Rediscovering the Classics Ruth Townsend, Marcia Lubell, 1999 Women Re-Creating Classics Emily Hauser, Helena Taylor, 2025-06-12 In the last few years there has been a major and unmissable surge in women's retellings and re-creations of ancient myths and texts that has put women's re-creations of Classics centre stage Drawing together an interdisciplinary range of creative and scholarly voices this volume asks why classical creative retellings by women are so popular now and considers what creativity can do to foster new ways of thinking and writing about Classics thus blurring the boundary between the creative and the critical Contributors engage with debates on how to make Classics more accessible through the medium of creative works so that it is not just a discipline for the select few This second volume in a two volume set brings together original creative work by some of the many women writers who are pushing forward changes in the landscape of re-creating Classics from Madeline Miller to Jennifer Saint Emily Hauser Caroline Lawrence Roz Kaveney Nikita Gill Fiona Benson Anne Carson and many more These are set alongside discussions and interviews between writers and academics roundtable conversations among poets and critics and reflections on creative and inclusive pedagogy thus offering a cutting edge collaboration between practitioners and researchers and underlining the centrality of women's re-creations of Classics to the contemporary shaping of the field Resources in Education ,1998 English Journal ,2000 American Book Publishing Record ,2000

The Origins of Neoliberalism Giandomenica Becchio, Giovanni Leghissa, 2016-11-25 Neoliberalism is a doctrine that adopts a free market policy in a deregulated political framework In recent years neoliberalism has become increasingly prominent as a doctrine in Western society and has been heavily discussed in both academia and the media In The Origins of Neoliberalism the joint effort of an economist and a philosopher offers a theoretical overview of both neoliberalism's genesis within economic theory and social studies as well as its development outside academia Tracing the sources of neoliberalism within the history of economic thought the book explores the differences between neoliberalism and classical liberalism This book's aim is to make clear that neoliberalism is not a natural development of the old classical liberalism but rather that it represents a dramatic alteration of its original nature and meaning Also it fights against the current idea according to which neoliberalism would coincide with the triumph of free market economy In its use of both history of economics and philosophy this book takes a highly original approach to the concept of neoliberalism The analysis presented here will be of great interest to scholars and students of history of economics political economy and philosophy of social science Jesus, Skepticism, and the Problem of History

Zondervan, 2019-10-08 In recent years a number of New Testament scholars engaged in academic historical Jesus studies have concluded that such scholarship cannot yield secure and illuminating conclusions about its subject arguing that the search for a historically authentic Jesus has run aground Jesus Skepticism and the Problem of History brings together a stellar lineup of New Testament scholars who contend that historical Jesus scholarship is far from dead These scholars all

find value in using the tools of contemporary historical methods in the study of Jesus and Christian origins While the skeptical use of criteria to fashion a Jesus contrary to the one portrayed in the Gospels is methodologically unsound and theologically unacceptable these criteria properly formulated and applied yield positive results that support the Gospel accounts and the historical narrative in Acts This book presents a nuanced and vitally needed alternative to the skeptical extremes of revisionist Jesus scholarship that on the one hand uses historical methods to call into question the Jesus of the Gospels and on the other denies the possibility of using historical methods to learn about Jesus The New Criminology

Revisited P. Walton,J. Young,2016-07-27 In 1973 The New Criminology was published and quickly established itself as a key textbook in criminology casting a major influence over a generation of scholars It has remained in print ever since This volume published twenty five years later traces the major developments in the field including feminism postmodernism critical criminology and realism The articles are by leading authorities from Britain the United States and Australia and include Stan Cohen Elliott Currie Pat Carlen and Kerry Carrington as well as separate commentaries by the three original authors themselves Ian Taylor Paul Walton and Jock Young Todd Deutsch gamers. Ediz. inglese Domenico

