works for children math and logic manners and rituals dream theory and childhood studies all fueled the fireworks of Carroll's restless imagination In this lively investigation Gillian Beer convincingly shows him at play in the spaces of Victorian cultural and intellectual life drawing on then current controversies reading prodigiously across many fields and writing on multiple levels to please both children and adults in different ways With a welcome combination of learning and lightness Beer reminds us that Carroll's books are essentially about the risks and pleasures of curiosity Along the way Alice in Space shares Alice's exceptional ability to spark curiosity in us too

Strange Sisters Francesca Orestano, 2009 This collection of essays stems from the conference Nineteenth Century Literature and Aesthetics which was held at the University of Milan in 2006 and organised by the editors of this volume The interface between word and image covered in these essays embraces the fields of literature architecture painting photography music and art criticism The authors stress the role of aesthetics in a number of contexts ranging from the early 1830s to the fin de siècle and beyond as far as the last influences of Victorian taste on the early years of the twentieth century During the nineteenth century the ancient interaction between literature and aesthetics was challenged and criticised by Martineau Rossetti Ruskin Pater Wilde Beardsley Cameron and Carroll among others their awareness of the complexity of visual perception problematised the existing categories of realism artistic conventions discourse of description translation and representation The essays cover almost a century of debate between literature and aesthetics They focus on the intersection of word and image by emphasising transgressions in art hierarchies forms and languages which restyle existing categories and project them into new aesthetic dimensions beyond the conventional idea of the sister arts

Picturing Children Marilyn R. Brown, 2017-07-05 The representation of children in modern European visual culture has often been marginalized by Art History as sentimental and trivial For this reason the subject of childhood in relation to art and its production has largely been ignored Confronting this dismissal this unique collection of essays raises new and unexpected issues about the formation of childhood identity in the nineteenth century and makes a significant contribution to the development of inter disciplinary studies within this area Through a range of stimulating and insightful case studies the book charts the development of the Romantic ideal of childhood starting with Rousseau s Emile and attends to its visual social and psychological transformations during the historical period from which Freud s psychoanalytic theories eventually emerged Foremost scholars such as Anne Higonnet Carol Mavor Susan Casteras and Linda A Pollock uncover the means by which children became an important conduit for prevailing social anxieties and demonstrate that the apparently timeless images of them that proliferated at the time should be understood as complex cultural documents Over 50 illustrations enhance this rich and fascinating volume
