Refugees Resources Reunion Australias Immigration Dilemmas:

Refugees, Resources, Reunion Robert Birrell, 1979 This book examines Australia's immigration programme with particular emphasis on refugees It is based on papers presented at the seminar on Australia's Immigration Responsibilities Melbourne February 1979 The aim of the editors is to clarify differences of attitude in Australia towards immigration and indicate ethical and sociological premises upon which the differences are based The book is divided into three sections the first is based on the seminar discussions the second further develops the issues raised in the first section and the third deals with background issues and the views of the Government and the Opposition on policy implications The specific chapters dealing with refugees include Australia's Immigration Policy and Refugees Family Reunion and the Refugees Crisis Family Reunion and Refugees and Population Immigration and the Domestic Market and Indochinese Refugees The editors conclude that considering the current unemployment situation and the absence of proper manpower programmes there is no good case for recruiting immigrants to fill alleged gaps in the workforce They also conclude that the system of selection of immigrants does not meet effectively any of the varying priorities They recommend for strong humanitarian reasons giving priority to refugees and family reunion cases and in addition discontinuing the arrangement whereby New Zealand citizens have a free right of entry and settlement
