Metaphors for Environmental Sustainability Brendon Larson, 2011-06-07 Scientists turn to metaphors to formulate and explain scientific concepts but an ill considered metaphor can lead to social misunderstandings and counterproductive policies Brendon Larson observes in this stimulating book He explores how metaphors can entangle scientific facts with social values and warns that particularly in the environmental realm incautious metaphors can reinforce prevailing values that are inconsistent with desirable sustainability outcomes Metaphors for Environmental Sustainability draws on four case studies two from nineteenth century evolutionary science and two from contemporary biodiversity science to reveal how metaphors may shape the possibility of sustainability Arguing that scientists must assume greater responsibility for their metaphors and that the rest of us must become more critically aware of them the author urges more critical reflection on the social dimensions and implications of metaphors while offering practical suggestions for choosing among alternative scientific metaphors      A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt, 2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God's desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance

Persuasions of God Paul Lynch, 2024-02-20 The nations of the global north find themselves in a post secular or post Christian period one in which the practice expression and effects of religion are undergoing massive shifts In Persuasions of God Paul Lynch pursues a project of theorhetic a radical new approach to speaking about the divine Searching for new religious forms amid the lingering influence of Christianity Lynch turns to Ren Girard the most important twentieth century thinker on the sacred and its expression within the Christian tradition Lynch repurposes Girard's mimetic theory to invent a post Christian way of speaking to for and especially about God Girard theorized the sacred as the nexus of violence order and sacralization that lies at the heart of religion What Lynch advocates in our current moment of religious kairos is a paradoxically meek rhetoric that conscientiously refuses rivalry actively exploits tradition through complicit invention and boldly seeks a holiness free of exclusionary violence The project of theorhetic is to reinvent God through the reimagined themes of meekness sacrifice atonement and holiness From these Persuasions of God offers religion reimagined for our post secular age An interdisciplinary mix of philosophy sociology rhetorical studies and theology this book draws on mimetic theory to answer the question of where religion goes next It will be valued by religious studies and communications scholars as well as anyone interested in the future of Christianity in our modern world
