Verhalen,2004 In this deeply thoughtful innovative work longtime college and high school teacher draws on his many years experience in leading prayer to fashion a different kind of prayer took For it he has selected various scriptural passages and applied them to the four seasons of the calendar year Based loosely on an Ignatian model of meditation he provides the reader with a brief introduction before presenting a passage from Scripture and a reflection to follow The introduction guides us into the world of scripture and the reflection helps us to ponder the relevance of the passage in our own lives The author embraces a current practical view of spirituality that is meant to be evocative of spiritual issues He will make you think as he helps you pray     Having Had a Spiritual Awakening Al-Anon Family Groups,2018-08-01 This beautiful book features member sharings photographs and artwork from around the globe reflecting the diversity of Al Anon members spiritual experiences Long out of print Having Had a Spiritual Awakening is now available exclusively as an e book     Aids to Reflection : And the Confessions of an Inquiring Spirit Samuel Taylor Coleridge,2014 Aids to Reflection And the Confessions of an Inquiring Spirit If then it be our prerogative as rational beings and our duty as Christians to think as well as to act rationally to see that our convictions of truth rest on the grounds of right reason and if it be one of the clearest dictates of reason that we should endeavour to shun and on discovery should reject whatever is contradictory to the universal laws of thought or to doctrines already established I know not by what means we are to avoid the application of philosophy at least to some extent in the study of theology For to determine what are the grounds of right reason what are those ultimate truths and those universal laws of thought which we cannot rationally contradict and by reflection to compare with these whatever is proposed for our belief is in fact to philosophize and whoever does this to a greater or less extent is so far a philosopher in the best and highest sense of the word To this extent we are bound to philosophize in theology as well as in every other science For what is not rational in theology is of course irrational and cannot be of the household of faith and to determine whether it be rational in the sense already explained or not is the province of philosophy It is in this sense that the Work before us is to be considered a philosophical work namely that it proves the doctrines of the Christian Faith to be rational and exhibits philosophical grounds for the possibility of a truly spiritual religion The reality of those experiences or states of being which constitute experimental or spiritual religion rests on other grounds It is incumbent on the philosopher to free them from the contradictions of reason and nothing more and who will deny that to do this is a purpose worthy of the ablest philosopher and the most devoted Christian Is it not desirable to convince all men that the doctrines which we affirm to be revealed in the Gospel are not contradictory to the requirements of reason and conscience Is it not on the other hand vastly important to the cause of religious truth and even to the practical influence of religion on our own minds and the minds of the community at large that we should attain and exhibit views of philosophy and doctrines in metaphysics which are at least compatible with if they do not specially favour those views of religion which on other grounds we find it our duty to believe and maintain For I beg it may be observed as a point of great moment that it is not the method of the genuine philosopher to separate his philosophy and religion and adopting his principles independently in each to leave them to be reconciled or not as the case may be He has and can have rationally but one system in which his philosophy becomes religious and his religion philosophical Nor am I disposed in compliance with public opinion to limit the application of this remark as is usually done to the mere external evidences of revelation The philosophy which we adopt will and must influence not only our decision of the question whether a book be of divine authority but our views also of its meaning

Poems for Mental and Spiritual Healing Rufus Johnson, 2017-03-31 I started to write because of reoccurring memories I work all day I could not shut my mind down All my memories from childhood keep coming back while I wanted to rest My inner voice is talking to me which made me decide to write words down I decided to put them in writing for the others to relate to That serves as an inspiration for me to write poems and come up with the title Mental and Spiritual Healing I call it Mental and Spiritual Healing because mental serves as my reoccurring memories and spiritual came much later because the poems took a life of its own I just hope to reach one person with my words

Biography of Rev. Ezra Keller Rev. M. Diehl, 1859 Spiritual Care Reflections from a Hospice Chaplain Jr. Charles J Lopez, 2015-10-13 From the good sisters and monks of the 11th century hospice care grew through the passions of 20th century people like Dame Cecily Saunders and Elizabeth Kubler Ross and into the recognized modality it is today of compassionate and palliative care for those who are on their final journey from this world Pastor Lopez rightly fills this name as he reaches out not only to patients and their families but the team of nurses doctors social workers and

Little Painted Eagle and The Teaching Rocks Larry Busch, 2025-08-18 Little Painted Eagle and The Teaching Rocks A Journey of Self Discovery is a free verse poem about a young mixed blood European and Indigenous male who during a solo canoe trip discovers hundreds of petroglyphs and pictographs By accident he incites the petroglyphs to dance He commits a grave error by making a rubbing and taking it home It won't dance He returns to the native community of his youth and asks his elders for help He returns to the petroglyph site to make amends and almost dies in the process With the aid of his grandmother's spirit he communicates with many powerful petroglyph and pictograph spirits His native spirit is rekindled as each imparts their particular wisdom The spirits lead him to previously unknown historical sites around the Great Lakes as he unravels his band's history of culture and war This story will attract the attention of native and non native readers It will generate interest into native petroglyphs and pictographs at home and around the world The story will enhance and rekindle interest and education into native spiritual beliefs
