Revolution And Repetition Marx Hugo Balzac:

Revolution and Repetition Jeffrey Mehlman, Professor Jeffrey Mehlman, 1977-01-01 Deals mainly with Hugo's Quatrevingt-treize and Balzac's Les chouans      Balzac Michael Tilby, 2017-07-28 This canon of French literature Honore de Balzac 1799-1850 is also a major European figure in the development of realism His work is dominated by an inter-related sequence of novels and short stories La Comedie Humaine which charts the idiosyncrasies of French society from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the 1840s Among the most famous of these are Le Pierre Goriot and La Cousine Bette In this study Dr Tilby concentrates on the main approaches in practice and discusses some of the earliest responses to Balzac's work His introduction and headnotes set Balzac's work in context This book will be of interest to students of French language and literature and also to those studying French in combined studies or humanities courses      Ghosts, Metaphor, and History in Toni Morrison's Beloved and Gabriel Garcia Marquez's One Hundred Years of Solitude D. Erickson, 2009-03-16 This study examines the complex relations between the figure of the ghost the textual figure of metaphor and history in Toni Morrison's Beloved and Gabriel Garcia Marquez's One Hundred Years of Solitude      Understanding Marx, Understanding Modernism Mark Steven, 2021-01-14 A concentrated study of the relationships between modernism and transformative left utopianism this volume provides an introduction to Marx and Marxism for modernists and an introduction to modernism for Marxists Its guiding hypothesis is that Marx's writing absorbed the lessons of artistic and cultural modernity as much as his legacy concretely shaped modernism across multiple media      State Power Bob Jessop, 2013-04-26 Bob Jessop presents an up-to-date account of his distinctive approach to the dialectics of structure and strategy in the exercise of state power While his earlier work critically surveys other state theories this book focuses on the development of his own strategic relational approach It introduces its main sources outlines its development applies this approach to four case studies and sketches a strategic relational research agenda Thus the book presents a comprehensive theoretical statement of the approach and guidelines for its application Key features of the book include an account of the author's theoretical development a review of recent developments in state theory and the cultural turn in political economy critical strategic relational readings of major state theorists Marx on political representation Gramsci on the spatiality of state power Poulantzas on the state as a social relation and the later Foucault on statecraft applications of the strategic relational approach to important issues concerning the contemporary state its gendered selectivity the future of the national state the state's temporal sovereignty and the relevance of multi-scalar meta-governance in Europe for the more general future of the state The book concludes with recommendations for future strategic relational research in political economy and state theory      Magical Nominalism Martin Jay, 2025-01-22 A bold and wide-ranging study across centuries examining the conflict between conventional and magical nominalism in philosophy history aesthetics political theory and photography In this magisterial new book intellectual historian Martin Jay traces the long-standing competition between two versions of nominalism the conventional and the magical Since at least William of Ockham according to Jay the conventional form of nominalism has contributed to the disenchantment of the world by viewing general terms as nothing more than mere names we use to group particular objects together rejecting the idea that they refer to a further higher reality Magical nominalism instead performs a reenchanted function by investing proper names disruptive events and singular objects with an auratic power of their own Drawing in part on Jewish theology it challenges the elevation of the constitutive subject resulting from Ockham's reliance on divine will in his critique of real universals Starting with the fourteenth century revolution of nominalism against Scholastic realism Jay unpacks various counterrevolutions against nominalism itself including a magical alternative to its conventional form Focusing on fundamental debates over the relationship between language thought and reality Jay illuminates connections across thinkers disciplines and vast realms of human experience Ranging from theology and philosophy of history to aesthetics and political theory this book engages with a range of artists and thinkers including Adorno Ankersmit Badiou Barthes Bataille Benjamin Blumenberg Derrida Duchamp Foucault Kracauer Kripke and Lyotard Ultimately Magical Nominalism offers a strikingly original way to understand humanity's intellectual path to modernity

