Refrigerator Memory:

The Refrigerator Memory Shannon Bramer, 2005 The Refrigerator Memory is an exuberant strangely funny celebration of sadness With fable like miniature stories and short lyric poems Shannon Bramer creates a world littered with stolen pears and prosthetic arms and inhabited by Kindness scientists and hot air balloon operators The poems invoke a world of childhood delights and demons in the context of grown up fears and appetites heartbreak loss jealousy and old fashioned sibling rivalry You ll find the hopelessly misunderstood Love the Clown never goes out without his red wig and Noni a forlorn young man who can t stop crying But while sadness plays a starring role the true hero of the collection is the imagination its transformative powers warm widows and drunken gods and designated mourners You won t forget The Refrigerator Memory the icebox cometh to warm your heart Bramer s Our Prosthesis is wonderfully succinct while still managing to convey entire lives floating beneath its surface Lee Gowan Bramer writes poems with resonant grief fragile glass and desperate love carved carefully and spare out of cold dark objects achieving small remarkable poems rob mcLennan

Creating A Memory of Causal Relationships Michael J. Pazzani, 2014-02-25 This book presents a theory of learning new causal relationships by making use of perceived regularities in the environment general knowledge of causality and existing causal knowledge Integrating ideas from the psychology of causation and machine learning the author introduces a new learning procedure called theory driven learning that uses abstract knowledge of causality to guide the induction process Known as OCCAM the system uses theory driven learning when new experiences conform to common patterns of causal relationships empirical learning to learn from novel experiences and explanation based learning when there is sufficient existing knowledge to explain why a new outcome occurred Together these learning methods construct a hierarchical organized memory of causal relationships As such OCCAM is the first learning system with the ability to acquire via empirical learning the background knowledge required for explanation based learning Please note This program runs on common lisp

The Refrigerator Memory Shannon Bramer, 2001-04-19 The Refrigerator Memory is an exuberant strangely funny celebration of sadness With fable like miniature stories and short lyric poems Shannon Bramer creates a world littered with stolen pears and prosthetic arms and inhabited by Kindness scientists and hot air balloon operators The poems invoke a world of childhood delights and demons in the context of grown up fears and appetites heartbreak loss jealousy and old fashioned sibling rivalry You ll find the hopelessly misunderstood Love the Clown never goes out without his red wig and Noni a forlorn young man who can t stop crying But while sadness plays a starring role the true hero of the collection is the imagination its transformative powers warm widows and drunken gods and designated mourners You won t forget The Refrigerator Memory the icebox cometh to warm your heart

Portalism Jeffrey Laird,2022-11-25 The mind is not the brain The locus of our consciousness is in the world Portalism embraces radical phenomenal externalism and represents a contemporary form of dualism that rejects materialist assumptions of mind brain identity As a philosophy of mind Portalism breaks with traditional thinking in two significant ways first by holding that consciousness is in fact a fifth fundamental force of nature endowed with behavioural attributes not unlike that of gravity and second by arguing how consciousness inheres in all living organisms regardless of their biological sophistication Portalism compels us to reject traditional monist theories about the nature of consciousness and boldly enter into a new way of thinking about our own reality

Come to a Memory Frances Webb,2016-08-04 Prejudice takes many forms Set in New Jersey just before World War II Come to a Memory Joab s Story Lila s Story is about two classmates who are both bullied in school for different reasons Joab arrives in Lila s fourth grade class as the new kid and is greeted with scorn because he s a half Jewish refugee from Germany and everyone knows that Germany is the enemy in the war He talks funny and dresses differently and has a black number burned into his arm The teacher sits him next to Lila another student who is belittled by the other students She comes from a poor extended family and her grandfather is considered the town fool Can these two forge a friendship and survive against all the odds This historical novel reflects how memory can affect current relationships and is set as a backdrop to life during wartime It also depicts the slow development of friendship through patience and kindness in the face of childhood bullying The story takes place in a small suburban northern New Jersey commuter town at the very beginning of World War II just as the Great Depression is lifting for some but not for others Lila s family extended and living in one large house divided in two is poor and her grandfather rants to his son Lila s father about letting the bank foreclose on part of his property and on their livelihood Early rumblings of war reverberate from newspaper headlines and the evening news with Lowell Thomas Lila is an outcast at school since she is poor and lives in an odd house with her grandfather the town tyrant and fool The first day of the school year in 1939 is clouded with sadness for Lila because of the noise coming from her backyard A bulldozer is razing her family s greenhouses disturbing the peace of the neighborhood and she is tormented by her classmates because of it The child is self conscious about her house which she has divided into the green and blue sides She and her nuclear family represent the green and her aunts and grandparents are blue This along with being old fashioned in dress add to Lila s ostracism
