regularity even in the hours of his meals and considers time as of no importance His house is untidy even dirty but he bathes twice a day and is very fond of personal adornment in the shape of smart clothes A Malay is intolerant of insult or slight it is something that to him should be wiped out in blood He will brood over a real or fancied stain on his honour until he is possessed by the desire for revenge If he cannot wreak it on the offender he will strike out at the first human being that comes in his way male or female old or young It is this state of blind fury this vision of blood that produces the mok The Malay has often been called treacherous I question whether he deserves the reproach more than other men He is courteous and expects courtesy in return and he understands only one method of avenging personal insults MALAY SKETCHES

The Real Malay Sir Frank Athelstane Swettenham,1900 Malay Magic, Being an Introduction to the Folklore and Popular Religion of the Malay Peninsula Walter William Skeat,1900 Retrospective June Yap,2017-08-15 Developed as an exploratory study of artworks by artists of Singapore and Malaysia Retrospective attempts to account for contemporary artworks that engage with history These are artworks that reference past events or narratives of the nation and its art Through the examination of a selection of artworks produced between 1990 and 2012 Retrospective is both an attribution and an analysis of a historiographical aesthetic within contemporary art practice It considers that by their method and in their assembly these artworks perform more than a representation of a historical past Instead they confront history and its production laying bare the nature and designs of the historical project via their aesthetic project Positing an interdisciplinary approach as necessary for understanding the historiographical as aesthetic Retrospective considers not only historical and aesthetic perspectives but also the philosophical by way of ontology in order to broaden its exposition beyond the convention of historical and contextual interpretation of art Yet in associating these artworks with a historiographical aesthetic this exposition may be regarded as a historiographical exercise in itself affirming the significance of these artworks for the history of Singapore and Malaysia In short which history rarely is Retrospective is about the art of historicisation and the historicisation of art Malay Magic Walter William Skeat,2020-04-14 Reprint of the original first published in 1900
