Blackaby, 1993-07      The Rugged Road to Freedom Joy Brewster, 2006 As Christians we claim to have found freedom in Jesus Christ Yet under the surface most Christians would admit that they still struggle with many negative habits habitual emotional reactions destructive thoughts wrong attitudes addictive behaviors and deeply rooted relational patterns Many suffer with a mounting frustration and a sense of failure wondering if there is truly power to change in the gospel The Rugged Road to Freedom heralds the need to address these habits as they occur in the moments of the day illustrating the transformative power of prayer and the need for a conversational relationship with God In this book Christian counselor Joy Brewster describes her great difficulty in trying to make changes in her own personal habits and also in her efforts as a professional relationship counselor to enable her clients to change After searching prayer she began to develop and practice both personally and professionally a Put Off Put On process she saw in many passages of Scripture developing three steps in each part This process she realized was effective only when she encountered God in very personal relational prayer in each step Relating her own experiences those of her clients and those of her students she seeks to convince the reader that this prayer process can bring about true change mounting freedom and vastly enriched daily fellowship with God I write a lot of these but few with this much enthusiasm I have had the privilege for almost eight years to walk alongside Joy in life and work alongside her in ministry She has been a friend and a mentor and I have both tasted and seen her wisdom I have witnessed her take hundreds of people through the process described in Rugged Road and watched over and over genuine transformation take place the blind see the deaf hear and freedom is proclaimed to the captives I myself have been deeply

John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today. When complete, the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day, Epiphany, Holy Week, and All Saints Day. For each lectionary text, preachers will find four brief essays, one each on the theological, pastoral, exegetical, and homiletical challenges of the text. This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion. The editors and contributors to this series are world class scholars, pastors, and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions. And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary, each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its content.

The Sacramentality of Music Christina Labriola, 2024-08-19. Steeped in the Catholic spiritual tradition, The Sacramentality of Music argues that musical experience in its appeal to the entirety of the human person can serve as a locus of encounter with the divine and an occasion of God's self-revelation in love with spiritually nurturing ultimately transformative ends. Christina Labriola contends that this dynamic might most aptly be understood as sacramental, an all-encompassing perspective of the cosmos permeated by the divine creative, salvific, sustaining presence. Through its participation in the mysteries of beauty and creativity, its bodily and affective engagement and impact on the inner life, music operates sacramentally, manifesting divine realities through the tangible stuff of human experience. In a thematic theological exploration that interweaves pastoral theology, theological aesthetics, and mysticism, the reader is invited to contemplate music's sacramental potentiality and to engage the sacramentally charged music of Beethoven, Bartok, MacMillan, Messiaen, Mozart, Envalds, Bach, Pärt, and Hildegard. In attending to musical ways of relating to God, this book invites readers into a deepening awareness of the sacramental nature of reality itself, as that in which the spiritual resonance of music is grounded and reveals afresh, taking musical beauty seriously in the spiritual order with repercussions for Christian living.
