Phenomenal Blackness Mark Christian Thompson, 2022-01-21 This unorthodox account of 1960s Black thought rigorously details the field s debts to German critical theory and explores a forgotten tradition of Black singularity Phenomenal Blackness examines the changing interdisciplinary investments of key mid century Black writers and thinkers including the growing interest in German philosophy and critical theory Mark Christian Thompson analyzes this shift in intellectual focus across the post war decades placing Black Power thought in a philosophical context Prior to the 1960s sociologically oriented thinkers such as W E B Du Bois had understood Blackness as a singular set of socio historical characteristics In contrast writers such as Amiri Baraka James Baldwin Angela Y Davis Eldridge Cleaver and Malcolm X were drawn to notions of an African essence an ontology of Black being With these perspectives literary language came to be seen as the primary social expression of Blackness For this new way of thinking the works of philosophers such as Adorno Habermas and Marcuse were a vital resource allowing for continued cultural materialist analysis while accommodating the hermeneutical aspects of Black religious thought Thompson argues that these efforts to reimagine Black singularity led to a phenomenological understanding of Blackness a Black aesthetic dimension wherein aspirational models for Black liberation might emerge

The Second Emancipation Howard W. French, 2025-08-26. Named one of the Most Anticipated Books of 2025 by Foreign Policy. Howard French's The Second Emancipation stands the second half of the last century on its geopolitical head. David Levering Lewis, winner of the Pulitzer Prize. From the acclaimed author of Born in Blackness comes an extraordinary account of Africa's liberation from colonial oppression, a work that fundamentally reshapes our understanding of modern history. A work of epic dimension that recasts the liberation of twentieth-century Africa through the lens of revolutionary leader Kwame Nkrumah. The Second Emancipation, the second work in a trilogy from best-selling author Howard W. French about Africa's pivotal role in shaping world history, underscores Adam Hochschild's contention that French is a modern-day Copernicus. The title referring to a brief period beginning in 1957 when dozens of African colonies gained their freedom, positions this liberation at the center of a movement of global Blackness with one charismatic leader, Kwame Nkrumah, 1909-1972, at its head. That so few people today know about Nkrumah is an omission that French demonstrates is typical of our deliberate neglect of Africa's enormous role in the birth of the modern world. Determined to re-create Nkrumah's life as an epic twentieth-century story, The Second Emancipation begins with his impoverished unheralded birth in the far western region of Ghana's Gold Coast But blessed with a deep curiosity a young Nkrumah pursued an overseas education in the United States Nowhere is French's consummate style more vivid than in Nkrumah's early years in Depression era America especially in his mesmerizing portrait of a culturally effervescent Harlem that Nkrumah encountered in 1935 before heading to college During his student years in Pennsylvania and later as an activist in London Nkrumah became steeped in a renowned international Black intellectual milieu including Du Bois Garvey Fanon Padmore and C L R James who called him one of the greatest political leaders of our century and formed an ideology that readied him for an extraordinarily swift and peaceful rise to power upon his return to Ghana in 1947 Four years later in a political landslide he engineered while imprisoned Nkrumah stunned Britain by winning the first general election under universal franchise in Africa becoming Ghana's first independent prime minister in 1957 As leader of a sovereign nation Nkrumah wielded his influence to promote the liberation of the entire continent pushing unity as the only pathway to recover from the damages of enslavement and subjugation By the time national military and police forces aided by the CIA overthrew him in 1966 Nkrumah's radical belief in pan African liberation had both galvanized dozens of nascent African states and fired a global agenda of Black power In its dramatic recasting of the American civil rights story and in its tragic depiction of a continent that once exuded all the promise of a newly won freedom The Second Emancipation becomes a generational work that positions Africa at the forefront of modern day history

Chicago Muslims and the Transformation of American Islam S. Kaazim Naqvi, 2019-06-27 Through the Hart Celler Act of 1965 Islam in America underwent a dramatic transformation In the city of Chicago African American and immigrant Muslims increasingly came into contact and collaboration with each other Aided by shifts in American foreign and domestic policies and the increasing interconnectivity of Arab states with American Muslims the character and scope of community development and religious practice changed under the leadership of a new generation of American Muslims. Envisioning themselves as part of a single ummah, leaders of various Muslim communities worked to build understanding, consolidate organizations, and share time and space with their co-religionists. Through their actions, racial, cultural, linguistic, and ideological barriers were no longer be irreconcilable differences. Utilizing documents from groups like the MCC, MSA, and NOI, this book emphasizes the on-the-ground actions of Chicago-based Muslims in reimagining and building the ummah in America. This volume considers innovations, transitions, and traditions in both familiar and unfamiliar texts and moments in 1960s African American literature and culture. It interrogates declarations of race, authenticity, personal and collective empowerment, political action, and aesthetics within this key decade. It is divided into three sections. The first section engages poetry and music as pivotal cultural form in 1960s literary transitions. The second section explains how literature, culture, and politics intersect to offer a blueprint for revolution within and beyond the United States. The final section addresses literary and cultural moments that are lesser known in the canon of African American literature and culture. This book presents the 1960s as a unique commitment to art when Black became a political identity, one in which racial social justice became inseparable from aesthetic practice. Modern Muslim Theology Martin Nguyen, 2018-08-10. This book aims to bring Muslim theology into the present day. Rather than a purely academic pursuit, Modern Muslim Theology argues that theology is a creative process and discusses how the Islamic tradition can help contemporary practitioners negotiate their relationships with God, with one another, and with the rest of creation. The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Political Theory Leigh K.