The Fugitive's Properties Stephen M. Best, 2010-05-15 In this study of literature and law before and since the Civil War Stephen M. Best shows how American conceptions of slavery property and the idea of the fugitive were profoundly interconnected The Fugitive's Properties uncovers a poetics of intangible personified property emerging out of antebellum laws circulating through key nineteenth century works of literature and informing cultural forms such as blackface minstrelsy and early race films Best also argues that legal principles dealing with fugitives and indebted persons provided a sophisticated precursor to intellectual property law as it dealt with rights in appearance expression and other abstract aspects of personhood In this conception of property as fleeting indeed fugitive American law preserved for much of the rest of the century slavery's most pressing legal imperative the production of personhood as a market commodity By revealing the paradoxes of this relationship between fugitive slave law and intellectual property law Best helps us to understand how race achieved much of its force in the American cultural imagination A work of ambitious scope and compelling cross connections The Fugitive's Properties sets new agendas for scholars of American literature and legal culture

Reading Marx Writing Thomas M. Kemple, 1995 Employing the insights of recent cultural critics Reading Marx Writing uses the eight notebooks the Grundrisse Marx worked on in 1857-58 to examine his literary political and scientific imagination and the fictional writers he admired By exploring the Grundrisse the project or plan that Marx did not carry through the author speculates on the limits and possibilities of Marx's interpretive approach for addressing current issues in philosophy and hermeneutics critical sociology and political economy and aesthetics and literary criticism The study employs certain literary works notably a scene from Goethe's Faust and several stories from Balzac's Comédie humaine as looking glasses or sounding boards for Marx's political and scientific concerns and to connect themes emerging from the cultural economy of the nineteenth century These literary works are treated less as dramatic illustrations of Marx's life or depictions of his scientific insights than as interpretive frameworks or social fictions which give shape to both Marx's text and the writings of others working in his wake Through an innovative blend of German critical theory Lukacs Marcuse and Habermas French post structuralism Althusser Lyotard and Baudrillard and Anglo American cultural criticism Jameson Mitchell and O'Neill the author develops a unique method for articulating the play of image text and even music within Marx's human scientific discourse Ghosts P. Buse, A.

Stott, 1999-01-28 Did you know that the father of psychoanalysis believed in ghosts or that Frederick Engels attended seances Ghosts Deconstruction Psychoanalysis History is the first collection of theoretical essays to evaluate these facts and consider the importance of the metaphor of haunting as it has appeared in literature culture and philosophy Haunting is considered as both a literal and figurative term that encapsulates social anxieties and concerns The collection includes discussions of nineteenth century spiritualism gothic and postcolonial ghost stories and popular film with essays on important theoretical writers including Freud Derrida Adorno and Walter Benjamin Post-Work Stanley Aronowitz, Jonathan Cutler, 2013-10-18

