Reflections An Exhibition Catalogue:

The Art of Reflection Marsha Meskimmon, 1996 Marsha Meskimmon examines a wide variety of women's self portraiture from performance to body art in lively and accessible prose. She takes the cultural focus from the dominant male self portraiture to the more marginalized gender bringing women artists' perspectives to the forefront. Reflections Sarah Buxton, Laura Campbell, Tracey Dawe, 2020-11-30 Mirroring doubling imitation parody intertextuality. The contributors to this volume all postgraduate researchers at the time of writing engage with some of these familiar words to produce articles that deal with the concept of reflections in literary and visual culture. Ranging from Italian Golden Age theatre to contemporary French literature and from Cuban film to German fiction, the twelve essays in this volume provide a fresh look at Modern Language Studies highlighting in particular the interdisciplinary nature of this field. On one level, the volume speaks to those exploring Modern Language Studies for the first time, for example undergraduate students who seek a greater understanding of the dialogue between language and culture. However, the individual essays also have the potential to attract experienced scholars either looking for new knowledge on specialist subjects or ways of approaching research in Modern Languages. Through its central theme, Reflections: New Perspectives in Modern Languages and Cultures, it makes some suggestions about the way forward for Modern Language Studies. Adman's Dilemma Paul Rutherford, 2018-01-01 The Adman's Dilemma is a cultural biography that explores the rise and fall of the advertising man as a figure who became effectively a licensed deceiver in the process of governing the lives of American consumers. Apparently, this personage was caught up in a contradiction, both compelled to deceive yet supposed to tell the truth. It was this moral condition and its consequences that made the adman so interesting to critics, novelists, and eventually filmmakers. The biography tracks his saga from its origins in the exaggerated doings of P. T. Barnum, the emergence of a new profession in the 1920s, the heyday of the adman's influence during the post-WW2 era, the later rebranding of the adman as artist, until the apparent demise of the figure symbolized by the triumph of that consummate huckster, Donald Trump. In The Adman's Dilemma, author Paul Rutherford explores how people inside and outside the advertising industry have understood the conflict between artifice and authenticity. The book employs a range of fictional and nonfictional sources, including memoirs, novels, movies, TV shows, websites, and museum exhibits, to suggest how the adman embodied some of the strange realities of modernity. Bay Area Figurative Art, 1950-1965 Caroline A. Jones, Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, 1990 Should be the classic central definitive work on the emergence of Bay Area Figurative painting. Paul Mills, author of The New Figurative Painting of David Park. Reflections on Female and Trans* Masculinities and Other Queer Crossings Nina Kane, Jude Woods, 2017-06-23 This collection of essays emerged out of the Agender conference and various queer cultural activities associated with the PoMoGaze project. Leeds Art Gallery 2013-2015. PoMoGaze was a term created to promote queer co-curatorial projects held at the gallery as part of Community Engagement activities and references PoMo as a shortening of Postmodern combined with Gaze as a play on words linking the act of looking with LGBT IQ activities The book presents many voices exploring themes of female and trans masculinities gender equality and the lives work and activism of LGBT IQ artists and thinkers It includes discussion of arts making cultural materials diverse identities contemporary queer politics and social histories and travels across time telling gender crossing stories of creative resistance Readers with an interest in the performing and visual arts literature philosophy and queer and gendered cultural readings with an intersectional emphasis will be stimulated by this eclectic and thought provoking collection LARRY BELL

National Endowment for the Humanities ... Annual Report National Endowment for the Humanities, Gustave Caillebotte Michael Marrinan, 2017-01-21 Gustave Caillebotte 1848 1894 the son of a wealthy businessman is perhaps best known as the painter who organized and funded several of the groundbreaking exhibitions of the Impressionist painters collected their works and ensured the Impressionists presence in the French national museums by bequeathing his own personal collection Trained at the cole des Beaux Arts and sharing artistic sympathies with his renegade friends Caillebotte painted a series of extraordinary pictures inspired by the look and feel of modern Paris that also grappled with his own place in the Parisian art scene Gustave Caillebotte Painting the Paris of Naturalism 1872 1887 is the first book to study the life and artistic development of this painter in depth and in the context of the urban life and upper class Paris that shaped the man and his work Michael Marrinan s ambitious study draws upon new documents and establishes compelling connections between Caillebotte s painting and literature commerce and technology It offers new ways of thinking about Paris and its changing development in the nineteenth century exploring the cultural context of Parisian bachelor life and revealing layers of meaning in upscale privilege ranging from haute cuisine to sport and relaxation

