Refugee Community Organisations And Dispersal:

Refugee Community Organisations and Dispersal David Griffiths, Nando Sigona, Roger Zetter, 2005-10-05 Despite increased political and public interest in asylum issues in the UK little has been written on the topic This book written by leading experts in the field is the first to examine the role of refugee community organisations RCOs at a critical point of policy change The book is distinctive in combining theoretical discussion on the role of networks resources and social capital with fieldwork evidence and interviews with members of RCOs non governmental organisations NGOs and statutory authorities It critically examines the impact of dispersal and current legislative change on refugee communities and RCOs explores the integrative role of RCOs assesses the race relations framework in Britain and its effects on refugee organisations and provides a thorough and up to date literature review Refugee community organisations and dispersal is essential reading for practitioners and policy makers academics researchers and students of social policy social geography sociology and politics Members of NGOs working with refugees or in local government community workers and members of refugee communities themselves will also be keenly interested in the book Comparative issues raised by the research will be of direct interest to readers in other countries David Griffiths is a Research Fellow at Oxford Brookes University UK His research interests include British and European asylum policy Nando Sigona is a Research Associate at Oxford Brookes University His research interests include Roma refugees in Europe Roger Zetter is Deputy Head in the Department of Planning Oxford Brookes University His research interests include refugees and public policy     Refugee community organisations and dispersal Griffiths, David, Sigona, Nando, 2005-10-05 The book is distinctive in combining theoretical discussion on the role of networks resources and social capital with fieldwork evidence and interviews with members of RCOs non governmental organisations NGOs and statutory authorities It critically examines the impact of dispersal and current legislative change on refugee communities and RCOs explores the integrative role of RCOs assesses the race relations framework in Britain and its effects on refugee organisations and provides a thorough and up to date literature review Refugee community organisations and dispersal is essential reading for practitioners and policy makers academics researchers and students of social policy social geography sociology and politics Members of NGOs working with refugees or in local government community workers and members of refugee communities themselves will also be keenly interested in the book Comparative issues raised by the research will be of direct interest to readers in other countries     Community Groups in Context Angus McCabe, Jenny Phillimore, 2017-03-15 In the past decade community groups have been portrayed as the solution to many social problems Yet the role of below the regulatory radar community action has received little research attention and thus is poorly understood in terms of both policy and practice Focusing on self organised community activity this book offers the first collection of papers developing theoretical and empirically grounded knowledge of the informal unregistered yet largest part of the voluntary sector The collection includes work from leading academics activists policy makers and practitioners offering a new and coherent understanding of community action below the radar The book is part of the Third Sector Research Series which is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury Trust     Spreading the 'burden'? Robinson, Vaughan, Andersson, Roger, 2003-07-30 European governments are now engaging in one of the largest exercises in social engineering that the continent has seen since the Second World War Hundreds of thousands of asylum seekers and refugees in Europe are now being denied their basic right to choose where they live and are instead being compulsorily dispersed Spreading the burden is the first book length study of dispersal policies explicitly comparative in nature and written by three national experts highly topical and controversial as the review of dispersal policies is under way in many countries a valuable case study of how society deals with outsider groups and space The book is essential reading for national and local policy makers those interested in human rights social policy and refugee studies as well as human geographers and sociologists

The Dispersal and Social Exclusion of Asylum Seekers Patricia Hynes, 2011 Establishing asylum seekers in the UK as a socially excluded group this book provides readers with an understanding of how they experience the dispersal system and gives an insight into how this impacts on their lives     Refugees, Capitalism and the British State Tom Vickers, 2016-04-08 Today in a period of economic crisis public sector cuts and escalating class struggle Marxism offers important tools for social workers and service users to understand the structures of oppression they face and devise effective means of resistance This book uses Marxism's lost insights and reinterprets them in the current context by focussing on one particular section of the international working class refugees and asylum seekers in Britain Vickers analysis demonstrates the general utility of a Marxist approach