In Post Work Stanley Aronowitz and Jonathan Cutler have collected essays from a variety of scholars to discuss the dreary future of work The introduction The Post Work Manifesto provides the framework for a radical reappraisal of work and suggests an alternative organization of labor The provocative essays that follow focus on specific issues that are key to our reconceptualization of the notion and practice of work with coverage of the fight for shorter hours the relationship between school and work and the role of welfare among others Armed with an interdisciplinary approach Post Work looks beyond the rancorous debates around welfare politics and lays out the real sources of anxiety in the modern workplace The result is an offering of hope for the future an alternative path for a cybernation where the possibility of less work for a better standard of living is possible Fear of a Queer Planet Michael Warner, 1993 In recent years lesbians and gay men have developed a new aggressive style of politics At the same time innovative intellectual energies have made queer theory an explosive field of study In Fear of a Queer Planet Michael Warner draws on emerging new queer politics and shows how queer activists have come to challenge basic assumptions about the social and political world Existing traditions of theory Marxism cultural studies psychoanalysis anthropology legal theory nationalism and antinationalism have too often presupposed a heterosexual society as the essays in this volume demonstrate Fear of a Queer Planet suggests a new agenda for social theory It moves beyond the idea that lesbians and gay men share a minority identity and special interests and that their issues can be subordinated to more general social conflicts Instead Warner and the other contributors to this volume show that queer sexualities take many forms are the subject of many kinds of conflict and struggles and must be taken as a starting point in thinking about cultural politics This collection explores the impact of ACT UP Queer Nation multiculturalism the new religious right outing queerness postmodernism and other shifts in the politics of sexuality The authors featured speak from different backgrounds of gender race nationality and discipline Together they show how struggles over sexuality have profound implications for progressive politics social theory and cultural studies Michael Warner has written extensively on censorship and the public sphere the construction of American literary history and the social and political implication of literary theories He is author of The Letter of the Republic Publication and the Public Sphere in Eighteenth Century America and co editor of The Origins of Literary Studies in America A Documentary Anthology Modernism in the Peripheral Metropolis Tavid Mulder, 2023-08-28 This book shows how Latin American writers and artists in the crisis decades of the 1920s and 1930s used modernist techniques to explore national issues in relation to global capitalism Drawing on a rich interdisciplinary archive of novels poetry essays photography and architecture it includes chapters on major figures and the transformations that marked Latin American cities at the beginning of the twentieth century the poet Manuel Maples Arce and Mexico City the essayist Jos Carlos Mari tegui and Lima the novelist Roberto Arlt and Buenos Aires the novelist Patricia Galv o and S o Paulo Tavid Mulder argues that the Latin American city should be understood as a peripheral metropolis a social space that is simultaneously peripheral relative to the center of the world economy and a metropolis in relation to the region s vast underdeveloped hinterlands Conceiving of modernist techniques as ways of understanding how the dualisms of Latin American societies urban and rural wealth and poverty cosmopolitan and national are bound together by the internal contradictions of capitalism this volume insists on the ability of literary and artistic works to grasp the process through which untenable situations of crisis are not overcome but stabilized in the periphery It thereby sheds light on issues in Latin America that have become increasingly urgent in the twenty first century inequality indigenous migration surplus populations and anomie Cannibal Modernities Luís Madureira, 2005 With inclusion of Brazil in a comparative study of literary texts and their engagement with Western modernity this study shows how the peripheral replications of modernity in contemporary Caribbean and Latin American texts differ crucially from their European models and addresses issues that many post colonial theorists have struggled with Force, Movement, Intensity Ghassan Hage, Emma Kowal, 2011-01-06 Of all the scientific works that have influenced the social sciences and humanities none has matched the profound effect of the work of Isaac Newton In his 1687 masterpiece Principia Mathematica he laid the foundation of classical mechanics in his discoveries of the laws of motion and the law of universal gravitation He reoriented human understanding of the cosmos thus boosting the confidence of human beings to access elements of what they saw as the divine logic behind the order of things and to have a sense of control over it From the nineteenth century to the present day Newton s science has inspired scholars of society in their attempts to discern the patterns of social life For others such a positivist project serves as a cautionary tale to be resisted by contemporary social sciences This book considers the original and continuing legacy of Newtonian theories and imaginaries in the vast array of human attempts to understand the world Drawing from a range of disciplines including anthropology sociology the history of science literary studies cultural studies social theory and economics the essays in this volume engage with Newton as a thinker and examine his legacy Some contributions illustrate the power of physical metaphors in understanding the social world many others point to the limits of this endeavour Still others show how since the eighteenth century Newtonian thought has influenced thinkers as diverse as Blake Marx Freud and Pierre Bourdieu This innovative collection prompts a reconsideration of the importance of Newton for the social sciences and humanities

Textual Strategies Josue V. Harari, 2019-06-30 A stellar cast of fifteen contributors seeks to show the direction in which continental and continentally oriented American literary criticism has evolved in recent years Nine of the essays are published here for the first time five of the remaining six were translated by the editor from the French only one has previously appeared in English The essays make available some of the most important and most representative work that has been done in the wake of structuralism Among the topics treated are the relationships between semiology and literature anthropology and literature and psychoanalysis and literature modern American poetics algebraic models as epistemological operators the modes of production of a poem Flaubert's view of history and poetic language Professor Harari has arranged the essays to move from the general to the particular and from the abstract to the concrete In an informative and ambitious introduction he discusses each essay in relation to the whole and explains the interrelationships among the various theories and strategies that are represented in the anthology A book meant for the specialist as well as the novice for the teacher of literature and criticism as well as the student Textual Strategies is a brilliant introduction to post structuralist critical theories and practices

