On Chinese Body Thinking:

On Chinese Body Thinking Wu, 2021-11-01 This book uses Western philosophical tradition to make a case for a form of thinking properly associated with ancient China The book s thesis is that Chinese thinking is concrete rather than formal and abstract and this is gathered in a variety of ways under the symbol body thinking The root of the metaphor is that the human body has a kind of intelligence in its most basic functions When hungry the body gets food and eats when tired it sleeps when amused it laughs In free people these things happen instinctively but not automatically The metaphor of body thinking is extended far beyond bodily functions in the ordinary sense to personal and communal life to social functions and to cultivation of the arts of civilization As the metaphor is extended the way to stay concrete in thinking with subtlety becomes a kind of ironic play a natural adeptness at saying things with silences Play and indirection are the roads around formalism and abstraction Western formal thinking it is argued can be sharpened by Chinese body thinking to exhibit spontaneity and to produce healthy human thought in a community of cultural variety

Thinking through China Jerusha McCormack, John G. Blair, 2015-08-01 In this innovative book Jerusha McCormack and John G Blair introduce China on its own terms By explaining ten key concepts that frame the way most Chinese people think about the world they compare these terms which don t translate readily into English with the ways most of us as Westerners think The book then poses four questions that Westerners routinely ask about China But rather than answer with Western assumptions the authors respond using these ten Chinese key words Not surprisingly the answers differ in startling ways from standard Western responses This intensive bridging work allows those without deep knowledge of China to understand the very different perspectives to be gained by looking at the world through Chinese eyes As each of the ten words maps out new territory the premises of a very dissimilar but equally coherent world view gradually emerge Creating a cultural cartography through both text and image the authors provide readers with a vivid sense of what is uniquely Chinese about China

On Metaphoring Wu, 2022-05-20 On Metaphoring engages in a metaphor way to communicate and inter learn among cultures Bundle A describes how metaphor bundles things similar into a group called a notion a category etc How does metaphor bundle things It familiarizes strange things with things that are familiar to enrich old familiar things with new things newly made familiar Such metaphoric bundling creates a new family of knowledge In this order Bundle B characterizes metaphor as the origin of thinking fit as a highway of intercultural communication where there is no shared way of thinking for each culture is a specific way of thinking Bundle C shows how effective metaphor is in interculturally handling various problems of life and thinking How metaphor works to interculture exhibits in fact what metaphor is Such is how cultures understand one another a cultural hermetic

Landscapes of Memory and

Experience Jan Birksted, 2012-12-06 It has been argued that the history of landscape and of gardens has been marginalized from the mainstream of art history and visual studies because of a lack of engagement with the theories methods and concepts of these disciplines This book explores possible ways out of this impasse in such a way that landscape studies would become pivotal through its theoretical advances since landscape studies would challenge the underlying assumptions of traditional phenomenological theory Thus the history and theory of twentieth century landscape might not only once again share concepts and methods with contemporary art and design history but might in turn influence them A complementary sequel to Relating Architecture to Landscape this volume of essays explores further areas of interest and discussion in the landscape architecture debate and offers contributions from a team of well known researchers teachers and writers The choice of topics is wide ranging and features case studies of modern and contemporary schemes from the USA Far East and Australasia

Eastwards Frank Kraushaar, 2010 Eastwards is a collection of essays each of whom focuses on a special aspect or on an episode within the cross cultural narrative that imposes on our minds the terms West and East The volume assembles seventeen essays by eighteen authors divided into three chapters Being the outcome of the first international conference for East Asian studies that was held in the Baltic states in 2008 at the University of Latvia in Riga the volume contains not only contributions by scholars from Vilnius Tallinn and Riga but also rather rare topics like critiques of translation from Japanese and Classical Chinese into Latvian The book contains also an essay on the life and personality of an almost neglected Baltic pioneer in Manchuria

Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism Gereon Kopf, Jin Y. Park, 2009-08-13 Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism explores a new mode of philosophizing through a comparative study of Maurice Merleau-Ponty's phenomenology and philosophies of major Buddhist thinkers such as Nagarjuna Chinul Dogen Shinran and Nishida Kitaro Challenging the dualistic paradigm of existing philosophical traditions Merleau-Ponty proposes a philosophy in which the traditional opposites are encountered through mutual penetration Likewise a Buddhist worldview is articulated in the theory of dependent co-arising or the middle path which comprehends the world and beings in the third space where the subject and the object or eternalism and annihilation exist independent of one another The thirteen essays in this volume explore this third space in their discussions of Merleau-Ponty's concepts of the intentional arc the flesh of the world and the chiasm of visibility in connection with the Buddhist doctrine of no self and the five aggregates the Tiantai Buddhist concept of threefold truth Zen Buddhist hua-tou meditation the invocation of the Amida Buddha in True Pure Land Buddhism and Nishida's concept of basho In his philosophical project Merleau-Ponty makes vigorous efforts to challenge the boundaries that divide philosophy and non-philosophy the East and the West experience and concepts the subject and the object and body and mind Combining the Eastern philosophical tradition of Buddhism with Merleau-Ponty's phenomenology Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism offers an intercultural philosophy in which opposites intermingle in a chiasmic relationship and which brings new understanding regarding the self and the self's relation with others in a globalized and multicultural world