Quaranta,George Slade,2008 Le Patrimoine Des Universités Européennes Nuria Sanz,Sjur Bergan,2006-01-01 This is the second edition of this publication which examines the contribution of universities to the cultural material and intellectual heritage of Europe It contains a range of papers authors representing 15 institutions who work both on the heritage of universities from an academic perspective as well as the management and preservation of university heritage Four case studies are presented on the role of particular universities in Italy Portugal France and Spain The book also seeks to promote co operation between universities at European level to define a common approach to important issues and problems The

Cairo Genizah and the Age of Discovery in Egypt Rebecca J. W. Jefferson,2022-01-27 The Cairo Genizah is considered one of the world s greatest Hebrew manuscript treasures Yet the story of how over a quarter of a million fragments hidden in Egypt were discovered and distributed around the world before becoming collectively known as The Cairo Genizah is far more convoluted and compelling than previously told The full story involves an international cast of scholars librarians archaeologists excavators collectors dealers and agents operating from the mid nineteenth to the early twentieth century and all acting with varying motivations and intentions in a race for the spoils Basing her research on a wealth of archival materials Jefferson reconstructs how these protagonists used their various networks to create key alliances or to blaze lone trails each one on a quest to recover ancient manuscripts Following in their footsteps she takes the reader on a journey down into ancient caves and tombs under medieval rubbish mounds into hidden attic rooms vaults basements and wells along labyrinthine souks and behind the doors of private clubs and cloistered colleges Along the way the reader will also learn about the importance of establishing manuscript provenance and authenticity and the impact to our understanding of the past when either factor is in doubt The Agilist's Guidebook - a reference for agile transformation CHANDAN LAL

PATARY,2019-01-24 The Agilist s Guidebook A Reference for Organizational Agile Transformation this workbook is for all Agilist who choose to enable organizational agile transformation Competitive pressure and fundamental changes will remain the hallmark of the business environment Thus the need for new and upgraded skills will continue Lifelong learning is not simply an educational concept it is a business necessity This workbook has emphasized pragmatic challenges we come across during agile transformation and how we can fortify ourselves to surmount all these challenges This workbook consists of five distinct areas like Organizational coaching the overall mindset of the team members Leadership capability Building a high performance team Organization development Structure and Culture These five pillars are five elements of the Panch Bhoota Model If these five elements are not purified or malfunctions we become ill As an organization is not a machine it is an organism leaders have to take care of these five elements by learning about them and strengthening these elements so that the organization does not get affected by a foreign threat much like a virus or a bacteria The political economic social technological legal environment can threaten an organizations survival When the organization is stable in these five elements it can cope with any challenge thrown by the external environment This workbook will feature some of the challenges and approaches in handling these areas This workbook will guide the reader to evaluate their present skills and take action wherever improvement is desired The author has highlighted many Mindmaps checklist thought provoking questions for the readers to reflect on and take action and has emphasized many case studies in this book to make the book practical for the reader The author had shared many theoretical concepts for the reader to do further research in and enhance learning in those areas This workbook is a compendium means it is a compilation of concise but detailed information about a specific subject in this case Organizational Agile transformation

The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics Tae-Hee Jo,Lynne Chester,Carlo D'Ippoliti,2017-07-28 The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics presents a comprehensive overview of the latest work on economic theory and policy from a pluralistic heterodox perspective Contributions throughout the Handbook explore different theoretical perspectives including Marxian radical political economics Post Keynesian Sraffian economics institutionalist evolutionary economics feminist economics social economics Regulation theory the Social Structure of Accumulation approach and ecological economics They explain the structural properties and dynamics of capitalism as well as propose economic and social policies for the benefit of the majority of the population This book aims firstly to provide realistic and coherent theoretical frameworks to understand the capitalist economy in a constructive and forward looking manner Secondly it delineates the future directions as well as the current state of heterodox economics and then provides both heat and light on controversial issues drawing out the commonalities and differences among different heterodox economic approaches The volume also envisions transformative economic and social policies for the majority of the population and explains why economics is and should be treated as a social science This Handbook will be of compelling interest to those including students who wish to learn about alternative economic theories and policies that are rarely found

Karkkainen,2017-10-23 The culmination of K rkk inen s multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book K rkk inen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church s missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities Zanzibari