Karl Marx's Social and Political Thought Bob Jessop, Charlie Malcolm-Brown, 1999 The Return of the Real Hal Foster, 1996-09-25 In The Return of the Real Hal Foster discusses the development of art and theory since 1960 and reorders the relation between prewar and postwar avant gardes Opposed to the assumption that contemporary art is somehow belated he argues that the avant garde returns to us from the future repositioned by innovative practice in the present And he poses this retroactive model of art and theory against the reactionary undoing of progressive culture that is pervasive today After the models of art as text in the 1970s and art as simulacrum in the 1980s Foster suggests that we are now witness to a return to the real to art and theory grounded in the materiality of actual bodies and social sites If The Return of the Real begins with a new narrative of the historical avant gard it concludes with an original reading of this contemporary situation and what it portends for future practices of art and theory culture and politics

Centaurs, Rioting in Thessaly: Memory and the Classical World Martyn Hudson, 2018-01-07 This book treads new paths through the labyrinths of our human thought It meanders through the darkness to encounter the monsters at the heart of the maze Minotaurs Centaurs Automata Makers Humans One part of our human thought emerges from classical Ionia and Greek civilisation more generally We obsessively return to that thought tread again its pathways re enact its stories repeat its motifs and gestures We return time and time again to construct and re construct the beings which were part of its cosmology and mythology stories enacted from a classical world which is itself at once imaginary and material The Never Never Lands of the ancient world contain fabulous beasts and humans and landscapes of desire and violence We encounter the rioting

Centaurs there and never again cease to conjure them up time and time again through our history The Centaur mythologies display a fascination with animals and what binds and divides human beings from them The Centaur hints ultimately at the idea of the genesis of civilisation itself The Labyrinth constructed by Daedalus is itself a prison and a way of thinking about making designing and human aspiration Designed by humans it offers mysteries that would be repeated time and time again a motif which is replicated through human history Daedalus himself is an archetype for creation and mastery the designer of artefacts and machines which would be the beginning of forays into the total domination of nature Centaurs Labyrinths Automata offer clues to the origins and ultimately the futures of humanity and what might come after it Martyn Hudson is the coordinator of the Co Curate North East digital archives and machines project at Newcastle University in the School of Arts and Cultures as well as a Lecturer in Art and Design History He has published widely in landscape history music and archives His book The Slave Ship Memory and the Origin of Modernity was published by Routledge in 2016 and he has two other books forthcoming from Routledge Ghosts Landscapes and Social Memory and Species and Machines The Human Subjugation of Nature

Ghosts, Landscapes and Social Memory Martyn Hudson, 2017-06-26 This book is a groundbreaking attempt to rethink the landscapes of the social world and historical practice by theorising social haunting the ways in which the social forms figures phantasms and ghosts of the past become present to us time and time again Examining the relationship between historical practices such as archaeology and archival work in order to think about how the social landscape is reinvented with reference to the ghosts of the past the author explores the literary and historical status and accounts of the ghost not for what they might tell us about these figures but for their significance for our constantly re invented re vivified re ghosted social world With chapters on haunted houses and castles slave ghosts the haunting airs of music the prehistoric origin of spirits Marxist spectres Freudian revenants and the ghosts in the machine Ghosts Landscapes and Social Memory adopts multi disciplinary methods for understanding the past the dead and social ghosts and the landscapes they appear in A sociology of haunting that illustrates how social landscapes have their genesis and perpetuation in haunting and the past this volume will appeal to sociologists and social theorists with interests in memory haunting and culture

Commemorating Trauma Peter Starr, 2006 The bloody events of the Paris Commune in 1871 traumatized France In this study of cultural memory the author draws on a range of sources to understand the resonating questions about the terrible year
