Reeducating Myself:

Reeducating the Educator Helen Christiansen, S. Ramadevi, 2012-02-01 Reeducating the Educator focuses on community building within teacher education programs in Canada Israel Australia and the United States Maintaining that communities have to be built and sustained the contributors discuss possible theoretical frameworks underlying community building and change and suggest that there is a need for teacher educators to go beyond localized experiences and reach out to one another in a global discussion Because of the impact of local cultures and histories key questions and issues vary from one country to another and even from one faculty to another but the resulting global conversation provides a greater understanding of the professional development of teachers and teacher educators Fate of the Wild Bonnie B. Burgess, 2003-02-01 Given widespread concern over the worldwide loss of biodiversity and popular crusades to save endangered species and habitats why has the Endangered Species Act remained unauthorized since October 1992 In Fate of the Wild Bonnie B Burgess offers an illuminating assembly of facts about biodiversity and straightforward analysis of the legislative stalemate surrounding the Endangered Species Act Fate of the Wild surveys the history of and analyzes the conflict over the legislation itself the heated issues regarding its enforcement and the land use and habitat battles waged between conservationists environmental activists and private property proponents Burgess s meticulous and exhaustive research makes Fate of the Wild a valuable resource for professionals in conservation biology public policy environmental law and environmental organizations while the narrative clarity of the book will appeal to anyone interested in the fate of nonhuman species Burgess explains how wilderness has been consumed by concrete and asphalt the effects of toxins on plants and animals strip mine tailings oil slicks and smog She exposes as well the invisible damage that manifests itself in the subtle degradation of natural systems and in the increased incidence and number of diseases the rise in human infertility and the drastic alteration of weather patterns and landscapes Fate of the Wild presents a factual and balanced discussion of the various sides of the contemporary debate over the Endangered Species Act alongside the author s clearly stated position We are overpopulating polluting and overdeveloping our environment and as a species we have embarked on a crash course toward a sixth great extinction event on this Earth How to Feel Good Naked Sheila Bridge, 2012-07-18 The concept of the ideal sexy body still dominates fashion advertising and our thinking Success status and sex appeal are all interwoven Sheila argues that this is dangerous to our well being and contrary to the central Christian idea of our acceptance in Christ She shows how we can break bad habits of body and mind make the most of our corporeal selves and enjoy being the way God made us As we learn to love our bodies we learn to love ourselves Makeovers she writes are just not enough I don t think you can just fix up the outside of a person If you don t ever take a look on the inside and unpack all the self loathing and replace it with a deep down self acceptance and a sense of being unconditionally loved then no amount of surface rearrangement will ever be enough Women in Romanticism Meena Alexander, 1989-01-01 What did it mean to write as a treasure trove of information about the origins of the surveillance crisis its spread and the patriots who are on the front lines today raising awareness and working to reclaim America as the land of the free This urgent manifesto features a host of useful illustrations activities and leaked classified documents that will convince even the most outspoken skeptic that birds aren't real The truth is out there will you stand and fight before it's too late The Freest Speech in Russia Stephanie Sandler,2024-11-05 An essential introduction to contemporary Russian poetry that considers its development alongside post Soviet Russia's evolving cultural and political landscape Radiant Hanna Sillitoe,2018-06-18 Hanna Sillitoe Winner Nourish Awards Gold for Best Beauty Product 2023 and Vegan Awards Vegan Brand of the Year 2023 When Hanna Sillitoe appeared on Dragons Den every Dragon offered her investment In her first book Radiant she shares the lifestyle changes and recipes that transformed her life For more than 20 years Hanna suffered from severe psoriasis eczema and acne sometimes so badly that the only way to stop herself scratching was to wrap her body in clingfilm When her doctor suggested the only remaining course of treatment was chemotherapy she took matters into her own hands and cured herself through a change in diet and lifestyle Beginning with a juice cleanse Hanna takes you through a range of delicious skin loving meals including Turmeric and Ginger Chia Pudding Immunity Ramen Beet Burgers and even Clean Tiramisu She also shows you how to create homemade beauty products including an Avocado and Honey Facemask and Rosemary and Lemon Salt Scrub which have gone on to inspire the eponymous skincare range for which she secured funding on BBC 2's Dragons Den Uplifting and inspiring for those who have been searching for the answer to seemingly unsolvable skin complaints Hanna's programme is also suitable for those simply looking to improve their overall health and complexion It's a recipe for good health and clear skin from the inside out Hanna is also the author of Skin Healing Expert Your 5 pillar plan for calm clear skin Plea Bargaining Milton Heumann,2020-05-30 That relatively few criminal cases in this country are resolved by full Perry Mason style trials is fairly common knowledge Most cases are settled by a guilty plea after some form of negotiation over the charge or sentence But why The standard explanation is case pressure the enormous volume of criminal cases to be processed with limited staff time and resources But a large body of new empirical research now demands that we re examine plea negotiation Milton Heumann's book Plea Bargaining strongly and explicitly attacks the case pressure argument and suggests an alternative explanation for plea bargaining based on the adaptation of attorneys and judges to the local criminal court The book is a significant and welcome addition to the literature Heumann's investigation of case pressure and plea negotiation demonstrates solid research and careful analysis Michigan Law Review Grand Central Winter Lee Stringer,1998-07-14 A New York Times Notable Book Whether Lee Stringer is describing God's corner as he calls 42nd Street or his friend Suzy a hooker and past due tourist whose infant child he sometimes babysits whether he is recounting his experiences at Street News where he began hawking the newspaper for a living wage then wrote articles and served for a time as muckraking senior editor whether it is his adventures in New York's infamous Tombs jail or performing community service or sleeping in the tunnels below Grand Central Station by night and collecting cans by day this is a book rich with small acts of kindness humor and even heroism alongside the expected violence and desperation of life on the street There is always room Stringer writes amid the costume jewel glitter for one more diamond in the rough Two events rise over Grand Central Winter like sentinels Stringer s discovery of crack cocaine and his catching the writing bug Between these two very different yet oddly similar activities Lee s life unwound itself during the 1980s and took the shape of an odyssey an epic struggle to find meaning and happiness in arid times He eventually beat the first addiction with help from a treatment program The second addiction writing has hold of him still Among the many accomplishments of this book is that Stringer is able to convey something of the vitality and complexity of a down and out life The reader walks away from it humming its melody one that is more wise than despairing less about the shame we feel when confronted with a picture of those less fortunate and more about the joy we feel when we experience our shared humanity
