadership of NRMs adduced alternative principles and the new teachings of each NRM attracted the local people enough for them to change their beliefs The contributors argue that as a whole the Asian new religious movements overall were very ardent and progressive in transmitting their new ideologies The varied viewpoints in this volume attest to the consistent development of Asian NRMs from domestic and international dimensions by replacing old traditional religions

New Religious Movements Jamie Cresswell,Bryan Wilson,2012-12-06 New Religious Movements Challenge Response is the most comprehensive wide ranging study on the global impact of new religions New religions discussed include Hare Krishna Sikh Dharma The Unification Church The Church of Scientology The Jesus People and Wicca Focuses on the rise of new religious movements in Italy Brazil United States Germany and Britain The contributors are among the most respected and reputable experts in the field

Violence and New Religious Movements James R. Lewis,2011-04-06 The relationship between new religious movements NRMs and violence has long been a topic of intense public interest an interest heavily fueled by multiple incidents of mass violence involving certain groups Some of these incidents have made international headlines When New Religious Movements make the news it s usually because of some violent episode Some of the most famous NRMs are known much more for the violent way they came to an end than for anything else Violence and New Religious Movements offers a comprehensive examination of violence by and against new religious movements The book begins with theoretical essays on the relationship between violence and NRMs and then moves on to examine particular groups There are essays on the Big Five the most well known cases of violent incidents involving NRMs Jonestown Waco Solar Temple the Aum Shunrikyo subway attack and the Heaven s Gate suicides But the book also provides a richer survey by examining a host of lesser known groups This volume is the culmination of decades of research by scholars of New Religious Movements Citizens of the World Margit Warburg,2018-08-14 Citizens of the World deals with the Baha is and their religion While covering the historical development in sufficient detail to serve as a general monograph on Baha i emphasis is laid on examining contemporary Baha i with the Danish Baha i community as a recurrent case The book discusses Baha i religious texts rituals economy everyday life demographic development mission strategies leadership and international activism in analyses based on primary material such as interview studies among the Baha is fieldwork data from the Baha i World Centre in Israel and field trips around the world The approach is a combination of history of religions and sociology of religion within a theoretical framework of religion and globalisation Several general topics in the study of new religions are covered The book contributes to the theoretical study of globalisation by proposing a new model for analysing globalisation and transnational religions
