Planting the Anthropocene Jennifer Clary-Lemon, 2019-03-15 Planting the Anthropocene is a rhetorical look into the world of industrial tree planting in Canada that engages the themes of nature culture and environmental change Bringing together the work of material ecocriticism and critical affect studies in service of a new materialist environmental rhetoric Planting the Anthropocene forwards a frame that can be used to work through complex scenes of anthropogenic labor Using the results of interviews with seasonal Canadian tree planters Jennifer Clary Lemon interrogates the complex and messy imbrication of nature culture through the inadequate terminology used to describe the actual circumstances of the planters work and lives and offers alternative ways to conceptualize them Although silvicultural workers do engage with the limiting rhetoric of efficiency and humanism they also make rhetorical choices that break down the nature culture divide and orient them on a continuum that blurs the boundaries between the given and the constructed the human and nonhuman Tree planting work is approached as a site of a deep seated materiality a continued re creation of the land s disturbance rather than a simplistic form of doing good that further separates humans from landscapes Jennifer Clary Lemon s view of nature and the Anthropocene through the lens of material rhetorical studies is thoroughly original and will be of great interest to students and scholars of rhetoric and composition especially those focused on the environment

Parapsychology, Philosophy, and Spirituality David Ray Griffin, 1997-01-09 In this book David Ray Griffin best known for his work on the problem of evil turns his attention to the even more controversial topic of parapsychology Griffin examines why scientists philosophers and theologians have held parapsychology in disdain and argues that neither a priori philosophical attacks nor wholesale rejection of the evidence can withstand scrutiny After articulating a constructive postmodern philosophy that allows the parapsychological evidence to be taken seriously Griffin examines this evidence extensively He identifies four types of repeatable phenomena that suggest the reality of extrasensory perception and psychokinesis Then on the basis of a nondualistic distinction between mind and brain which makes the idea of life after death conceivable he examines five types of evidence for the reality of life after death messages from mediums apparitions cases of the possession type cases of the reincarnation type and out of body experiences His philosophical and empirical examinations of these phenomena suggest that they provide support for a postmodern spirituality that overcomes the thinness of modern

Lubarsky, David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 This collection constitutes the first extended discussion of the relationship between Judaism and process thought In the last half century the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne have become important sources for contemporary theological reflection Recently a number of Jewish thinkers have examined process thought as a potentially valuable resource for postmodern Jewish theology This book brings together many Jewish thinkers who have pioneered this discussion Jewish thinkers who have found process thought to be a useful framework for contemporary Jewish thought discuss issues that are primarily theological such as God's transcendence and immanence the problem of evil the idea of revelation Also included is a dialogue between Jewish and Christian thinkers on the appropriateness of process thought for their religious traditions Critical reflection on the continuities and discontinuities between Judaism and the process model is also covered Whitehead's Philosophy Janusz A. Polanowski, Donald W. Sherburne, 2012-02-01 This volume explores the range of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy and his relevance to contemporary philosophical traditions While philosophers and theologians with only a passing acquaintance with Whitehead might think that his philosophy is unconnected to our Western philosophical tradition the contributors prove that nothing could be further from the truth The most respected scholars in the field George Allan Lisa Bellantoni John B Cobb Jr Frederick Ferr David L Hall William S Hamrick Robert Cummings Neville Janusz A Polanowski Patrick Shade and Donald W Sherburne illustrate points of connection between Whitehead's ideas to the following Descartes the so called Father of Modern Philosophy classical American thought several contemporary American thinkers including Richard Rorty and Alasdair MacIntyre aspects of European philosophy and current reflections upon the environment and technology Physics and Whitehead Timothy E. Eastman, Hank Keeton, 2012-02-01 Featuring discussions and dialogue by prominent scientists and philosophers this book explores the rich interface of contemporary physics and Whitehead inspired process thought The contributors share the conviction that quantum physics not only corroborates many of Whitehead's philosophical theses but is also illuminated by them Thus though differing in perspective or emphasis the contributions by Geoffrey Chew David Finkelstein Henry Stapp and other scientists conceptually dovetail with those of Philip Clayton Jorge Nобо Yutaka Tanaka and other process philosophers Creating Women's Theology Monica A. Coleman, Nancy R. Howell, Helene Tallon Russell, 2011-09-22 Creating Women's Theology engages women's questions Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought What kind of belief follows women's criticism of traditional Christianity Creating Women's Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist

Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche s three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism

Process and Difference Catherine Keller, Anne Daniell, 2012-02-01 The similarities and creative tensions between French based poststructuralism and Whiteheadian process thought are examined here by leading scholars Although both approaches are labeled postmodern their own proponents often take them to be so dissimilar as to be opposed Contributors to this book however argue that processing these differences of theory at a deeper level may cultivate fertile and innovative modes of reflection Through their comparisons contrasts and hybridizations of process and poststructuralist theories the contributors variously redefine concepts of divinity and cosmos advance the interaction between science and religion and engage the sex gender and religious ethics of otherness and subjectivity