enabling an exploration of the interplay between state policies how these are experienced by their subjects and how conflicts are mediated The substantive focus of the book is twofold to analyse the material basis of the oppression of refugees in Britain by the British state and to examine the means by which the British state has managed this oppression through the cultivation of a refugee relations industry within a broader narrative of social capital building These questions demand answers if social workers and other practitioners are to successfully work with refugees and asylum seekers and this book provides these through a detailed Marxist analysis     The Crux of Refugee Resettlement Andrew Nelson, Alexander Rödlach, Roos Willems, 2018-12-13 While the world's refugee population reaches record high numbers countries offering third country resettlement are increasingly shifting toward policies of exclusion and austerity This edited volume envisions a more humane future for refugee resettlement Combining anthropology with a variety of professional perspectives education health care theology administration politics and social work ethnography is used to demonstrate the efficacy of programs and interventions that create and nurture social capital in culturally specific and accessible ways The contributors present case studies of resettlement in the United States England Australia and Canada and contend that social networks have an essential role are the crux in the reconfigurations of refugee well being belonging and place making vis vis the bureaucratic limitations of state and institutional factors This book includes short contributions from refugees representatives of resettlement organizations and government officials including Jhuma N Acharya Bimala Bastola Khada Bhandari Kiri Hata Govin Magar Madhu Neupane Natacha Nikokeza Angela K Plummer Lance Rasbridge Chris Sunderlin David Thatcher and John Tluang Building on Diversity, 2006 Migrant Activism and Integration from Below in Ireland Ronit Lentin, Elena Moreo, 2012-02-17 This book analyzes the interaction between migrant activists and leaders and the state of the Republic of Ireland a late player in Europe's immigration regime against the background of an increasingly restrictive immigration regime Multiculturalism, Social Cohesion and Immigration Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2017-10-02 Multiculturalism Social Cohesion and Immigration brings together original research that addresses key facets of the changing dynamics of race multiculturalism and immigration in contemporary British society The various chapters in this volume tackle important social and political issues such as ethnic diversity and segregation post race politics contact and threat hypotheses national identity anti racist mobilisation and whiteness It provides an important insight into the dynamics of contemporary British society This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Refugee Children Charles Watters, 2007-11-06 Offering a comprehensive overview of the problems facing refugee children in the industrialized world this essential book looks at the measures taken by nation states and intergovernmental bodies to address perceived problems Towards Understanding Community C. Clay, M. Madden, L. Potts, 2007-11-09 Written in the temporal and political context of the British New Labour Government's ongoing reliance on the word community academics and activists critically engage here with the range of ways in which contemporary ideas of community are being used and contested The key focus is on understanding community from action into theory and vice versa A Handbook of Integration with Refugees Esa Aldegheri, Dan Fisher, Alison Phipps, 2025-07-24 This Handbook brings together the viewpoints of academics practitioners artists and people seeking refuge in Scotland to explore the global learnings that can be gained from this context The book engages with the challenge of supporting integration as multi directional processes within a broader setting in which forced migration is often criminalised Situating its analysis of integration in Scotland the book combines chapters based in theory which explore issues ranging from the concept of integration to law borders and integration policy with creative and practical responses to these issues The book offers hopeful alternatives to current realities of forced migration and a compelling challenge to dominant narratives related to refuge and integration It will be of interest to practitioners policymakers and scholars working with refugees and asylum seekers around the world This book is open access under a CC BY ND licence Refugee Children In The Uk Rutter, Jill, 2006-06-01 Includes statistical tables and graphs The Migration and Settlement of Refugees in Britain A. Bloch, 2002-08-12 The increase in the number of asylum seekers arriving in Europe has placed the issue of migration high on the policy agendas of national governments and the European Union This book analyzes the impact of policy on the social and economic settlement of refugees in Britain in that context

