Visions of Hope Donald Sneen, 1978      Elenchus of Biblica Robert North, 1997      Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie, 2005-05-18

Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space

Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction

Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly

Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself

Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God

Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated

Part F      The Catholic Biblical Quarterly Wendell Stephen Reilly, 1995 Includes various reports of the Association

Sunday Matters Mark O'Brien, 2012-12-31

Recently Pope Benedict remarked the quality of homilies needs to be improved The Pope made this comment in the context of his extended reflection on the recent Synod in Rome 2010 on the word of God in the mission and life of the Church The homily is an integral part of Christian liturgy It is an honoured way of bringing the word of God to life such that people are helped to see the relevance of the word in their everyday lives The homily is also an art form which needs to be practised and developed with skill It seems to me as a preacher myself that what people are looking for in the homily is an articulate faith filled knowledgeable commentary on the word of God which speaks to their everyday life and experience People want to see the fire desire and conviction in the person who preaches This is a constant challenge Mark O'Brien here presents his reflections on Year C of the lectionary based on the Gospel of Luke This is the companion volume to the earlier ones for Years A and B Mark offers homilists a great service here In two to three pages or several hundred words he gives an erudite and practical reflection on the word of God for the particular Sunday or feast as a good foundation on which any homilist can then build Pope Benedict continues The art of good preaching based on the lectionary is an art that needs to be cultivated In these short but insightful reflections on the readings of the lectionary Mark makes an excellent contribution to developing the art form of good preaching to the benefit of both those who preach and those who hear them

The Nonviolent Apocalypse Jeffrey D. Meyers,2021-11-08 Revelation is resistance literature written to instruct early Christians on how to live as followers of Jesus in the Roman Empire The Nonviolent Apocalypse uses modern examples and scholarship on nonviolence to help illuminate Revelation s resistance arguing that Revelation s famously violent visions are actually acts of nonviolent resistance to the Empire The visions form part of Revelation s proclamation of God s way as a just and life giving alternative to the system constructed by Rome Revelation urges its readers to pursue this radical form of living engaging in nonviolent resistance to all that stands in the way of God s vision for the world
