H. Samuel, 1970-01-01 This autobiographical account of the career of Edwin Herbert Samuel the second Viscount and son of the famous Liberal politician is distinguished both for the historical importance and for the content and incisiveness of the writing The book will prove fascinating to readers who enjoy good autobiography especially those interested in following the saga of Palestine and Israel as told by one who has observed it closely for more than fifty years The current volume presents material on Julius Simon's Zionist life and activity from the beginning of the century until the establishment of the state of Israel Selected letters and documents a chronological table and an index are included Kabbalistic Circles in Jerusalem (1896-1948) Jonatan Meir, 2016-08-09 This book endeavors to fill a lacuna in the literature on early twentieth century kabbalah namely the lack of a comprehensive account of the traditional kabbalah seminaries Yeshivot in Jerusalem from 1896 to 1948 as well as the various manifestations of kabbalah within traditional Jewish society The foundations that were laid in the early twentieth century also paved the way for the contemporary blossoming of kabbalah in many and manifold circles In this sense retracing the pertinent developments in Palestine at the outset of the twentieth century is imperative not only for repairing the distorted picture of the past but for understanding the ongoing surge in kabbalah study The Jerusalem Book of Quotations Jack Friedman, 2007 Perhaps no other city has been spoken of as often or as passionately as Jerusalem The Jerusalem Book of Quotations brings together the kaleidoscopic impressions and perspectives of a representative group of those who have responded to the wonder of the Holy City from the biblical period to the present Jews Christians and Muslims pilgrims as well as skeptics travelers conquerors scholars and statesmen The work gives expression to the discordant notes of contrasting perspectives about the meaning of Jerusalem At the same time it reflects the city's unique distinction as the embodiment of mankind's highest ethical and spiritual aspirations The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places Wendy Pullan, Maximilian Sternberg, Lefkos Kyriacou, Craig Larkin, Michael Dumper, 2013-11-20 The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places investigates the role of architecture and urban identity in relation to the political economy of the city and its wider state context seen through the lens of the holy places Reflecting the broad disciplinary backgrounds of the authors this book provides perspectives from architecture urbanism and politics and provides in depth investigations of historical ethnographic and policy related case studies The research is substantiated by fieldwork carried out in Jerusalem over the past ten years as part of the ESRC Large Grants project Conflict in Cities By analysing new dynamics of radicalisation through land seizure the politicisation of parklands and tourism the strategic manipulation of archaeological and historical narratives and material culture and through examination of general appropriation of Jerusalem's varied rituals, memories and symbolism for fictional uses the book reveals how possibilities of co-existence are seriously threatened in Jerusalem. Shedding new light on the key role played by everyday urban life and its spatial settings for any future political agreements about the city and its religious sites, this book is a useful reference work for students and scholars of Middle East Studies, Architecture, Religion and Urban Studies.

Mapping the Sacred, 2021-11-15 Interweaving the interpretative methods of religious studies, literary criticism and cultural geography, the essays in this volume focus on issues associated with the representation of place and space in the writing and reading of the postcolonial. The collection charts the ways in which contemporary writers extend and deepen our awareness of the ambiguities of economic, social and political relations implicated in sacred space, the sense of spiritual significance associated with those concrete locations in which adherents of different religious traditions, past and present, maintain a ritual sense of the sanctity of life and its cycles. Part I, Land, Religion and Literature after Britain, explores how postcolonial writers dramatize the contested processes of colonization, resistance and decolonization by which lands and landscapes may be viewed as now sacred, now desacralized, now resacralized. Part II, Sacred Landscapes and Postcoloniality across International Literatures, draws upon postcolonial theory to inquire into how contemporary fiction, drama and poetry represent themes of divine dispensation, dispossession and reclamation in regions as diverse as Haiti, Israel, Bosnia, Herzegovina, the Arctic and the North American frontier. A critical Afterword considers the implications of such multi-disciplinary approaches to postcolonial literatures for present and future research in the field. Writers discussed in the essays include Russell Banks, James K. Baxter, Ursula Bethell, Erna Brodber, Marcus Clarke, Allen Curnow, Edwidge Danticat, Mak Dizdar, Sara Jeannette Duncan, Zee Edgell, Grey Owl, Haruki Murakami, Seamus Heaney, Peter Heg, Hugh Hood, Janette Turner Hospital, James Houston, Dany Laferrière, B. K. Lajoie, Lee Kok Liang, K. S. Maniam, Mudrooroo, R. K. Narayan, Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Ben Okri, Chava Pinchas, Cohen Mary Prince, Nancy Prince, Nayantara Sahgal, Ken Saro Wiwa, Ibrahim Tahir, Amos Tutuola, W. D. Valgardson, Derek Walcott and Rudy Wiebe. Maps accompany almost every essay.

Nine Quarters of Jerusalem Matthew

Teller,2022-09-13 This unique absorbing biography of Jerusalem brings to light its overlooked histories and diverse contemporary voices In Jerusalem what you see and what is true are two different things The Old City has never had four quarters as its maps proclaim And beyond the crush and frenzy of its major religious sites many of its quarters are little known to visitors its people ignored and their stories untold Nine Quarters of Jerusalem lets the communities of the Old City speak for themselves Ranging from ancient past to political present it evokes the city s depth and cultural diversity Matthew Teller s highly original biography features the Old City s Palestinian and Jewish communities but also spotlights its Indian and African populations its Greek and Armenian and Syriac cultures its downtrodden Dom Gypsy families and its Sufi mystics It discusses the sources of Jerusalem s holiness and the ideas often startlingly secular that have shaped lives within its walls It is an evocation of place through story led by the voices of Jerusalemites War Without End Anton La

Figuring Jerusalem Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi,2022-04-22 Figuring Jerusalem explores how Hebrew writers have imagined Jerusalem both from the distance of exile and from within its sacred walls For two thousand years Hebrew writers used their exile from the Holy Land as a license for invention The question at the heart of Figuring Jerusalem is this how did these writers bring their imagination home in the Zionist century Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi finds that the same diasporic conventions that Hebrew writers practiced in exile were maintained throughout the first half of the twentieth century And even after 1948 when the state of Israel was founded but East Jerusalem and its holy sites remained under Arab control Jerusalem continued to figure in the Hebrew imagination as mediated space It was only in the aftermath of the Six Day War that the temptations and dilemmas of proximity to the sacred would become acute in every area of Hebrew politics and culture Figuring Jerusalem ranges from classical texts biblical and medieval to the post 1967 writings of S Y Agnon and Yehuda Amichai Ultimately DeKoven Ezrahi shows that the wisdom Jews acquired through two thousand years of exile as inscribed in their literary imagination must be rediscovered if the diverse inhabitants of Jerusalem are to coexist The Sacred

Strange Cocktail Adriana X. Jacobs, 2018-07-23 For centuries poets have turned to translation for creative inspiration Through and in translation poets have introduced new poetic styles languages and forms into their own writing sometimes changing the course of literary history in the process Strange Cocktail is the first comprehensive study of this phenomenon in modern Hebrew literature of the late nineteenth century to the present day Its chapters on Esther Raab Leah Goldberg Avot Yeshurun and Harold Schimmel offer close readings that examine the distinct poetics of translation that emerge from reciprocal practices of writing and translating Working in a minor literary vernacular the translation strategies that these poets employed allowed them to create and participate in transnational and multilingual poetic networks Strange Cocktail thereby advances a comparative and multilingual reframing of modern Hebrew literature that considers how canons change and are undone when translation occupies a central position how lines of influence and affiliation are redrawn and literary historiographies are revised when the work of translation occupies the same status as an original text when translating and writing go hand in hand
