Finney,Tyrell Mayfield,2018-10-15 This edited collection will expand upon and refine the ideas on the role of ethics and the profession in the 21st Century The authors delve into whether Samuel Huntington and Morris Janowitz still ring true in the 21st century whether training and continuing education play a role in defining a profession and if there is a universal code of ethics required for the military as a profession Redefining the Modern Military is unique in how it treats the subject of ethics and the military profession as well as the types of writers it brings on board to address this topic The book puts a significant emphasis on individual agency for military professionalism as opposed to broad organizational or cultural change Such a review of these topics is necessary because the process of serious intellectual self reflection is a requirement especially in a profession that involves life and death of people and nations Reference Books Bulletin ,1990 A compilation of evaluations appearing in Reference books bulletin a section of the journal Booklist Rewriting the History of School Mathematics

War is an armed conflict between states or nations. The causes of war may be ideological political racial economic or religious. War has been a feature of history. The use of fighting forces requires strategy and tactics. Efforts to end war have all failed including the League of Nations and the United Nations. The laws of war are not recognized. There has been no success in leaving out the civilian population in any war. The biblical concept of war required that God declare the war. The LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war from generation to generation. Exod 17 16 The book of the wars of the LORD Num 21 14 Our fight against radical Islam is a fight for LORDs battles 1 Sam 18 7 Our holy war is against murder terrorists the rise of ISIS and forty four known terrorist groups and a vanishing freedom. It is now fight or die.
