economy and international business      Emerging Issues in the Global Economy Silvia Cristina Mărginean, Claudia Ogorean, Ramona Orăștean, 2018-01-11 This proceedings volume provides current research on emerging issues in business economics and finance in the global economy with particular emphasis on Eastern Europe Featuring selected papers from the 2017 International Economics Conference in Sibiu IECS organized by the Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu Romania the contributing chapters consider new business models theories practices and instruments from advanced and emerging economies in the context of recent global trends After over 20 years of increasing openness and liberation of the world economy recent events in regions such as Europe USA and Asia have created challenges to the idea of globalization and integration There is a delay between the real world economic changes and the reflection of such changes in the economic research literature The 2017 IECS conference and the enclosed papers aim to fill this gap in the study of globalization covering diverse topics such as business administration sustainability corporate social responsibility finance accounting tourism and business informatics      Carbon Technocracy Victor Seow, 2022-04-08 A forceful reckoning with the relationship between energy and power through the history of what was once East Asia s largest coal mine The coal mining town of Fushun in China s Northeast is home to a monstrous open pit First excavated in the early twentieth century this pit grew like a widening maw over the ensuing decades as various Chinese and Japanese states endeavored to unearth Fushun s purportedly inexhaustible carbon resources Today the depleted mine that remains is a wondrous and terrifying monument to fantasies of a fossil fueled future and the technologies mobilized in attempts to turn those developmentalist dreams into reality In Carbon Technocracy Victor Seow uses the remarkable story of the Fushun colliery to chart how the fossil fuel economy emerged in tandem with the rise of the modern technocratic state Taking coal as an essential feedstock of national wealth and power Chinese and Japanese bureaucrats engineers and industrialists deployed new technologies like open pit mining and hydraulic stowage in pursuit of intensive energy extraction But as much as these mine operators idealized the might of fossil fuel driven machines their extractive efforts nevertheless relied heavily on the human labor that those devices were expected to displace Under the carbon energy regime countless workers here and elsewhere would be subjected to invasive techniques of labor control ever escalating output targets and the dangers of an increasingly exploited earth Although Fushun is no longer the coal capital it once was the pattern of aggressive fossil fueled development that led to its ascent endures As we confront a planetary crisis precipitated by our extravagant consumption of carbon it holds urgent lessons This is a groundbreaking exploration of how the mutual production of energy and power came to define industrial modernity and the wider world that carbon made      Come Closer Anita Mendiratta, 2011 An invaluable resource for tourism leaders policy makers and stakeholders as they drive the global tourism economy forward Covering topics from the role of government diplomacy tourism investment and destination branding to niche tourism development media tourism safety and green tourism COME CLOSER offers a framework for strategic and practical tourism economy management and competitiveness The book includes valuable direction for managing the fine balance of government and private industry in tourism to create shared sustainable destination growth Using emotive anecdotes to bring readers closer to the heartbeats of the people who inspire and direct industry growth Mendiratta s collection of topics helps introduce critical aspects of tourism sector development

Canada and the Global Economy John N. H. Britton,1996 An analysis of geographic trends in the Canadian economy studying patterns of development consumption shifts in employment and the locational behavior of industries The 24 essays written by Canadian economic geographers explore themes in regards to the openness of the Canadian economy its simple economic geography in regional variation of resources and urban development its rapid advances in technology and the role of government in national and international markets Canadian card order number C96 900023 5 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Global Inequalities York William Bradshaw,Michael Wallace,1996-03-12 Presents a global view of stratification in an interesting but theoretically sound way using an effective combination of academic works lively stories and news reports Helps to educate the social science major or general student about social and cultural differences across the world and teaches about growing global interdependence and how this is connected to contemporary social problems

From Third World To World Class Peter Marber,1998 Presenting a bold new vision of the global economy in which greater participation of developing countries means greater opportunities for for most but not all Marber reveals new sources of conflict as values clash in the game of global economic integration

New Realities John R. Deni,2015 Revolutionary changes among energy producers and dramatically altered patterns of energy consumption across the planet are having profound implications for American national security in general and the U S Army specifically The U S Army War College gathered experts from the policymaking community academia think tanks the private sector and the military services at the Reserve Officers Association in Washington DC in November 2013 to address first the major new realities both geographically and technologically and then the specific military implications The chapters of this compendium are based on the presentations delivered at that conference which was funded through the generous support of the U S Army War College Foundation Publisher s web sit

The Urbanising Dynamics of Global China Hyun Bang Shin,Yimin Zhao,Sin Yee Koh,2025-05-02 The book focuses on the urban dimension of global China especially regarding the impacts of its urbanising dynamics on the re imaginings and manifestations of global urban futures It situates China s urban question in contemporary global change and vice versa by understanding the rise of global China as an urban process that weaves together compressed spaces variegated times and trans scalar power dynamics in the making of global capitalism The overseas expansion of China s economic influence has long been foregrounded in media reports and policy debates especially with the rise of the Belt and Road Initiative that has turned China into one of the key investors in the global South The term global China has been widely adopted to depict the geopolitical dimension of this immense flow of capital This edited volume explores the urban manifestation of global China at different scales and involving diverse actors discussing the ways in which the urban has been reconfigured by China's global expansion and uncovering the differentiated modes of speculative and spectacular urban production at present. Observing from Ghana, India, Malaysia, and China chapters in this book collectively make theoretical, methodological, and empirical contributions to recognise the dynamics of speculation, articulation, and translation in global capitalism where China plays an increasingly significant role. Three main themes have guided the book's interrogation of what global China implies. These include a) transplanting models and urbanism, b) multi-scalar construction of temporality, and c) situating the urban China model in global capitalism. These aspects mark the core of the book's endeavour to extend the critique of our changing urban conditions at present. This book was originally published as a special issue of Urban Geography. The Oxford Handbook of Education and Globalization Paola Mattei, Xavier Dumay, Eric Mangez, Jacqueline Behrend, 2023. The Oxford Handbook on Education and Globalization brings together in a unique way leading authors in social theory and in political science and reflects on how these two disciplines deal with the relation between globalization and education. The handbook develops a firmer and tighter dialogue between social theory and education research and analyzes the political and institutional factors that shape the adoption of global reforms in education at multiple levels of governance. It is a must read for anyone looking for a comprehensive overview of how globalization and education interact to result in distinct and varying outcomes across world regions.
