Qualitative Research Practice Clive Seale, 2007 Aimed at the student reader this book demonstrates the benefits of using particular methods from the viewpoint of real life experience It contains chapters written by leading internationally distinguished qualitative researchers who recount and reflect on their own research experiences as well as others The Silent Experiences of Young Bilingual Learners Caroline Bligh, 2014-09-11 Many teachers are increasingly concerned with how to best support the learning of the rising numbers of bilingual learners in schools particularly those children who are new to English and therefore cannot yet communicate with the teacher or their peers in their first language during the silent period This book offers an alternative insight to that which is most commonly available to teachers and researchers as instead of examining language acquisition purely from a linguistic approach it explores the learning that is occurring through a sociocultural lens and even more significantly from the young child's perspective the worm's eye view Investigated through the experiences of young bilingual learners allows the reader to make sense of the making meaning that occurs when the child cannot make sense of his/her new world nor communicate verbally in the language of instruction in the classroom Remarkably learning through the silent period is revealed as both complex and messy as the bilingual child mediates his or her own learning through a synthesis of alternative learning pathways The silent period is presented as a crucial time for learning distributed through a synthesis of close observation intense listening and most significantly copying the practices of others Throughout the silent period the children are not only seen to be learning but also contributing to the classroom practices The book not only initiates new understandings of second language learning but also offers creative ideas on how to raise the achievement of children who are learning English as an additional language

Research Methods For Nurses And The Caring Professions 2/E Abbott, Pamela, Sapsford, Roger, 1998-05-01 Praise for the first edition of Research into Practice and Research Methods for Nurses and the Caring Professions These books provide a good introduction for the uninitiated to reading and doing research Abbott and Sapsford provide a clearly written and accessible introduction to social research One of their aims is to demystify research and in this they succeed admirably After reading the text and the articles in the reader and working through the various research exercises readers should have a clear appreciation of how to evaluate other people's research and how to begin their own

David Field Journal of Palliative Medicine This book now substantially revised in its second edition is about the appreciation evaluation and conduct of social research Aimed at nurses social workers community workers and others in the caring professions the book is particularly focused on research which evaluates and contributes to professional practice The authors have provided many short practical exercises in the text and the examples are drawn mostly from projects carried out by one or two people rather than large research teams The clear accessible style will make this the ideal introductory text for those undertaking or studying research for the first time The book may be used in conjunction with Research into Practice Open University Press a reader of useful examples selected by the same authors

Post-Qualifying Child Care Social Work Gillian Ruch, 2008-11-13 The first text to systematically address the learning needs of post qualifying child care social workers Soundly organized and engagingly written with useful summaries and reflective exercises for students it is a very fine text that will be widely used Nick Pike Principal Lecturer in Social Work University of Gloucestershire This textbook provides an overview of the Post Qualifying Child Care Award in social work Written in response to recent policy and training guidelines it provides the underpinning knowledge for candidates following the Post Qualifying curriculum It helps child care social workers acquire and develop the breadth of knowledge and understanding that characterise best practice Key features include Chapters on reflective collaborative and critical practice child development child observation case management and managing risk working in partnership with children and families inter professional working and practice education Links to the relevant post qualifying standards for social work Contributions from a team of practice assessors and programme candidates A practice based approach clearly links theory research and practice An inter professional perspective Case studies activities and points for reflection that encourage the reader to develop ways of challenging and improving their own practice The book equips social workers with the relevant training knowledge and skills to improve the quality of services and their delivery With an emphasis upon continuing professional development this text is suitable for social workers studying for the Child Care Award those already in practice and other social care professionals working with children

Mental Health Service Users in Research Patsy Staddon, 2015-01-14 In examining how our identity shapes the knowledge we produce Mental health service users in research considers ways of doing research which bring multiple understandings together effectively and explains the sociological use of autobiography and its relevance

Feminist Research in Theory and Practice Gayle Letherby, 2003-02-16 an extremely welcome addition to the field of feminist research British Journal of Educational Studies This is a clear and accessible exploration of feminist method methodology and epistemology After situating herself and her work Gayle Letherby charts the debates concerned with the epistemological political and practical issues involved in doing feminist research and places the debates within a wider consideration of the status of knowledge The main focus of the book is then the particular and practical issues for feminist researchers It examines how the process of research affects the results of that research and explores the relation between politics and practice in terms of research and knowledge production Throughout the book there is a practical emphasis on specific examples of feminist research in action and as well as summarizing current theoretical debates Gayle Letherby adds to them Feminist Research in Theory and Practice is designed and written as a textbook for students at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate level but will be a valuable resource for any researcher or individual interested in women s studies feminism and in researching in the social sciences

An Auto/Biographical Approach to Learning Disability Research Dorothy Atkinson,2018-12-07 First published in 1997 Dorothy Atkinson collects testimonies of the personal perspectives of people with learning disability in order to rediscover the histories of people with learning disabilities Calling on the importance if auto biographical research as mode to encourage social historical awareness and potential understanding of the commonalities as well the differences between people with learning difficulties