The issues explored include current UK and EU migration policy the history of migration to Britain and policy responses theories of migration and migrant settlement social and economic settlement of refugees in Britain including language employment social networks the migratory process community development and policy recommendations      Refugee women in Britain and France Gill Allwood,Khursheed Wadia,2013-07-19 This book is about the lives of refugee women in Britain and France Who are they Where do they come from What happens to them when they arrive while they wait for a decision on their claim for asylum and after the decision whether positive or negative It shows how laws and processes designed to meet the needs of men fleeing political persecution often fail to protect women from persecution in their home countries and fail to meet their needs during and after the decision making process It portrays refugee women as resilient resourceful and potentially active participants in British and French social political and cultural life It exposes the obstacles that make active participation difficult The book is an authoritative and thorough synthesis of all available material on refugee women in Britain and France The style is accessible and highly readable making this an ideal book for academics students and interested readers      Displacement, Asylum and the City René Kreichauf,Birgit Glorius,2023-05-22 This edited volume draws attention to the interlinked yet understudied relationship between the role of cities in dealing with international displacement and forced migration and the influence of forced migration in stimulating spatial societal and institutional transformations in and of cities In 2022 almost 84 million people worldwide were forcibly displaced More than two thirds of them reside in urban areas Displacement and forced migration are an urban experience and an urban story of those seeking protection This book helps us understanding the conditions of displaced population in cities and the way cities and urban actors respond to recent migration trends It applies an urban perspective to the analysis of migration processes and it provides insights into the urban governance of forced migration and asylum the production of spaces related to forced migration and the role of the displaced population as actors of urban change Thereby it covers a broad spectrum of topics including migrant dispersal welfare and social protection urban humanitarian policymaking and governance neighbourhood development migrant solidarity and refugee protest and new refugee and migrant destinations Given the increasing mobility and displacement of human populations this book provides a relevant prerequisite for readers interested in current urban forced migration and asylum trends and on the intersections of those topics The book will be of great value to researchers and academics of Geography Migration and Urban Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Urban Geography      Vulnerable Groups in Health and Social Care Mary Larkin,2009-06-04 Carefully researched and highly readable this textbook looks at the experiences and health and social needs of key vulnerable groups It presents an engaging social science perspective relevant to everyone exploring how we and society care for the vulnerable Each chapter defines and explores a vulnerable social group bringing together theoretical policy and practice perspectives The lively and engaging style enables the reader to engage with the client group and to reflect upon their own learning and practice in a more meaningful way      After the Flight Shiva Nourpanah, Morgan Poteet, 2016-06-22 Knowledge of the integration process for refugees is often subsumed under the broader category of immigrants This book focuses on this process for refugees including the structural and systemic challenges they face as they integrate in their new host societies and how they respond to such challenges The book provides a critical analysis of Canada's approach to integrating refugees with additional chapters focused on refugee integration in Australia Northern Ireland and the United States This collection of work critically addresses a range of topics and employs a variety of qualitative approaches to gain a better understanding of the lived experience of integration for refugees including the ways in which refugees view integration and the attendant challenges and opportunities encountered during the integration process Departing from viewing refugees as a burden that must be shared by the international community the contributors to this collection explore the complex dynamics of race class gender ethnicity age generation and legal status for refugees in a selection of local contexts of reception The work begins a dialogue about the long term dynamics of refugee settlement and integration with implications for the viability of future resettlement programs and practices How the world responds to the ongoing plight of the growing numbers of displaced people will be a defining feature of the contemporary global order This collection shifts the discourse about refugees from one of victimhood to one of refugee agency and rights The book will be of primary interest to academics in the field of refugee and migration studies to practitioners in the settlement sector and to those involved in making refugee policies It will also be useful for those who work in social services and education in countries of the global north that receive refugees and refugee claimants and anyone with an interest in refugee lives      Doing Research with Refugees Bogusia Temple, Rhett Moran, 2011-03-16 Explores methodological issues relating to the involvement of refugees in service evaluation and development building on a two year seminar series funded by the ESRC and attended by a range of participants