Muslim Moderns Anne K. Bang,2024-09-01 Zanzibari Muslim Moderns is a historical study of Zanzibar during the interwar years This was a period marked by rapid intellectual and social change in the Muslim world when ideas of Islamic progress and development were hotly debated How did this process play out in Zanzibar Based on a wide range of sources Islamic and colonial private and public Anne K Bang examines how these concepts were received and promoted on the island arguing that a new ideal emerged in its intellectual arena the Muslim modern Tracing the influences that shaped the outlook of this new figure Bang draws lines to Islamic modernists in the Middle East to local Sufi teachings and to the recently founded state of Saudi Arabia She presents the activities of the Muslim modern in the colonial employment system as a contributor to international debates as an activist in the community and more She also explores the formation of numerous faith based associations during this period as well as the views of the Muslim modern on everything from funerary practices and Mawlid celebrations to reading habits A recurring theme throughout is the question with which many Muslim moderns were confronted who should implement development And for whom The Entrepreneurial Humanities Alain-Philippe

Durand,Christine Henseler,2023-06-07 With AI cryptocurrency and more in the news it seems that being an entrepreneur means being in IT but humanities graduates are launching new businesses every day turning a profit and having social impact This book explores how a humanities background can enable entrepreneurs to thrive Across all levels of education students are given the message that to change the world or make money the arts and humanities are not the subjects to study At the same time discussions of innovation and entrepreneurship highlight the importance of essential skills such as critical thinking storytelling cultural awareness and ethical decision making Here s the disconnect the subjects that help to develop these vital skills are derided at critical points in any aspiring entrepreneur s education This collection of perspectives from entrepreneurs in a range of fields and humanities educators illustrates what individuals and the wider world are missing when humanities are overlooked as a source of inspiration and success in business Featuring a foreword by Sensemaking author Christian Madsbjerg this is a thought provoking guide for aspiring entrepreneurs in all sectors and for educators a window on the practical value of the humanities in an ever more mechanized world _ Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Researching Social Change Julie McLeod, Rachel Thomson, 2009-04-08 This book provides a timely guide to qualitative methodologies that investigate processes of personal generational and historical change The authors showcase a range of methods that explore temporality and the dynamic relations between past present and future Through case studies they review six methodological traditions memory work oral life history qualitative longitudinal research ethnography inter generational and follow up studies It illustrates how these research approaches are translated into research projects and considers the practical as well as the theoretical and ethical challenges they pose Research methods are also the product of times and places and this book keeps to the fore the cultural and historical context in which these methods developed the theoretical traditions on which they draw and the empirical questions they address

Theorists of Economic Growth from David Hume to the Present W. W. Rostow, 1992-09-24 This history of theories and theorists of economic growth elucidates the economic theory economic history and public policy observations of the renowned scholar W W Rostow Looking at the economic growth theories of the classic economists up to 1870 Rostow compares Hume and Adam Smith Malthus and Ricardo and J S Mill and Karl Marx He then examines the period 1870 1939 and its economic theorists including Schumpeter Colin Clark Kuznets and Harrod and surveys the three forms of growth analysis in the postwar era formal models statistical morphology and development theories This authoritative overview also includes an agenda of unresolved problems in growth analysis and a description of the five major tasks statesmen will confront over the next several generations Pattern and Process in Cultural Evolution Stephen Shennan, 2009-03-31 This volume offers an integrative approach to the application of evolutionary theory in studies of cultural transmission and social evolution and reveals the enormous range of ways in which Darwinian ideas can lead to productive empirical research the touchstone of any worthwhile theoretical perspective While many recent works on cultural evolution adopt a specific theoretical framework such as dual inheritance theory or human behavioral ecology Pattern and Process in Cultural Evolution emphasizes empirical analysis and includes authors who employ a range of backgrounds and methods to address aspects of culture from an evolutionary perspective Editor Stephen Shennan has assembled archaeologists evolutionary theorists and ethnographers whose essays cover a broad range of time periods localities cultural groups and artifacts