Marrinan has written what is sure to be a central text for the study of nineteenth century art and culture The Routledge Companion to Women in Architecture Anna Sokolina,2021-06-28 The Routledge Companion to Women in Architecture illuminates the names of pioneering women who over time continue to foster shape and build cultural spiritual and physical environments in diverse regions around the globe It uncovers the remarkable evolution of women s leadership professional perspectives craftsmanship and scholarship in architecture from the preindustrial age to the present The book is organized chronologically in five parts outlining the stages of women s expanding engagement leadership and contributions to architecture through the centuries It contains twenty nine chapters written by thirty three recognized scholars committed to probing broader topographies across time and place and presenting portraits of practicing architects leaders teachers writers critics and other kinds of professionals in the built environment The intertwined research sets out debates questions and projects around women in architecture stimulates broader studies and discussions in emerging areas and becomes a catalyst for academic programs and future publications on the subject The novelty of this volume is in presenting not only a collection of case studies but in broadening the discipline by advancing an incisive overview of the topic as a whole It is an invaluable resource for architectural historians academics students and professionals The Geopolitics of Culture John Van Oudenaren,2024-06-15 Through the lens of James Billington and the institution he led as Librarian of Congress during a key period of US Russian relations The Geopolitics of Culture examines culture as a neglected area of US foreign policy Billington advised presidents and members of Congress and mobilized the resources of the Library of Congress to promote reform in Russia He believed that rather than preaching to the Russians the United States should expose the rising generation of Russian leaders to what was best in America and encourage them to rediscover positive elements in pre Bolshevik Russian culture The Geopolitics of Culture is the first book to chronicle Billington s influence on US engagement with Russia as it transitioned from communism to democracy under Gorbachev and Yeltsin and back to authoritarianism under Yeltsin and Putin Drawing on published and archival sources including recently released papers and interviews with current and retired Library of Congress staff members John Van Oudenaren casts new light on this era Billington s efforts led to a remarkable degree of cooperation between the Library of Congress and Russian cultural and political institutions Yet these efforts ultimately failed as Putin turned back toward authoritarianism The experience of the Library of Congress during this period nonetheless holds important lessons for today Billington believed that a transition to democracy in Russia was essential if the United States was to head off the geopolitical nightmare of a Eurasia dominated by an alliance of hostile authoritarian powers The geopolitics of culture thus remains a challenge for US foreign policy Radiance and Reflection Jane Hayward,Walter Cahn,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1982 Earth to Sky - The Art of Victor Majzner Leigh Astbury,2002 Victor Majzner arrived in Australia in 1959 as a Jewish refugee from Russia His career as a painter accelerated during the 1980s when as a migrant seeking identity he began to travel inland and study the antiquity of the ancient continent as well as forming close bonds with several important Aboriginal artists from the Warmun Community in the Northern Territory His spectacular and unconventional paintings deal with issues of identity and over recent years with his developing sense of his Jewish heritage Some paintings more surreal than his Australian landscapes emerged from his late 1990s travels to the Negev Desert in Israel A feature to this book is its inclusion of pen and ink studies made as preliminaries to the major paintings Leigh Astbury teaches art history at Monash University Melbourne This book also comes as a special edition with original etching by Victor Majzner and a slip case Rembrandt's Passion Series Simon McNamara,2015-05-13

Rembrandt s Passion Series is the name given to five paintings of similar size and format executed over a six year time frame 1633-39 The works were commissioned by Frederick Hendrick Prince of Orange and Stadtholder of the United Provinces for his gallery at The Hague Although each of the paintings depicts a traditional scene from the Passion of Christ they do not form anything like a complete Passion Cycle Seven years later Hendrick ordered a further two works of the same size and format of subjects from the Nativity of Christ Six of the seven paintings now hang in the Alte Pinakothek Munich As the works were executed between Rembrandt s well documented early Leiden period and his rapid rise to prominence as a portraitist in Amsterdam the works have not attracted the scholarly attention they might although the commission was undoubtedly the most prestigious of the young Rembrandt s career Rembrandt s Passion Series is the first monograph to focus solely on this important group of paintings by the most famous artist of the Dutch Golden Age In it Simon McNamara traces the history of the commission by way of extant documentation places the works in a seventeenth century Dutch religious milieu and shows how the series is both reflective of contemporary theological exegesis and embedded in theoretical artistic debates of the age The book also highlights the extraordinary nature of the self images seen in three of the paintings and discusses the legacy of the series in later graphic works by Rembrandt and in paintings by his pupils In doing so Rembrandt s Passion Series presents a series of unifying factors both stylistically and thematically for the works that allows the Passion Series to be properly and finally called a series Reflection Thru a Collector's Eye Indiana University.
