Swartz, 2016-08-01 This work is a memoir. As a child and a young man I rarely felt entitled to breathe air. Emotionally neglected by my father as a teen I left home for a prep school at which I would spend the worst three years of my life. Trouble followed two failed attempts at undergraduate college until I found my way to a horseshoeing school out west. I was able to work as a professional farrier for several years until a ruptured disc in my back forced a career change. I chose psychology as somewhere in the back of my mind the depression I endured as a child motivated me back to school to try to help others eventually becoming a licensed psychologist. It was a good fit and I have been practicing for the past twenty-five years including many years as an instructor in psychology for Harvard Medical School. About seven years ago I acquired tinnitus along with 50 to 60 million other Americans and using my personal practice of meditation developed a program to help myself and my patients manage this chronic illness In short this work traces the forging of a debilitating sense of self and outlines the potential for it s death resulting in a selflessness that connects to the boundless goodness of the universe Lastly I have been helped in no small way throughout by the profound empathy I have shared with many magnificent beasts of the canine variety The Darien Chronicles: Objects for Reflection, A Journey into Love: Part Two - Into the Wasteland Steven Howard,2018-02-07 Take this continued journey with Darien an eighteen year old as he breaks away from the restrictions of family and steps onto a path shaped by his past one that leads him down into very dark places as he struggles to both hide from himself and find himself Follow him through his early adult years as a private inner war plunges him into addiction Witness the living of a life directed by the outside world a life seemingly rescued from it for brief moments by a spirit guide named Sundeeep a friend protector and teacher who has been with Darien since before he was born Experience firsthand Darien s decent as he approaches a point of no return Steven Howard shares a powerful odyssey of the universal struggle to awaken to the Spirit within Gary Simmons Th D Author of The I of the Storm Embracing Conflict Creating Peace The Soul s Conspiracy Master Conflict Transform Your Life and co founder of the Q Process TM
