Fagan,2005 Facing the Other Nigel Zimmermann,2016-03-31

What is the significance of the body What might phenomenology contribute to a theological account of the body And what is gained by prolonging the overlooked dialogue between St John Paul II and Emmanuel Levinas Nigel Zimmermann answers these questions through the agreements and the tensions between two of the most important thinkers of the twentieth century John Paul II the Polish pope philosopher and theologian and Emmanuel Levinas the French Jewish philosopher of Lithuanian heritage were provocative thinkers who courageously faced and challenged the assumptions of their age Both held the human person in high regard and did their thinking with constant reference to God and to theological language Zimmermann does not shirk from the challenges of each thinker and does not hide their differences However he shows how they bequeath a legacy regarding the body that we would overlook at significant ethical peril We are called Zimmermann argues to face the other In this moment God refuses a banal marginalisation and our call to responsibility for the other person is issued in their disarming vulnerability In the body philosophy theology and ethics converge to call us to glory even in the paradox of lowly suffering The Pope, the Council, and the Mass James Likoudis,K. D. Whitehead,2006 The Pope the Council and the Mass the definitive response to Traditionalist Catholics when first published in 1981 has been updated to include the developments from the time of the first publication up to and including the beginning of the pontificate of Pope Benedict XVI In addressing the concerns raised by the followers of the late Archbishop Lefebvre and other Traditionalists the authors give a truly Catholic understanding of Tradition the Second Vatican Council and its implementation and the nature of true liturgical reform This book not only provides the reader with a sound perspective on the past it also offers insight into the present state of the Church and the outlook for the future History canon law ecclesiastical and papal documents and Scripture are mined in this solid apologetic for a faith that is One Holy Catholic and Apostolic A Heart for Evangelizing

Joseph Hollcraft,2016-06-01 The gift of Baptism is the gift of relationship As Joseph Hollcraft reflects in A Heart for Evangelizing it is this relationship which orders our hearts minds and actions toward eternal union with a loving heavenly Father Hollcraft offers reflections on holiness and evangelization the cornerstones of the Christian vocation and applies these themes to nearly every aspect of life Personal theological and spiritual formation are ardently encouraged in A Heart for Evangelizing

The Catholic Church and the World Religions Gavin D'Costa,2011-04-28 There is no single standard textbook that outlines the official Roman Catholic theological position in relation to other religions which then explicates this orientation theologically and phenomenologically in relation to the four main religions of the world and the flowering of new religious movements in the west The present project will cover this serious gap in the literature After outlining the teaching of Vatican II and the magisterium since then chapter one each subsequent chapter will be divided equally between a an exposition of the history and features of the religion or movement being studied and b a serious theological analysis of these features showing how these religions do have elements in common as well as how they differ in fundamental ways from Catholicism
